Mifflin County Fair.

The managers of the Mifflin county fair expect the greatest fair ever held in that county. Everybody is urged to send articles of merit or curios for exhibit.

A Big Lumber Deal.

The Means brothers, of Mifflin county, sold to Samuel Dell, Esq., one of Mifflin county's commissioners, and one of the largest lumber operators in that section, 600 acres of timber land in Derry and Granville townships.

And What Will Bellefonte Do?

The following is from the Phillipsburg Ledger, and is exactly true: Of all the rabble that ever infested a railroad station, that at Bellefonte, is the worst.

The October National.

The October number of the National Magazine of Boston is high-water mark for that periodical. Senator Tillman predicts the repeal of the amendment granting suffrage to the negro.

Will be Publicly Married.

The Bellefonte fair association was on the lookout for a smitten couple who were willing to be publicly married during a session of the fair. Being a fair association, they had very little trouble in inducing some fair one to be willing to accept the fair proposition to be married on a fair day during fair week for a purse of $50.00.

Huston Farm Sold.

David K. Keller, Saturday of last week, bought the Huston farm, east of Centre Hall. This is one of the finest farms in Penna Valley. This is true from a point of fertility and lay of land. The greater part of the tract, containing one hundred and ninety-nine acres, is entirely free of stone.

CUPID HOLDS COURT.

With Bow Strings Taut and Arrows Sharp Cupid Summons Lovers.

Cupid held court in Centre Hall Saturday evening, his sessions opening immediately after the arrival of the train from the east.

With bow strings taut and arrows sharp, Cupid summoned Miss Florence Pennel, of Williamstown, and Warner Gonder, of Wall, to Centre Hall, to definitely settle a little love affair that had previously been conducted through the agency of Uncle Sam's mail pouches.

Mr. Gonder is fireman on the Pennsylvania railroad near Pittsburg, and is a step-son of Wm. Colyer, of this place. He is a young man of good character and industrious habits. The story of this love affair, as related to the Reporter, had its beginning some months ago when an engineer told Mr. Gonder about a charming young lady he knew in Williamstown, whom he recommended as a proper person to become the wife of a brother fireman.

Miss Scott made her appearance Saturday afternoon, and was promptly taken to the Colyer home by her fiance. She is tall, a blond and is pronounced pretty.

The Reporter in its next issue hopes to give an account of the wedding.

Pacing Record—1.57.

Prince Alert beat the record of Dan Patch, by pacing a mile in one minute and fifty-seven seconds. That is the world's best pacing record.

Dr. Schaeffer Quoted.

D. K. Keller, secretary of the Potter township school board, asked the question of State Superintendent of Schools Dr. Nathan C. Schaeffer, whose duty it was to enforce the compulsory school law when school children of one district attended the school of another.

In the case mentioned, the Potter township board decided to turn its pupils, attending the Centre Hall schools, over to the latter board so far as the enforcement of the compulsory school law is concerned.

District Meeting.

Several of the Presbyterian officers will be present and take part in the services. Miss Jessie Scott, a missionary from Bogota, will tell of her work in that place. As according to the ruling of the Executive Committee, the noon lunch will take the form of a basket picnic. There is no restriction as to the number of delegates and all the societies and bands in the district are cordially invited to come en masse and bring their friends.

To the friends of other denominations also a hearty invitation is extended. "Come now and let us reason together saith the Lord."

FOUNDRY WILL RE-OPEN.

Victor Bath Tub Company Leases Centre Hall Foundry.

The Centre Hall foundry has been leased and will be operated within a short time by the Victor Bath Tub Company of New York City. This company is a well-known and reliable firm and does a large business. It is the intention of the company to begin operating the plant at Centre Hall with a force of twelve or fifteen men, moulders and helpers. The output will be bath tub castings, which will be shipped in the rough to the New York plant to be finished.

Messrs. E. M. Huyett, of this place, and W. O. Rearick, of Milroy, are the owners of the foundry plant. The lease was made Wednesday of last week, at which time Mr. Huyett met a member of the firm in the office of W. B. Mingle, Esq. Messrs. Huyett and Rearick, some time ago, had placed the plant with W. M. Ostrander, the great real estate agent of Philadelphia, and the lease above referred to is the result.

The Reporter, and the citizens of Centre Hall, hail with delight the reopening of the Centre Hall foundry.

MUST OBSERVE GAME LAW.

Attorney General Carson Criticizes a Centre County Justice.

Joseph Kalbfus, Secretary of the State Game Commission, received an opinion from Attorney General Carson relative to the discharge of a twelve year old boy, arrested in this county for killing a deer out of season.

It was claimed by the child's attorney that no punishment could be imposed because the boy was under the age limit fixed by the Juvenile Court act. The Justice of the Peace, believing this to be the law, had discharged the prisoner.

Mr. Kalbfus had informed the Attorney General that he is constantly in receipt of letters complaining of violations of the game laws by boys under the age of sixteen.

Mr. Carson in his opinion, said: I answer emphatically that the Magistrate did not understand his duty. He was strangely imposed upon by the argument of counsel. It should be distinctly understood by all Magistrates, as well as by all children, whether boys or girls, and by parents and guardians, that children under the age of sixteen are not privileged to violate the game laws or any other laws of the State. If such notions should prevail generally there would soon be a large and constantly increasing class of juvenile law breakers. The laws must be respected and observed by children as well as adults.

REUNION AT PENN'S CAVE.

The Shaffer and Hazel Families Hold a Basket Picnic.

The Shaffer-Hazel reunion was held at Penn's Cave Wednesday. The day was a delightful one, and about one hundred and fifty members of these families with some visiting friends were present. The forenoon was spent in social greetings and chat, and in making preparations for dinner. It being a basket affair cloths were soon spread throughout the park, and the good wives and pretty daughters began to set out good things they had prepared in abundance for the occasion, and it was a feast fit for princes. The dinner hour being over all assembled in the pavilion, and the meeting was organized as follows:

The meeting was called to order by Michael Shaffer, Esq., and the following organization effected: Chairman, Benjamin F. Shaffer, of Nittany, who responded with a brief and appropriate address; secretary, A. J. Hazel, of Madisonburg; treasurer, U. S. Shaffer, Madisonburg.

The above officers chosen were declared the permanent organization for the ensuing year.

Prof. C. L. Gramley was then introduced and spoke at length giving data of the ancestry of Shaffer's and Hazel's.

Why Pay High Prices FOR Fall and Winter Goods

When you can get the same articles, or better, at THE NEW CASH STORE for less money? We make a profit. We are not in the business for our health, but we do not believe in taking both the penny and the cake. We are not cutting prices merely to be "cutters," but we sell for CASH OR PRODUCE ONLY, so can afford to sell goods for less profit than our competitors who do a CREDIT business.

Our Prices have been, and will continue to be, the talk of both town and country. When a customer can buy $1.25 worth of goods for ONE DOLLAR, that is the place he will patronize. He finds profits in his own business small, and is therefore not able nor willing to pay large profits to other people.
