KEEP THE VILLAGE CLEAN.

Municipal Cleanliness Necessary for the Town's Welfare.

Keep the village clean. A clean village means an attractive village. An attractive village means increased interest on the part of visitors and a growing desire to live in that part of the community.

Municipal cleanliness—and this has no reference to politics—isn't always easy. It's so much easier to throw the ashes into the unpaved street than to pile them in a heap in the rear yard.

Who thinks of such a thing as picking up a newspaper blowing in the street? And by the same token, who ever thinks of checking the personal inclination to throw a paper in the roadway when it is discarded?

The District Meeting.

Although the rain prevented a large attendance, the District meeting held in the Presbyterian church last Thursday was a most enjoyable affair.

The deceased's maiden name was Rebecca Krape, being a native of Gregg township. After her marriage to John Emerick the couple began housekeeping and farming on the Emerick homestead, which upon the death of the senior Emerick was purchased by John and William Emerick, and later came into possession of the deceased's husband.

CONDEMNING PROCESS EXPENSIVE.

What it Costs to Condemn Turn Pike Roads.—The County Has Paid $2716 16 for that Purpose.

A synopsis of expenses for the condemnation of the Bellefonte, Aaronsburg and Youngmanstown Turnpike Road Company, extending from the Old Fort, in Potter township, to the Union county line, in Haines township, a distance of twenty-two and three-fifth miles, is given below:

Table of expenses: Viewers bill $190 80, Costs of surveying pike and draft 55 82, Expenses, on day of viewing pike 14 00, Costs of witnesses to condemn 234 66, Stenographer's bill writing testimony 168 40, Master's fee (H. C. Guigley) 300 00, Costs in Quarter Sessions Court 21 75, Total $982 43.

The entire costs in condemnation of the Bald Eagle, Nittany and Brush Valley Turnpike road, beginning near Lamar in Clinton county, ending in Miles township, at Emanuel Harter's, a distance of eight and one-half miles, was $680.67.

The turnpike between Bellefonte and Milesburg cost the county $324.26. The pike leading from Howard dam to Bald Eagle creek, a distance of three and a fourth miles, cost $453.06.

The pike from Centre Hall to Millin county line cost the county for condemnation about $600.

DEATHS.

MRS. REBECCA EMERICK. The death of Mrs. Rebecca Emerick occurred at the home of her son, Geo. F. Emerick, on the Emerick homestead east of Centre Hall, Thursday of last week.
