

THE CENTRE REPORTER. S. W. SMITH, Editor and Proprietor. CENTRE HALL, PENN'A. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1903.

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.

The figures opposite your name on label of paper indicate the date to which your subscription is paid. When no date is given the date implied is July—thus: '00' means July, 1900; '01', means July, 1901; '02' means that your subscription is paid in advance to July, 1902. Other months than July are indicated by abbreviations.

When you pay your subscription always examine your label, and when a notice appears that corrections have been made, compare and report immediately if you have not been given proper credit. No receipts for subscription will be sent by mail unless by special request. The change of date on label ought to be sufficient evidence. Money by mail is reasonably safe. There have been no losses to this date.

Spring Mills.

The Best Remedy for Croup.

(From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.) This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tulu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

BEAR PICKING APPLES.

Bruin Shambles Along Sinking Creek—Carries off Hunter's Lead on Nittany Mountain.

Bruin is again in evidence. Within the past few days a large she bear and two cubs passed through the corn field of Wm. Lucas, along Sinking creek, one and one-half miles east of Centre Hill. Later bruin was seen by Elmer Hettinger leisurely eating apples in the Hettinger orchard, which is near the Lucas farm. Mr. Hettinger hurriedly ran to a neighbor's house for a gun, but when he returned bruin had disappeared.

A large bear has been making his quarters on Nittany mountain in the neighborhood of Lemont, and has been hunted for by great and small. So far this particular bear has been able to carry with him all the lead sunk into his carcass by hunters who chanced to hit him. He is a gamy fellow.

Miss Sue Dickson, daughter of A. L. Dickson, of Tyrone, a school teacher at Garden Station, this county, while on her way to her boarding house Monday came face to face with a black bear lying in the road. The bear sprang to his feet and walked toward the young woman in a friendly fashion, but she turned and fled as fast as her feet could carry her.

Week of Prayer at Spring Mills.

General topic for the week is "Jesus the Light of the World." These meetings are for the general public and all are cordially invited to attend who are interested in religious meetings. These meetings will be strictly undenominational as all the pastors will participate.

Mr. Colyer's Will.

Mr. Colyer's will, as was related to the writer by one of the heirs, provides that the widow is to receive $1000 in cash, and have for her use, during her widowhood, the Colyer home in Centre Hall and the large farm east of Centre Hall, along the Spring Mills pike.

Each of his sons and daughters is to receive one hundred dollars in cash as soon as convenient to the executors. All the property not mentioned is to be turned into cash and held in trust for William Colyer, Jr., the youngest heir, who, upon reaching his majority, is to receive the proceeds of the fund in trust.

*Upon the death of the widow, the proceeds of the town property and farm will also go to William Colyer, Jr., and upon his death the whole estate is to be equally divided among the heirs of the children of the testator.

Mrs. Colyer, the widow, and Calvin Bottorf, of Colyer, are named executors.

Thanksgiving Services.

The pastors of the town have arranged to hold the usual Thanksgiving service this year in the Presbyterian church, Rev. Shultz to preach the sermon. This service will be held in the morning.

At Spring Mills a union service will be held in the evening of Thanksgiving Day, in the Reformed church, Rev. J. M. Reaick to preach the sermon. This early notice will enable all to arrange their work so as to be present.

Mrs. Ettinger Dies in Iowa.

Mrs. James Ettinger died at her home in Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday of last week, from pneumonia, at the age of about thirty-eight years. The deceased's maiden name was Minnie Shaffer, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Shaffer, deceased, of Aaronsburg, and niece of D. J. Meyer, of this place. They removed from Aaronsburg to Iowa, their present home, two years ago.

The mother is survived by six children, the oldest of which is aged forty years.

After Bear.

All the hunters here their hunting blood raised, says the Lemont correspondent, this week, for there were two bears in the vicinity and every evening the woods were full of greedy hunters, and when the worst is told, no one succeeded in securing the booty although they had a few shots at the game.
