Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., 123 North Broadway, regular fifty cent and regular dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

GARMAN'S

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

He was seventeen years of age. He leaves to survive, his parents, Samuel and Irene Mowery, three sisters, Bertha, Marinda, and Mary, and one brother, Fisher.

THE REGULARS IN CAMP.

At Tar Pit, East of Stone Creek Gap in the Seven Mountains.

One of the thoroughly organized hunting parties on the South Side of Potter township is the "Regulars." It has among its members hunters who are immune from buck fever and other kin diseases. This party is now in camp at "Tar Pit," east of Stone Creek gap, and while the members are not all there at present they will answer to the morning and evening roll call before camp is broken.

The members of this organization, in times past, have performed some notable feats, and they will no doubt repeat their correctness of aim and killing powers when an opportunity is again presented. The members of the Regulars are:

James Reish, John Wilkinson, D. R. Sweetwood, Wm. Workinger, S. W. Johnston, Harry Wilkinson, W. H. Lucas, Joseph Gilliland, W. O. Rearick, Rev. W. W. Rhoads, H. F. Musser, Wm. M. Grove, Esq. A guest of Rev. Rhoads named Gardner is also in camp.

THE ELECTION.

Democrats Lose No States that Belong to their Column.— Tammany Wins in N. Y.

JUDGE GORDON TURNED DOWN IN CLEARFIELD COUNTY.

Result in Central Pennsylvania—General Apathy Leads Political Forces in State.

Tuesday was the quietest election held in Centre county for many years. Less than half the Democratic vote was polled. Pattison's vote last year was 4,574, and Pennypacker's vote was 4,181. The vote for the head of the Democratic ticket Tuesday was less than twenty-one thousand. As the Reporter goes to press the official vote has not been made out, but it is safe to say that the Republican ticket, with the exception of auditor general, carried the county by a majority of less than ten.

In Centre Hall sixty Democratic and twenty-three Republican votes were cast.

Pennsylvania Republican.

The state returns a Republican majority in the neighborhood of 200,000. The Republican state ticket as elected is auditor general, William P. Snyder; treasurer, William L. Mathews; judges of superior court, Thomas A. Morrison and John Henderson.

The vote polled throughout the state was light, except where there were local contests.

Democratic Mayor for New York.

George B. McClellan, Democrat, was elected mayor of New York by a majority of some seventy thousand. All the Tammany city candidates were elected.

Nebraska.

Democrats claim the election of man governor of Mississippi without Sullivan for supreme court judge.

Snyder.

The Republican majority in Snyder county has been cut down wonderfully. It will require the official count to decide the election to the associate judgeship. J. F. Ketter is the Republican and John Fields the Democratic candidate.

Judge Bell Re-elected.

Judge Martin Bell, Republican, in Blair county, was re-elected over both his rivals by a plurality of fully two thousand. The remainder of the Republican county ticket was elected by a majority of four thousand.

WABASH NEWS.

Engineers Slowly Pushing Through the Mountains from Coburn.

There is practically no new Wabash news.

The most important information that can be given today is that the Reporter's story of the Wabash as it appeared last week has been confirmed.

The fact has been confirmed that the corps of engineers now pushing their way through the mountains below Coburn is the same one that was at Westover, in the southern portion of Clearfield county.

The full corps is at work in the neighborhood of Ingleby, little headway having been made during the past week. Most of the time was spent in resurveying the same route and making calculations for fills and cuts.

To Remove Quarantine.

A representative of the State Board of Health is expected at Oak Hall Friday of this week to superintend the fumigation of the Knopf and Bible homes at that place. The quarantine is then to be removed, as it is believed there will be no danger of the spread of small pox.
