CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Presbyterian—Centre Hall, morning; Spring Mills, afternoon. Methodist—Sprucetown, morning; Centre Hall, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening.

Some Big Hogs.

There will be some big hogs killed in the borough by the close of November. It will take a five hundred pound hog to be in it this fall.

Buying Horses.

Emanuel Bodenheimer, of New York, is stopping in Centre Hall and is buying up a car load of horses. John Darragh, of Brooklyn, Friday of last week, shipped a car load of seventeen horses from this station to Brooklyn.

Dine at Centre Hall.

The Ladies' Literary Club of Millheim dined at the Centre Hall hotel Saturday noon. The club is composed of the following ladies: Mrs. Mary Zeigler Neff, Mrs. Eva Moyer, Miss Jennie E. Kreamer Reilsnyder, Miss Mary E. Hartman, Mrs. Margaret Kreamer Musser, Mrs. Cora Hockman Stover, Mrs. Elizabeth Hosterman, Mrs. Carrie Condo Meyer, Miss Anna May Smith.

Dickinson State College Football.

On account of the football game between the teams of Dickinson College and State College, to be played at Williamsport on Saturday, November 14, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Williamsport, good going on November 14, and returning until November 16, inclusive, from Bellefonte, Renovo, Elmira, East Bloomsburg, Mt. Carmel, Lykens, Harrisburg, Middleburg, Coburn and intermediate stations, at rate of a single fare for the round trip (minimum rate, 25 cents).

Fire at Mill Hall.

The handsome residence of A. C. Mann, at Mill Hall, was totally destroyed by fire Friday night of last week. The loss is about $10,000; insurance, $7,000.

The family had been away from home for several days. Mr. Mann returned Friday and ordered fire made in the furnace, and it is supposed the fire originated in some manner from the furnace. Mr. Mann was awakened at night by the smell of smoke, and was obliged to escape from the house through a window on the second floor.

Couldn't Work Spicher.

A picture man made a vain attempt to "do" John Spicher, of this place. Some time ago an agent for a firm canvassed Centre Hall for orders to enlarge pictures, and among other places called at the home of Mr. Spicher and asked for work in his line. The stranger was told that they did not wish any work done, whereupon the agent asked whether they did not have a good photograph in the house. A photograph of Mr. Spicher was produced by a member of the family, and after inspection, the agent pocketed the picture and departed.

In the course of time another man appeared with a finished picture made from the photograph mentioned above, and asked pay for the enlarging. Mr. Spicher was equal to the occasion and point blank refused to pay for work not ordered.

Quite a number of pictures were delivered through Penns Valley, and it is not unlikely that much of the work was obtained in the manner described. Beware of strangers.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE.

The Institution Rapidly Pushing to the Front Ranks in the United States.

Within the last few years The Pennsylvania State College has grown so rapidly as to become the sixth or seventh in the United States in the number of its Engineering students. The Freshman Class just entered numbers upwards of 280, of whom 227 are in Engineering Courses, 6 in Mining Engineering, 52 in Mechanical Engineering, 72 in Civil Engineering, and 98 in Electrical Engineering.

The Auditorium, the funds for which were contributed by Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Schwab, at a cost of upwards of $150,000, is now in daily use, and is one of the most beautiful and effective College buildings in the United States.

The Library, for which Mr. Andrew Carnegie has given $150,000, is well under way, and is to be dedicated next Spring.

The Dairy wing of the Agricultural Buildings, for which the last Legislature appropriated $100,000, is still further advanced, and is to be dedicated early in January, 1904, when Secretary Wilson, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, has promised to deliver the address. Two additional Laboratories have been fitted up for the Department of Electrical Engineering, and a temporary frame building has been erected for the Foundry.

Penny Employees Must be Uniformed.

A sweeping order requiring nearly all Penny employees to wear uniforms has been sent out by General Manager W. W. Atterbury. The order is one that will be appreciated by the traveling public. The following employees will hereafter be obliged to wear uniforms: Agents, station masters, passenger conductors, train agents, baggage masters, passenger brakemen, ticket examiners, baggage agents and assistants, checkmen, gatemen, ushers, special officers, police officers, watchmen, cab agents, baggage porters, cleaners, station porters, cabmen, dining and parlor car conductors, porters, waiters attendants, mail wagon drivers, messenger boys.

Wingert-Wert Hunters.

The Wingert-Wert hunting party Saturday returned to their home in West Brush Valley after a week's successful hunting in Treaster Kettle, Seven Mountains. They killed two fine deer. This is an old established party, and never fails to kill at least one or two deer each season. The names of the hunters are attached, and those with a star killed or assisted: Frank Wingert, Simon Rhoads, William Wert, Pierce Duck, Clyde Duck, Irvin Kern, Bert Kern, John Wert, Harvey Wert, Calvin Meyer, Cleaven Gutzell, Arch Zettle, Andrew Mark, Harry Wingert, Henry Wingert, John Ream.

Fine Weather.

Remarkably fine weather has prevailed during the latter part of October and beginning of November. Friday night the thermometer registered twenty-five degrees above zero, which was the coldest night this fall. The sun has been unusually bright and warm. The weather has been especially favorable to the farmers who have much fall work yet to perform.

Dr. Allison Comes to Centre Hall.

Papers were signed Monday morning whereby the house and lot and good will of Dr. Charles E. Emerick pass to Dr. J. R. G. Allison, of Le Roy, Bradford county. Dr. Allison is a son of A. Allison, of Spring Mills, and a son-in-law of James W. Runkle, proprietor of the Centre Hall hotel.

DEATHS.

ISRAEL CONDO.

The grim reaper death entered the Condo home at Boalsburg Saturday evening and called hence to the spirit world the respected head of the family, Israel J. Condo, the exact time of his death being ten minutes past eleven. Mr. Condo's death was due to cramp of the stomach and he had only been ill since Friday.

Israel J. Condo was born at Aaronsburg and was aged fifty-nine years, seven months and five days. At the time of his death he was engaged in the confectionery business but in earlier life he was a blacksmith by trade. He was a highly respected citizen, a good neighbor and friend and a conscientious christian gentleman. He was a charter member of the Boalsburg Lodge of Odd Fellows. He was married to Miss Agnes Price who preceded him to the grave about five years ago.

Surviving him are three daughters, Annie, wife of Richard Kreamer, of Altoona; Clara, wife of Andrew Kreamer, of Altoona, and Maude, wife of Edward Williams, of Boalsburg. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Robert, of Boalsburg; William, of Aaronsburg, and Charles, in the far west; Mrs. Sarah Spangler, of Rebersburg, and Mrs. Mary Hohn, of Osoola.

The funeral took place from his late home Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Stonecypher officiating. Interment in the Boalsburg cemetery. The services at the grave were in charge of the Odd Fellows.

JAMES G. FORTNEY.

James G. Fortney, a prominent retired farmer of Ferguson township, died at his home on Penn street, Pine Grove Mills, Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Death was due to paralysis from which he had been suffering for several months past.

James G. Fortney was born in Potter township and was sixty-five years of age. He was one of the best known men of Ferguson township and for the past forty-six years had been a resident of near Pine Grove Mills. He was one of the town's most progressive citizens and has filled many township offices with credit and ability. He was a prominent member of the Lutheran church, taking an active interest in its affairs and filling many positions of trust and responsibility in the church. He was very charitable and kind hearted, and was admired and loved by all.

He leaves to survive him a wife, three daughters, two sons and two brothers. The brothers are David F., of Bellefonte, and Rev. George W. Fortney, of Suffern, New York. The funeral took place Monday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. C. T. Aikens, of Pine Grove Mills, officiating. Interment in the new cemetery at Pine Grove Mills.

JESSIE HARSHBARGER.

Jessie Harshbarger, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Harshbarger, east of Potters Mills, died Friday evening of last week. Her age was eighteen years and three months. Interment took place Tuesday morning at Sprucetown, Rev. J. F. Shultz, of the United Evangelical church, officiating.

The deceased is survived by her parents and eight brothers and sisters. She was ill but one week, the disease being pneumonia.

Emma, aged eighteen years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murray, of Snow Shoe, died Tuesday of last week.

Elwood Fisher died at his home in Unionville at the age of forty-seven years. He was a son of the late W. P. Fisher, of Union township.

Wyland David, of Marsh Creek, died suddenly while at Howard. He was talking to a friend in the station when, almost without warning, he fell dead. His age was about sixty years.

Mrs. Boyd Cox, Sunday morning of last week, died at East Liberty, after a short illness from typhoid fever. Interment was made in Bellefonte. The lady was a daughter of William Lyon, of Bellefonte, and was aged twenty-one years.

Susan, widow of the late Daniel Mechtly, died Sunday evening at the home of her brother, Harry Teats, at Curwensville. Interment at Bellefonte. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. J. A. Finkbinder, of Bellefonte.

Bought a Home.

Postmaster George M. Boal Monday bought the house and lot in Centre Hall occupied by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Foreman. The property for years was owned by the late James C. Boal, Esq., brother of the present owner, and after his death passed to Mrs. F. A. Foreman, a daughter.

One hundred and fifty over coats for men, youths and children at half price.

MONTGOMERY & CO., Bellefonte, Pa.

LOCALS.

J. F. Condo moved from Howard to Bellefonte.

Mrs. Anna Clements is moving to Watsontown.

Rev. A. A. Black, of Boalsburg, who attended the sessions of the Reformed Synod at Lebanon, has returned home.

Progress Grange will give the usual Thanksgiving supper in Grange Arcadia. The proceeds go toward the ball fund.

Dr. C. F. Smith, of Indianapolis, Indiana, is east, and at present is stopping with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Smith, of Centre Hill.

Adam Neese, who lives on the Samuel Bruss farm east of Centre Hall, in the spring will move to near Schnee, Snyder county, where he purchased a farm.

Read the advertisement of B. W. Ripka, of the Spring Mills cash store, who is advertising a general line of merchandise. Call at his store and profit.

Assessor George W. Spangler and Tax Collector James B. Spangler, of Tusseyville, representative citizens of Potter township, were in town Saturday night.

Henry Zeigler, of Farmers Mills, has decided not to move on the Strohm farm, near Tusseyville. Wm. Lingle, tenant on the farm of Dr. George Lee, will move to that farm.

Witmer Lee, who for some weeks was engaged on a farm near Hubersburg, returned home Monday. He has just a slight limp caused by the kick of a horse on his shin.

Wilbur Burkholder, operator for the Pennsylvania railroad company at Bellefonte, was in town Saturday. Sunday was spent with his mother, Mrs. Mary Burkholder, at Centre Hill.

Mention was made last week that William C. Sweetwood, of High Spire, had been employed on the St. Louis exposition buildings for some time. Mr. Sweetwood now informs the Reporter he will move to St. Louis.

The Potter township school board is anxious to comply with the compulsory school law in order that it may claim the whole of the state appropriation allotted to that district. In order to do this, the board has been discussing several methods to pursue.

In selecting John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, as their leader on the floor, the Democratic members of the House of Representatives have apparently displayed wisdom. Mr. Williams is a man of ability, political astuteness, and his ten years in Congress have fitted him to manage the affairs of his party in that body.

Property in Centre Hall is passing readily for cash. Among the recent sales may be mentioned the Bitner property to B. D. Brisbin; the Willow property to W. B. Mingle, Esq.; the Booser property to Mrs. Hiram Durst; the Wolf property to Merchant W. H. Meyer; the Foreman property to Capt. George M. Boal; the Emerick property to Dr. J. R. G. Allison.
