Flattering Prices.

Prices paid for horses and cattle at public sales this fall are flattering. Cows especially are selling at top prices.

Paid Fines.

James Passmore, E. Hugg, Tempest Slinger, C. North, James Black, Frank Grede and Samuel Rodgen, all of Philipsburg, charged with selling blackberry wine and brandy and port wine that was adulterated with salicylic acid, coal tar dye and other deleterious substances, by the agent of Pure Food Commissioner Warren, each paid their fine of $55.00 and thus will keep the cases out of court.

"Libby Prison."

In another column will be found a cut of Libby Prison, reproduced from a photograph taken during the war. About 1890, Libby Prison was sold to a Chicago syndicate for fifty thousand dollars. It was taken down and re-erected in Chicago, exactly as it stood in Richmond, at the expense of approximately two hundred thousand dollars and is now used as a war museum, preserving all interesting features about it, including the "tunnel."

Stormtown Heard From.

In addition to the $40 in cash which the Bellefonte hospital received from the good people of Stormtown and vicinity the three large boxes, which were sent at the same time, have arrived. They contained the following very acceptable donations: 1 pound of sugar, 1 sack of salt, 5 pounds of coffee, 3 cakes of soap, 3 gallons of apple butter, 34 glasses of jelly, 2 pounds of lard, 5 jars of pickles, 15 jars of fruit, 5 quarts of jelly, 3 pumpkins, 1 squash and one barrel of apples.

From Millheim Journal.

Postmaster Jerome Spigelmyer, while assisting to build a corn crib on his premises on Penn street last week, accidentally fell and broke a rib. He has been confined to his house ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Miller, of Linden Hall, spent Sunday with Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Stover, near Millheim.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colyer, of Linden Hall, were guests of W. F. Colyer on Sunday.

Clerical Orders for 1904.

Pursuant to its usual custom, the Pennsylvania Railroad company will issue clerical orders for the year 1904 to ordained clergymen having regular charge of churches located on or near its lines. Clergymen desiring such orders should make individual application for same on blanks furnished by the company through its Agents. Applications should be sent to the General Office of the Company as soon as possible, in no case later than December 19, so that orders may be mailed by December 31 to all clergymen entitled to receive them.

Horse and Mule Colt Sale.

A horse and mule colt sale will be held at Centre Hall, Saturday, 21st, at one o'clock, conducted by W. H. Runkle, of York, the owner being D. E. Snyder.

The stock is composed of twenty-three one and two year old horse colts; eleven sucking horse colts; and three sucking mule colts.

The stock is selected from the best stock-breeding farms in Kentucky, and the selections are made from the best trotting and pacing stock.

Sale, rain or shine, Saturday, November 21, one o'clock.

Governor's Day at State.

The program for Governor's Day at Pennsylvania State College, Friday is as follows:

8.00 a. m.—Regular morning chapel service in the auditorium. 8.20 to 11.10 a. m.—Inspection of different departments of work, for which a special schedule will be prepared.

2.30 p. m.—Review of the cadet battalion by his Excellency, the Governor, Major-General Charles Miller, and Adjutant-General Thomas J. Stewart.

8.00 p. m.—Reception in the armory by the Senior class and the annual Thanksgiving Assembly.

Bought Foust Property.

James M. Moyer, of Tusseyville, who sold his home and blacksmith shop to A. B. Lee, has bought the old Samuel Foust property at Spring Bank, in Miles township, and will move there in the spring and in connection with his blacksmith work will do a little farming, as the home contains about fifty acres of land.

Plans a Railroad Cross-tie Farm.

To provide railroad cross-ties for the future the Pennsylvania Railroad has planned to plant 20,000 young trees on its idle lands near Conewago, York county. It is expected that the cross-tie crop will be ready for "harvesting" in about twenty years.

LOCALS.

Wm. G. Runkle and Dr. Musser, of Bellefonte, were in Penns Valley on Sunday.

There will be a rare opportunity to buy Kentucky horse and mule colts at Centre Hall, Saturday afternoon. Twenty-three are one and two years old; eleven are suckers, and three sucking mule colts.

The side walks in the borough are getting a little "steepy." Unnecessary breaks in walks should be avoided. By avoiding unnecessary steps, etc., in side walks property owners and the borough might profit.

J. W. Auman, of Green Spring, Ohio, has removed to Lepis, Ohio, and judging from the printed matter used in writing the Reporter, is employed by the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, Railway Company.

Miss Irma Kizer, of Sunbury, cousin of Mrs. F. P. Geary, of this place, last week visited that lady. She spent part of her time in the woods in search of game, being capable of handling a gun and climbing mountains as easily and gracefully as her opposite sex.

W. H. Runkle, of York, will conduct the horse and mule colt sale Saturday to D. H. Snyder. The colts are expected to be at the Centre Hall hotel one or two days previous to the day of sale where Mr. Runkle will be pleased to meet prospective buyers.

Daniel W. Poorman, step-son of Dr. Riter, of this place, who is a prominent citizen of York, and did much to reduce the cost of conducting the city's poor department for the past few years, may be a candidate for sheriff of York county before the Democratic county convention.

In making a memoranda of Wm. Colyer's will in a recent issue, two items were overlooked. One is a bequest of $300 to Miss Gertrude Ishler, of Tusseyville, a grand-daughter who is blind; the other is $100 to the Reformed and Lutheran cemetery at Tusseyville.

Wm. H. Stover, of Centre Hall, has planned to move his family to Yeagertown this week, where since September he has been employed in the moulding rooms of the Standard Steel Works at that place. Mr. Stover is a young man of correct habits and capable of holding "down" a job when he once gets it.

The Pure Food Commission have gotten into Centre county with their drag net and arrested about one dozen dealers in the west end of the county for such violations, which violations will be investigated at next week's sessions of court. It appears that extract of lemon, chocolate and cocoa are among the adulterated foods.

While hunting out on the mountain not far from Philipsburg, Wednesday of last week a gentleman by the name of Hile, living at Kerrmoor, had the misfortune to have his foot badly lacerated by being accidentally caught in a bear trap. It was with much difficulty that his foot was extricated by some of his companions.

M. M. Condo, of Darragh, was met in Bellefonte Sunday by James Smetzer and in the afternoon was brought to Centre Hall. On his way to his old home, Mr. Condo thought it would be pleasant to call on W. R. Camp, the furniture dealer at Tyrone, who also was a former resident of this place. Reaching Mr. Camp's residence after midnight, Mr. Condo was obliged to furnish gilt-edged security that he was no outlaw before he was admitted.

Horses hitched to rural mail delivery wagons are in need of considerable "starch" to be able to continue in active service for any length of time. John Snaveley, of Spring Mills, and Will Keller, of Centre Hall, each were obliged to purchase their second horse since in the mail carrying business, and so far they have had only the favorable seasons of the year. The winter months will exact more from the carriers and the noble horses.

DEATHS.

MARY ANN FEIDLER.

Mary Ann Feidler died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Carter, in Centre Hall, Thursday of last week. Interment took place at Green Grove, near Penn Hall, Saturday.

The deceased, several weeks prior to her death, came to Centre Hall on a visit to her daughter, where she took ill, and owing to her advanced age soon succumbed to the ravages of her disease.

Mary Ann Kner was born in Lehigh county, March 5, 1822, and September 26, 1846, was married to William Feidler, whose death occurred about nine years ago. The couple for many years lived near Penn Hall, and engaged in farming.

Six children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Feidler. Their names are Mrs. Elizabeth Weaver, Lock Haven; Catharine, deceased, wife of J. H. Leitzel, Lewisburg; Fayette, wife of William Strunk, Pleasant Gap; Caroline, wife of Joseph Carter, Penn Hall, with whom the deceased had her home; and William Feidler, of Penn Hall.

Mrs. Feidler since her youth was a member of the Reformed church. She was a kind and affectionate mother, and was greatly beloved by her children and grandchildren.

There were nineteen children who delighted to call Mrs. Feidler grandma, and fourteen great-grandchildren who lisped her name.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. F. Shultz, of the United Evangelical church at Centre Hall. Rev. Daniel Gress, of the Reformed church at Centre Hall, spoke at the house, and Rev. Frank Lauffer, of the Aronsburg Reformed charge, delivered the sermon in the Green Grove Evangelical Association church.

JULIA A. MURRAY.

Julia A., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murray died at the family home at Snow Shoe Intersection Thursday morning of last week, after a short illness of diphtheria. The week preceding her oldest sister, Emma, was buried from what has since been pronounced the same disease, but at that time was thought to be quinsy. Her parents were almost prostrated at the time and Julia's death following so soon will be a great sorrow to them. She was fourteen years of age and is survived by her parents, four sisters and two brothers.

MES. J. L. WALKER.

Mrs. J. L. Walker died at her home in Hublersburg Thursday of last week, at the age of fifty years. She is survived by her husband and three sons—John, Charles and Carl. She had been afflicted for a long time, and finally submitted to an operation, but the disease had become too deep seated to be eradicated.

Rebersburg.

Thomas Zeigler, of Eldred, is visiting friends in town, after a week's hunting trip.

W. J. Weber was home several days to hunt.

Elmer Miller moved his family from Renovo into W. J. Weber's shop.

Charles Emerick, of Arlington, New Jersey, is home visiting his mother, who is sick.

Prof. C. L. Gramley went to Philipsburg this week on a business trip.

Mrs. Cornelius Stover and daughter Byrd, returned from a week's visit with Mrs. J. H. Meyer, of Bellefonte.

Charles Krape, of Lantz, Clinton county, was in town over Sunday.

Charles Heckman, of Clintondale, visited C. H. Gramley over Sunday.

Bruce Morris and sister Vera were home over Sunday, accompanied by Mr. Rearick and sister, of near Bellefonte.

Miss Mabel Brungart was home over Sunday.

A. N. Brungart moved into the Daniel Hartler property Tuesday.

Lee Sholl and lady friend, of Connecticut, are visiting Mrs. Jane Sholl.

Ollie Gramley stopped in town a few days. He bought some apples in southern Pennsylvania and shipped them home, but said he had to come to Rebersburg to see some of his old cronies.

H. G. Krape was to Bellefonte several days this week.

Remember Rev. C. B. Harman's sale on Saturday.

LOCALS.

Will Shutt, of Yeagertown, was home over Sunday.

The explosion of an oil lamp set fire to the home of ex-Sheriff Calhoun, Millintown, causing a loss of $700.

Mrs. G. W. Hosterman, of this place, Wednesday went to Lancaster, where she will remain for two weeks with her sons.

Miss Maybelle Keller, the head operator in the commercial telephone exchange in this place, Friday went to Altoona for a brief vacation. Miss Keller is one of the speediest and most obliging operators to be found.

Several hundred students accompanied the Pennsylvania State College football team to Williamsport to witness the State-Dickinson game Saturday afternoon. The result was a defeat for State, the score being 6 to 0.

FREE PIANO LESSONS.

The Pittsburgh Sunday Dispatch Offers Instruction in Music to all Readers.

By making an exclusive arrangement with the originator of a remarkable system of teaching the piano by object lessons. The Pittsburgh Sunday Dispatch is enabled to offer its readers free piano lessons which will enable anyone to learn to play the piano, and at the same time get a substantial fundamental knowledge of the theory of music. The system has the endorsement of all the noted musicians and music teachers who have seen it, as well as the recommendation of that eminent pianist, Josef Hoffman. Anyone can learn to play in an astonishingly easy manner, and all this instruction with required charts and everything necessary is given to the readers of The Sunday Dispatch absolutely free. The lessons will begin November 22, and for those who desire to take advantage of the instruction of the full course, it will be necessary to get The Sunday Dispatch on that day. It will be well to order now, so that no mistake may deprive you of the wonderful opportunity which The Dispatch is offering.

Railroaders as Hunters.

A party of railroad men camping in the mountains back of Petersburg, killed a bear weighing three hundred pounds.

George Taylor, a freight engineer on the Tyrone division, Pennsylvania Railroad, saw an immense four-pronged buck deer standing in the middle of the track in an attitude to dispute the right of way with his locomotive as he drove up Sandy Ridge Friday.

Stopping his engine, he ran into a near-by tower, obtained a gun and killed the deer.
