

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Come one; come all.

GARMAN'S

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic ointment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

COURT NEWS.

Court Occupies Its Time in Hearing Petty Cases—Verdicts of the Jury.

Reported by W. Harrison Walker, Esq.
The regular term of November court convened at the Court House in Bellefonte, Monday morning at ten o'clock. Hon. John G. Love, President Judge, Prothonotary Gardner and Register Archey were in their respective places when court called. The first business done was the presentation of motions and petitions by the several attorneys, after which the Court named W. R. Jenkins, of Bellefonte, as foreman of the grand jury.

After giving the grand jury some important instructions as to their duties and explaining to them the character of the different cases to be passed on by them, they retired to their room to consider the bills of indictment which would be presented to them by the District Attorney. The Court in his charge to the members of the grand jury instructed them to look carefully into the merits of all cases, and if they found any petty cases which were not worth the time of the Court to consider to ignore them and place the costs upon the proper parties. The Judge seems to be of the opinion that too many cases are sent there by the Justices of the Peace over the county that have no merit and should not be returned by them, but should be settled by them. He is right in his conclusions.

The Prothonotary then called over the list of constables of the several boroughs and townships in the county. Their regular quarterly returns were made. Nothing of importance was revealed in any of their returns. It was the same old story, for, after each question they answered "none."

The list of criminal cases for this term is exceptionally small. No cases of great importance will be tried at this Court.

In the case of Commonwealth versus Earl Midan and Frank McCartney in which a verdict was rendered at last Court of guilty of larceny. The Court stated that on account of the youth of the defendants he would suspend sentence at this time but that if they ever committed any other crimes of a similar nature, or if they were not good boys and behaved themselves he would send for them and commit them as the law requires, to the penitentiary. The boys seemed to be well pleased with the view the Court took of their case and promised to do better and keep out of criminal matters.

Before adjourning Court called over the list of civil cases that were down for trial this week. There were ten on the list, all being appeals from judgment rendered by Justices of the Peace in the county. There are only four for trial, some of the others were settled, and some continued, and are as follows:

- Peter Mendis vs. L. C. Bullock, continued on the ground that defendant could not find his witnesses.
- Sarah C. Geiss vs. Luther Royer; settled.
- Frank McCoy, John E. Shugert, Frank Shugert, and Kate D. Shugert, executors etc., of J. D. Shugert, late of Bellefonte, deceased, vs. Lewis Rosenthal; and J. H. Litigle vs. Lewis Rosenthal were continued by agreement of counsel on account of the illness of certain witnesses.
- E. L. Stover vs. John A. Miller; settled by parties.
- Robert Kinkaid vs. M. McD. Loraine; settled.

Court called at 2 p. m. Monday. The first case called was that of Samuel T. Dixon, an undertaker, vs. the Snow Shoe township poor district. The plaintiff brought suit to recover the amount due him for burying a pauper. The Poor Directors defended on the ground that no order of approval was sworn out until after the expense had been incurred. The jury after some instructions from the Court promptly returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $35 00.

The next case called was that of Percy J. Smith vs. John Q. A. Kennedy. The plaintiff's claim was for $422 68 being for work done by him under an agreement, and also some extra work done by his sons Harry and Charles Smith, as well as work done by his wife and several other parties. The defendant testified that Harry Smith and Charles Smith, the two sons of the plaintiff were not entitled to anything for the reason that they were not employed by him, and that the plaintiff's wife and some other women were not entitled to anything. The work done by Harry and Charles Smith amounted to $87 00 and there were some other credits on the above amount which were admitted by plaintiff amounting to $279 00 or thereabouts. After argument of counsel to the jury and the charge of the Court, a verdict was returned in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $118 81.

In the case of Commonwealth vs. Upton Haines who was charged with desertion by Samuel Wallizer, the parties agreed upon a settlement before any witnesses were sworn.

James Munson who was charged with violating the pure food law, made a settlement of his case.

The grand jury handed in the following bills of indictment which were ignored and the costs put upon the county:

WABASH NEWS.

Engineers Go West—Another Corps Working from the East.

Little news of a tangible character can be given this week concerning the Wabash's proposed railroad line from Pittsburg to the seaboard.

The corps of engineers located at Coburn for the past six or more weeks, a week ago Monday, moved their quarters to Weikert, Union county. Last Monday they left that point, going west over the L. & T.

One of the men connected with the corps intimated that Cresson was their objective point, and that they would work westward while another corps was pushing its way from the eastern extremity of the proposed route.

WEDDINGS AT LINDEN HALL.

Fleck-Brooks and Meyer-Ross Nuptials Take Place Wednesday.

Two pretty weddings took place Wednesday at Linden Hall. The brides are both residents of that place and the grooms from a distance.

FLECK-BROOKS—The home of William Brooks was a scene of activity all week consummating arrangements for the marriage of his daughter Wednesday at 11:30 a. m.

The brides name is Miss Daisy, a girl in her teens, and full of ambition. The groom is A. S. Fleck, of Altoona, a young man of sterling worth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Shultz, of Centre Hall.

Congratulations followed by the many guests present, and then came a season devoted to refreshing of the inner man. This was no small part of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleck boarded the afternoon train going west, and after the honeymoon trip they will take up housekeeping in Altoona where a completely furnished house awaits them.

Mr. Fleck is an engineer on the Pennsylvania railroad.

MEYER-ROSS—This wedding was scheduled a half hour later than the one mentioned above, and took place at the home of the bride's father, James M. Ross. The popularity of the contracting parties made it necessary to send out a large number of invitations to this event, and it is scarcely necessary to say that the major part were responded to in person.

Rev. A. A. Black, of the Reformed church, Boalsburg, was the officiating minister who declared Philip Bliss Meyer and Miss Lillian G. Ross man and wife.

The attendants were Bond Meyer, brother of the groom, and Miss Bessie Seanson, of Linden Hall. The wedding march was played by Commissioner P. H. Meyer.

Mr. Meyer is a son of J. Henry Meyer, of Bowling Green, Virginia, but spent his boyhood days with his parents in Harris township. Some time ago he purchased a farm in Virginia and is engaged in general farming and tobacco raising.

About seventy-five guests were present from Altoona, Huntingdon, Bellefonte, and Centre Hall.

The wedding party took the afternoon train for Baltimore.

Admiring friends and relatives of both these young couples presented a large number of handsome presents to the brides.

The Reporter extends congratulations.

Fake Hunting Story.

The city dailies published a story Wednesday morning to the effect that William Lee, of Centre county, killed a deer in the Seven Mountains, and that a Philadelphia hunting party claimed the carcass, whereupon a fight ensued. Later, the story goes, the Centre county hunters burned the cabin occupied by the Philadelphians.

So far as can be learned by the Reporter no such incident took place at any time. The hunting story is undoubtedly a fake.

Small Pox Case Improving.

Since last week a Board of Health has been organized in Gregg township, and the most stringent rules of quarantine are being observed with reference to the small pox case in Georges Valley. Notwithstanding the numerous reports no new cases of the loathsome disease have developed. Mr. Herman being the only and original victim. He has been a very sick man, but at this writing his condition is somewhat more hopeful.
