Two Cars of Cows.

Two car loads of cows were shipped east from the Centre Hall station within the past week.

Friday of last week H. Schwenck, assisted by George Bradford, made a shipment, and Tuesday H. Shirk, with D. J. Meyer as right hand man, sent the second car of cows.

Bought More Timber Land.

Messrs. B. D. Brisbin and W. F. Bradford purchased ten acres of timber land from Lloyd Brown, southwest of town along the Boalsburg road. The timber is mostly white oak, and will all be hauled to their Centre Hall mill to be manufactured into lumber of various kinds.

Fire in Bellefonte.

The dwelling house of Insurance Agent Grant Hoover, in Bellefonte, was greatly damaged by fire Wednesday night of last week. The family was absent when the fire occurred, and it is presumed it was caused by clothing hanging near the stove taking fire. Nearly all the furniture and a piano was either burned or rendered useless by water.

Thanksgiving Services.

The union Thanksgiving services were observed in Centre Hall as usual. Rev. J. F. Shultz, of the United Evangelical church, delivered the sermon. The services were well attended and those who heard the discourse were well repaid for the time given to that purpose.

Besides Rev. Shultz other ministers present were Dr. W. H. Schuyler, Rev. J. M. Rearick, Rev. G. W. McInay, Rev. Daniel Gress, Rev. Ward Shultz.

From Millheim Journal.

DREW HEAD ON COW.

Gun is Discharged and a Dead Cow is the Result. Another reason is given here why a gun, loaded or otherwise, should not be pointed at any living object unless the intention is to kill. The discharge of the gun in this case was, no doubt, purely accidental, but had the deadly weapon not been aimed at a good milch cow, this story would not appear here.

The accident occurred at the home of Jacob Royer, of near Colyer. It appears Mr. Royer was butchering and that the hogs were "knocked out of time" with a modern rifle. After the hogs had been killed no one thought that it would be necessary to break up a splendid fire arm to insure the life of the remainder of Mr. Royer's stock, so the implement was just laid aside.

Later the rifle was picked up by a hunter of considerable experience and just at that instant the family cow came marching along. "Were that cow a deer, what a delightful shot!" or words expressing that thought, were uttered. The polished steel was brought to the shoulder, a bead was taken on the cow—bang! The brute dropped dead.

New Church for Penn Hall.

The Lutheran congregation of the Penns Creek church, one-half mile east of Penn Hall, at a recent meeting decided to build a new church at Penn Hall.

Tharp-Hoover.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Hoover, of near Boalsburg, and Frank Tharp, of Philadelphia, took place Wednesday of last week, at Altoona. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hoover.

The couple proceeded to Philadelphia where they will take up house-keeping.

Accidentally Shot.

Theodore Brown, while out hunting in company with his father, and uncle, Ed. Brown, last Thursday, was accidentally shot by the latter, says a Spring Mills correspondent. One shot entered his eye and another his forehead. Dr. Braucht removed them and found that the wounds were not serious.

Cleveland Not a Candidate.

Grover Cleveland has at last peremptorily put a quietus on the talk of a fourth nomination for him as President. He is probably the most sagacious of living statesmen, but conditions were such as to make his nomination a matter of embarrassment, however much public admiration and confidence are his.

A Good One From Altoona.

As George Harpham and James Homan hunted in the mountains west of Altoona they encountered a drove of wild hogs, including a boar, the first seen in that vicinity in a half century. The boar charged the hunters, and when but five feet distant Harpham shot and mortally wounded it. It weighed 300 pounds.

Ministers Meet.

The Penn's Valley Ministerial Association held its regular monthly meeting in the study of Rev. J. M. Rearick on Monday. The principal feature of the meeting was an excellent paper by Rev. Daniel Gress on "The Church the World Needs Today." After an excellent dinner at the Lutheran parsonage the Association adjourned to meet on the first Monday of January, with Rev. Geo. W. McInay in Spring Mills.

Hunter's Tragedy, Almost.

A Lewistown hunter, who was in the mountain one day last week, tells the story that he left the mountain about dark, and passing through an orchard he saw an object on an apple tree that in the gloom he was certain was a bear. He was getting his gun in readiness when the object moved, disclosing that it was a woman picking apples. The hunter was so unnerved by the thought of what might have happened that his gun dropped to the ground.

The Woman's Home Companion for December contains some remarkable pictures of Christmas celebrations at Bethlehem, the town of Christ's nativity. It is an unusually interesting feature.

An imaginative sketch in the December Cosmopolitan endeavors to describe some of the most important conditions in New York in the year 1909—that being the year in which New York will celebrate the three-hundredth anniversary of the arrival of Hendrik Hudson.

DEATHS.

JAMES MUSSER.

James Musser, of Orangeville, Illinois, died last week at the age of sixty years. Death was the result of an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Musser was born in Penn Hall, January 17, 1843, and was one of nine children of Jonas and Maria (Durst) Musser, also natives of Gregg township. The subject of this sketch was eleven years old when his father died, and for two years afterwards he lived with his oldest brother on the homestead. In 1857 James Musser started west and settled in Stephenson county, Illinois, being then fourteen years of age. Although but a youth, he proffered his services in defense of the Union, becoming a member of Co. A., 46th Ill. Vol., and after serving his first term of enlistment he was re-enlisted in December, 1863, and served until the close of the war.

After returning from the war, Mr. Musser established himself in the mercantile business at Orangeville, Ill., in company with his brother Benjamin. This partnership continued for ten years and the business was continued by James Musser until two years ago. In 1885 Mr. Musser established a bank at Orangeville, which institution was sold to other parties on the 10th ult.

The deceased was married at Rock Grove, Illinois, in June, 1853, to Miss Kate Zimmerman, and she survives him, together with five children, Herbert A., Mabel E., Royston D., Marc J., and Olive N. Musser.

He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: Daniel, of Orangeville, Ill.; Benjamin and William, of Jewell City, Kansas; Michael, of Rushville, Nebraska, and Mrs. Geo. Dale, of Lemont.

Mr. Musser accumulated considerable wealth, and beside this had life insurance in the sum of $15,000. By his last will, the deceased makes his widow the chief benefactor and named her as his executrix.

MRS. SAMUEL GOBBLE.

Mrs. Sarah Gobble, wife of Samuel Gobble, two and one-half miles east of Spring Mills, was found dead in her room last Wednesday, her death being due to heart failure. Her age was seventy-four years. Mrs. Gobble was a consistent member of the Evangelical church, and led an exemplarily christian life. Interment was made Saturday morning in the Green Grove cemetery. Rev. O. L. Buck, her pastor, assisted by Rev. W. C. Bierly, of the Evangelical church, officiated. Smith Bros. conducted the funeral.

Mrs. Gobble is survived by her husband and two sons, Rev. A. E. Gobble, D. D., of Meyerstown, and J. W. Gobble, of Georges Valley.

The death of John H. Miller, of Bellewood, who formerly lived at Booneville, occurred Sunday morning. His death was due to blood poison. A wife, two sons and two daughters survive.

Levi Jones died in Philipsburg, aged seventy-four years. He was a member of Company A, 110th Regiment.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

$30,000 FOR MONUMENT.

Committee Appointed to Select Site and Build Memorial. An important meeting of the Centre county monument Association was held in Bellefonte Friday of last week. Among others were the chairman, General James A. Beaver; the secretary, W. H. Musser; Capt. W. C. Patterson, State College; Dr. D. M. Wolf, Spring Mills; Capt. W. H. Fry, Pine Grove Mills; J. R. Pheasant, Howard; Capt. George M. Boal, Centre Hall; Capt. C. T. Fryberger, Phillipsburg; Dr. J. A. Thompson, Stormstown.

The chairman stated that $10,000 had been appropriated by the state, under a bill introduced by Senator Heinle; $4,000 dollars has been raised by personal friends of Governor Curtin; about $4,000 had been subscribed to the committee; and lastly two Centre county grand juries have authorized the county to pay $10,000 toward a monument.

The meeting was called principally to combine these efforts, and after General Beaver had informed those present that the Curtin house could not be purchased, Capt. Fryberger moved that an executive committee of nine be appointed consisting of the three members of the Harrisburg committee, the three County Commissioners and three to be selected from the Centre County Monument Association with full power to locate, secure design and build a monument to the memory of Gov. Curtin and the soldiers and sailors of Centre county, the cost to be about thirty thousand dollars.

The committee is as follows: Gov. Samuel W. Pennypacker, Gen James A. Beaver, Senator A. E. Patton, Abram V. Miller, J. B. G. Bailey, Philip H. Meyer, C. P. C. Fryberger, John A. Dal, and Gen. John I. Curtin.

It is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and even in remote South Africa and on the gold fields in the deserts of Australia. These are the things that tell.

Next year we have the Presidential campaign, in which all Americans are deeply interested. Already the issues are being discussed and the two great parties are preparing for the first moves. You will not want to miss any details, and if you subscribe now your year's subscription will cover the campaign from beginning to end.

The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely fair in its political news. Partisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political contests.

In addition to all the news, the Thrice-a-Week World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and Centre Reporter together one year for $1.65.

A suggestion.

"The financing and government of a church" might prove an interesting subject for a sermon by a minister who is not afraid to expose the rotten methods engaged in by various denominations to raise money for church purposes. The manipulations of the elections; the reckless steward; the members' rights as to knowledge of receipts and dispersing of money; the voice of members in incurring debt or making improvements, etc., etc., might be points of interest if developed to the full knowledge of the pastor. These topics may be too near the throne to preach about, but their correction might go a great ways to lead one to think that the church is really sincere.

Take VIN-TENA and the good effect will be immediate. You will get strong, you will feel bright, fresh and active, you will feel new, rich blood coursing through your veins. Vintena will act like magic, will put new life in you. If not benefited money refunded. J. D. Murray, Druggist.
