Our teachers are making preparations to attend institute at Philipsburg next week Hope they may be benefited by their vacation and may become willer for attending such a gathering.

There was a quiet wedding in town Friday evening when H. G. Hockman and Miss Mary Sitler were united in marriage by Rev. Wetzel.

Henry Moyer, Jr., is home from Bucknell University, Lewisburg, to spend his vacation. Young men like him; with such sterling qualities are an honor to our town.

H. G. Krape returned home from Clearfield last week with a cracked rib. Since then he has been busy setting up machinery for electric plating. He will soon be ready to do all kinds of plating, and claims to have a process which surpasses all others; no dipping, but a genuine electric plating machine. Mr. Krape has gone to a great deal of expense, and is a genius and a hustler. He guarantees satisfaction or money
