CHURCH APPOINTMENTS. Presbyterian-Centre Hall, morning; Spring Milis, afternoon Reformed—No morning service at Centre Hail; Union services evening; Tussey ville, afternoon. Lutheran-Union, morning; Georges Valley, Methodis'—Spring Mills, morning; Sprucetown, afternoon; Centre Hall, no services.

Sold Home at Spring Mills.

+Wm. S. Musser, formerly station agent at Spring Mills, sold his home at that place to A. J. Shook.

Went to Hospital.

J. Shannon Boal Saturday was taken to Philadelphia by his grandson, Ralph Boozer, to have a second operation performed on his eyes. Mr. Boal is totally blind.

Fire in Lewistown.

A fire in Lewistown destroyed property to the amount of $1500 for M. M. Ulsh, no insurance. Other losses were : The Farmer's Home stable; loss, $1000; partially insured.

A. Yearick's stable and feed; loss, $1200; insurance, $500.

Eighteen Degrees Below.

Tuesday morning was the coldest during this winter. At 7:30 mercury stood at seventeen degrees below zero Some time during the early morning it was one degree colder, or eighteen degrees below zero.

Notice to Settle."

All persons having accounts against the undersigned are requested to present the same for settlement before February 1st, 1904. This request is made owing to the fact that there will be a change in the firm.

A. P. LUSE & SON. January 7, 1904. Centre Hall, Pa.

Glasgows in Mourning.

In the last issue of the Reporter the death of a child of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Glasgow, of Coburn, was reported. Later, on Sunday previous to Christmas, a second child, aged about three years, also succumbed to the same disease-diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow also suffered from diphtneria, but at present the family is apparently rid of the disease

Stover-Gladden

M. Clayton Stover, of Potters Mills, and Miss Martha Reed Gladden were married at the home of the sister of the bride, Miss Catherine Gladden, at Cassousburg, Pa , D-cember 31st. The groom is a young man of most excellent qualities, and is known to many ly, Mr. Stover had been employed in the Morganza Reformatory, but at present he holds a position at Morgan, Oak Hall. Pa., in a store. The young couple, after January 15th, will be at home at Morgan.

Committees Appointed.

A meeting was held in Grange Arcadia last week for the purpose of making preliminary arrangements for the Farmers' Institute to be held in Centre Hall, February 2 and 3. Col. Woodward, the district manager, could not be present.

Committees were appointed as follows : Chairman, George L. Goodhart; D. K. Keller, secretary; James A. Keller, chairman program committee; George H. Emerick, chairman music committee; Hon. L. Rhone, chairman day of last week. Mr. Grimm's one decoration committee.

The program and other information will appear in a later issue of this paper.

.......

If you have paid subscription on the Centre Reporter since November 8, 1903, look on your label and see whether you have been given proper credit Compare the label on the paper of this date with the label or a paper of previous date and note the change, 03 means July, 1903; 04 means July, 1904. All other months than July are indicated by the regular abbreviations-jan., feb., mar., etc. See whether that inevitable 4 is on your label.

ANNOUNCEMENT,

TO THE PUBLIC.

GREETING: We beg to announce that we have leased the Centre Hall Foundry and Machine Shops and are operating the same. We have added many new tools and are in excellent er, Dr. George Lee, in this place, Satline. Our latch-string is out, and our

Like all mankind, we are after the Almighty Dollar, but we propose to | zinc smelting furnace. give BIG value for every dollar we receive, and we do earnestly solicit your patronage.

By close attention to business we expect to establish a business which will be mutually profitable to ourselves and

Yours for business,

B. H. Arney handed a slip to the Reporter giving some of the weather conditions during 1880. November 22 and 24, 1880, it was four degrees above zero. The coldest day in November, 1903, was on the 20th—six degrees

The record for December, 1880, was as follows: 9th, four above; 10th, three above; 28th, zero at 8 o'clock a. m., four above at noon; 29th, zero at 5 o'clock p. m; 30th, thirteen below in just now. the morning, four below at noon, six in the morning, five below at 10 a.m., | morning. zero in the evening. January 1st, 1881, four below in the morning, four above

The average lowest temperature for December, just past, was sixteen degrees above. The coldest days were 26th, one above; 29th, one and one-half below. The rainfall for December was 1.08 inches; snow, 7.50 inches. January 3rd, mercury fell to four degrees below.

Tuesday morning, 5th, mercury stood at 20 degrees below. There are many thermometers that registered much lower than four on January 3rd, but the average thermometer is not as reliable as the one used by the Reporter, which is furnished by the United States Weather Bureau.

LOCALS.

January is all right, so far, for the

The few inches of snow affords great protection to the wheat crop.

The people who burn the candle at both ends now do it by electric light. The session of Progress Grange held Saturday was well attended. The next meeting will be on the 15th.

The Farmers' Institute will convene at Centre Hall Tuesday and Wednesday, February 2nd and 3rd; and at Rebersburg, Thursday and Friday, 4th

One-third off on men's, boys' and children's suits, overcoats and rain

MONTGOMERY & CO., Bellefonte.

W. H. Cumings, of the firm of Cumings Brothers, threspers and hay alers, of Linden Hall, was in town Saturday. He was making settlement with the firm's patrons.

Wm. Swabb is back to Linden Hall He reports Farmer Black's sale, in Huntingdon county, as baving passed off in good style. The first day over $3000 worth of horses, cattle, etc.,

J. J. Tressler, tenant on the Boat f rm at Boalsburg, was in town Satur of the Reporter readers. Until recent- day. Mr. Tressler, in the spring, will move to the farm recently purchased by him from the Tressler beirs, near

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hosterman, of Boalsburg, last week visited at Huntingdon, where they at one time lived. Mr. Hosterman is one of the Boalsburg school teachers of which the town may be proud.

W. O. Rearick, one of the leading business men of Milroy, accompanied by his daughter Mary, of Milroy, and her companion, Grace Lee, daughter of Hiram Lee, of near Bellefonte, were callers the other day. Reuben Grimm, who makes his home with his son Charles L. Grimm, or near Madisonburg, is suffering from a severe stroke of paralysis since Thursside is rendered useless.

Alfred Durst, of this place, had the misfortune to fall on the ice and severely injure himself. It was Tuesday after Christmas that the accident occurred, and since that time he has been confined to the house.

The Home, a new department in the National, starts off with a symposium, How can we Lighten the Toil of the Housewife? in which eight American housekeepers offer pertinent advice to "the men who do most of the invent-

Hon. Henry Houck, deputy state superintendent of public instruction, was presented with $1200 by the school teachers of Pennsylvania to pay passage and expenses incidental to attending the International Sabbath-school Association meeting which will convene in Jerusalem, next summer.

Wm. H. Smith, two miles west of Madisonburg, was a caller Monday, and advertises sale for March 12. Mr. Smith has been in poor health, and consequently sold his farm to James Gramley, of Rebersburg, and will move to the tenaut house on the farm owned by the heirs of George Vonada, near where he now lives.

Hiram Lee, who belongs to the six a number of new machines and a great foot crowd, was the guest of his brothshape to take care of any work in our urday of last week. Mr. Lee is making arrangements for his sale to be order-book open to receive your com- held in the spring at which time he will quit the farm and go to Iola, Allen county, Kansas, to engage in a

> VIN-TE-NA, The World's Greatest Tonic, will cure all forms of Cough, Bronchial Trouble, Coughs of long standing, and the earlier stages of Consumption. When cough syrups fail take Vin-te-na and if it fails to benefit you your money will be cheerfully re-LUSE MFG. Co., LIM. | funded. J. D. Murray, Druggist.

Mrs. Hiram Durst is in Clearfield, staying with her daughter.

Mrs. J. W. Whiteman has been ill for the past week or more.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Wert, of Tusseyville. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey N. Meyer, of Millheim, were in town Saturday. January, 1904. Do you write it that way? The Reporter is partial to 4s

Robert Morrison, of Bellefonte, aged | fact well known. below at 5 p. m.: 31st, fourteen below seventy-eight years, died Saturday > week, incident to the week of prayer, are being well attended.

> Miss Margaret Bolander, of Middleburg, was the guest of Miss Laura Runkle during the holidays.

> Mrs. Elizabeth Lingle is slightly ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Q A. Kennedy, west of town.

> near Centre Hall, were among the New Year's callers. D. Geiss Wagner, of Manhattan, Ili-> somewhere in Penns Valley. It is his purpose to rent a farm.

of painting and paper hanging. John Foreman, of Centre Hill, at the age of eighty-four years, is a most active man. He was in town on New Year's day and was greeted by many of his friends. Harry M. Allison, of Spring Mills, who is the chief office man for Hon. Wm. M. Allison, accompanied by Mrs. Allison, was in town Saturday evening, and enjoyed the concert in Grang Arcadia.

Miss Margie Sweetwood, who for the past year or more has been at Wilkensburg, was the guest of her brother, I A. Sweetwood, in this place over Sunday. She also visited among her numerous friends. Glee and Mandolin Clubs.

A N. Brungart, of Rebersburg, called his infancy, also survives. around on New Year's day to help Mr. Brungart is a thresherman and a member of the Presbyterian church. well the list of the Reporter readers has just closed this season's work.

scriptions to the Centre Reporter and H. Schuyler and R.v. J. F. Shultz. iew York Tri Weekly World. Price Interment was no de at Egg Hill. $1 00 in advance to new subscribers. The World will be furnished to paid op subscribers for sixty-five cents in Julian Fleming and Miss Kate Fleisher, of this place, recently returned from a trip to Baltimore and other the number who was seriously hurt points. At the latter point the time in the Cumberland Valley railroad D. Fleming. The latter Mr. Fleming day. He was removed to the Cham-Raltimore.

on the Wilson farm, near Centre Hall was too great for his impaired vitality station, had the misfortune to lose one and death relieved him of his sufferof his best horses day before Christ- ing Saturday morning at about 1 mas. The animal got sick while in o'clock. Bellefonte. Losing a horse means the loss in value of an ordinary wheat crop on the average farm.

ty in order to enjoy the lectures, etc.

day after a week's vacation incident to Moyer, died recently at Bellefonte. the institute and holidays. The school rooms at Centre Hall were thoroughly cleaned by the janitor P. F. Keller. The school board is aiming to keep the dition than keretofore. If you, patron, have never visited the schools, it town and other localities. might be well to do so.

ITS UP TO YOU.

If you are not a subscriber to the Centre Reporter you should be. Here is an offer made to induce you to become a subscriber :

For One Dollar in advance the Centre Reporter and the Tri-Weekly New York World will be sent you one year.

Think of that.

The Tri-Weekly New York World answers all the purposes of a daily paper. It gives you the news of the whole world.

The price of the Tri-Weekly New York World is One Dollar a year, in advance. The price of the Reporter is One Dollar, in advance.

The Two Papers will be sent to any New Subscribers of the Centre Reporter for One Dollar, in advance.

Subscribers now on the Reporter's list can have the Tri-Weekly New York World sent to them for sixty-five cents, always in Mrs. John S. Dauberman, While Almost Physically Helpiess, Has Her Clothing Burned from Her Body.

The sad death of Mrs. John S. Dauberman, of Centre Hall, was announced Thursday morning, December 31. Mrs. Dauberman died from the effects of burns received several hours previous to her death at eight o'clock on the day mentioned. Just how the woman took fire will never be known, but that she was terribly burned is a

Mrs. Dauberman had been ill for some time, and was almost physically The union meetings being held this helpless. She was given the most tender care, but she insisted that no one need stay with her at night. In her room, a short distance from her cot, was an ordinary coal stove and it is thought that the woman for some reason unknown managed to reach the stove and in some way while sitting there her clothing caught fire. The ruffle of her night-cap lay by the stove Farmers Mills; George F. Emerick, of partially burned; the remainder of the headgear was on her head when the woman was found on her cot. Her night gown was burned to ashes, and her stockings were consumed by the flames to the ankle.

inois, has decided to make his home Mrs. Dauberman's cries aroused the members of the f mily, and on reach-Andrew C. Smith, who at present is ing the unfortunate woman found her making his home with Milton Kline, horribly burned and lying on her cot. south of town, is ready to do all kinds The flames had partially subsided, but the burning clothing in a very few minutes would have set on fire the bed clothing, and the result can only be conjectured.

> The remaining flames and coals from the burning and burned clothing were smothered. A physician was sent for who did all possible to alleviate the intense suffering of the victim.

No one can explain how the clothing about the woman was so completely burned, without setting fire to the carpet, bed clothing, etc.

Mrs. Dauberman's maiden name was Mary E Goodhart, and she was a sis tor of George L. Goodhart, of Centre Hill, and James Goodhart, of Lewistown. Three brothers-William, of Spring Mills; Samuel, of Hublersburg, and one other, died previously.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gephart, of Her marriage to Mr. Dauberman Bellefonte, were among those who took place December 27th, 1859 She came to Centre Hall Saturday evening was the mother of two children : John to enjoy the good sledding and while G. Dauberman, E-q, Centre Hall, and here be entertained by the F. and M. Laura M., deceased, who was the wife of Charles Knarr. John Knarr, s J. P. Grove, of Farmers Mills, and grandson, for whom she cared since

Mrs. Dauberman's age was sixtyseven years and five months. She was The funeral took place Saturday morning, services being held in the Presby-For Sale. Five hundred new sub- terian church, conducted by Dr. W.

A. C. MOYER DEAD.

Died Saturday Morning from Effects of Injuries in Railroad Wreck

A. C. Moyer, of Tyrone, was one of was spent with Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm wreck, near Newville, on New Year's is engaged in the tailoring business in bersbuig hospital, where, during the night, his right arm was amputated, J. O. Kerstetter, farmer and buckster but owing to other injuries the shock

Andrew Curtin Moyer was born at Potters Mills March, 1859 Nearly all his life was spent in this county. Some five or six years ago himself and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tressler, of Lin- family removed from Beliefonte to den Hall, attended the sessions of the Tyrone, and have resided there since teachers' institute at Philipsburg. Mr. except one year at Saudy Ridge. He Tressler is an ex-school teacher, and is survived by his wife. Clara Moyer, has yet sufficient interest in education and three children, Margaret, Lucy to follow those of his abandoned pro- and Edmund Moyer, at the family fession to the extreme end of the coun- home, 1251 North Washington avenue, Tyrone. His mother, Lucy Moyer, of The majority of the public schools Potters Mills, also survives the dethroughout the county opened Mon. ceased. His father, Dr. Frederick

Mr. Moyer was an expert and an authority in the manufacture of fire brick. At the time of the accident be was on his second trip as traveling school rooms in a better sanitary con- and soliciting agent for the Mount Savage Fire Brick company, of Johns-

Interment took place in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

W. W. Tate Dead,

W. W. Tate, a native of Centre county, died Thursday of last week in the hospital at Monongahala City of hemorrhage of the lungs, aged thirty-two years, three months. He was a telegraph operator employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad at Dors, Jefferson Deceased was born at Milesburg, and was the son of E. Potter Tate form-rly of Centre Hall, but now of Yeagertown. The funeral took place from the home of William Bodle, Hunters Park, Sunday morning.

VIN-TE-NA The Great Nerve Tonic, Body Builder, Blood Purifier. A Spe cific for all Nervous Conditions requir ing a Conic-Strengthening Medicine It makes Pure Blood; gives strength and Vigor to both the Nervous and Muscular Systems. If not benefited money retunded. J. D. Murray, Druggist.

One-third off on men's, boys' and children's suits, overcoats and rain MONTGOMERY & CO., Bellefonte.

BURNED TO DEATH.

The Chance of Your Lifetime

To Secure High Grade Winter Goods at Sacrifice Prices

Cut Prices are a specialty with us, but the Cut Prices on our High Grade Winter Goods is what we wish to call your special attention to in this issue, and what you should look after for your own interests. Call at our store and examine

The patronage you gave us during 1903 is greatly appreciated and we hope for a continuance of the same during the entire year of 1904. Our every effort will be put forth to save money for you and make it worth your consideration to Bring your friends with you and we will guarantee fair dealing with all. Our Motto-Honest Dealing and Low Prices. Farm Products of all kinds wanted.

TERMS-Cash to Everybody.

OLD DUNCAN STAND. B. W. RIPKA. SPRING MILLS, PA.

CENTRE HALL BARGAIN STORE

All the Staple Goods can be bought at the Penn's Valley Bargain Store at their least cash value. Come and examine our stock. Produce taken in exchange for goods.

Centre Hall, Pa.

J. F. SMITH.

If you need any kind of furniture, no matter in what part of your house, come to us. You will find us at Spring Mills. That's all that need be said. John Smith &

Furniture & Undertaking J. H. KRUMBINE Centre Hall, Penn.

We will make a Discount of 15 Per Cent. on all Cash Sales between Now and April 1st, 1904.

If you expect to go to Housekeeping come and see my stock, compare the prices and be convinced that you get the highest value for your money.

My Motto for 1904 will be

"Ouick Sales and Small Profits" If I do not have what you want, I will get it for you.

UNDERTAKING A SPECIALTY. Calls answered promptly, Day or Night. Terms and Prices reasonable.

15 Per Cent. Discount

CTORE FOR SALE

Boalsburg, Penn.

The undersigned offers his complete stock of General Merchandise for sale. Goods all new and up to date. Good location and good trade established. Write for particulars or call at place of business.

The store building can be bought or leased to suit the buyer. Call on or address-

J. H. WEBER, Boalsburg, Pa.