THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1904.

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.
ADVERTISEMENTS.—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.
The figures opposite your name on label of paper indicate the date to which your subscription is paid. When no date is given the date implied is July 1903; when no month is given the month implied is July—thus: '00' means July, 1900; '01', means July, 1901; '04' means that your subscription is paid in advance to July, 1904. Other months than July are indicated by abbreviations.
When you pay your subscription always examine your label, and when a notice appears that corrections have been made, compare and report immediately if you have not been given proper credit. No receipts for subscription will be sent by mail unless by special request. The change of date on label ought to be sufficient evidence. Money by mail is reasonably safe. There have been no losses to this date.

Potters Mills.

Ed. Sweetwood is the champion trapper of this place. His record is as follows: Four foxes, thirteen skunks, ninety-six musk rats, nine opossums, two minks. One of the minks was white as snow, and one of the foxes was tailless. Mr. Sweetwood is now out along the mountain prospecting for skunk; he has taken T. E. Palmer as partner in the pick and shovel game.

Merchant F. A. Carson in the spring will erect a large building over his water wheel and proposes putting in a line of machinery that will be a benefit to himself and a surprise to the people.

On Sunday S. G. Long and Charles Working made a flying trip to Spring Mills.

T. E. Palmer says trapping is rather poor with him and he was compelled to borrow carcasses from Ed. Sweetwood to feed his chickens, but he expects business to open up soon.

W. H. Working a few days ago had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse.

Perry Krise has sold his deer head to some party in the east and has shipped it to its destination.

The veteran buckster, J. R. Close, has made several trips to Burnham and reports business good.

Joseph Parker, who some time ago was hurt by a falling tree, is able to be out but not yet able to go to work.

S. G. Long on Saturday was like General Burnside; he stuck in the mud with a load of wood and had to go home for reinforcements.

Harry Wilkinson is on the sick list and is in a very bad way; all hope for his speedy recovery.

Harry Fishburn is not improving, he expects to move to his father's home and has had his blacksmith tools moved to that place.

One of the boys the other day was in the mountains cutting wood and says he froze his heel, but it seems he was after a cat and fell into the creek; he went home and put his feet into the oven of the stove to dry his stockings and went to sleep and while asleep his stockings caught fire and burnt his feet.

Speer Palmer who makes his home with Perry McKloney, is in a bad way; he says he has no pain and is not sick, but is weak and is still getting weaker; old age is supposed to be the trouble as he is about seventy years of age.

Aaronsburg.

Ed. Swann and family, of Olean, N. Y., are the guests of Mrs. Swann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert.

Harry Mensch, of Bellefonte, was home over Sunday.

The prohibition party met at the home of John L. Thompson, Jr., last Monday evening, and nominated the following ticket: Judge, J. C. Eiters; Inspector, G. W. R. Williams; assessor, James Gilliland; supervisors, Daniel Lowder, Nathan Grove; overseers, Cornelius Houz, Samuel Weaver; school directors, Wm. Grove, David Wagner; justice, E. K. Smith; auditor, George Williams; treasurer, John L. Thompson; clerk, O. L. Grove.

A correction—it has been published in the county papers that Mrs. Henry Gingerich, of Linden Hall, placed an individual communion set in the Lutheran church at Boalsburg. There was a set placed in that church, but it was purchased by subscription raised by the members of the congregation.

There will be a lecture given in Boalsburg and Lemont Thursday and Friday evenings, respectively. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

A District Sunday school convention will be held at Lemont, February 13th.

Penns Cave.

Ammon Decker is going on the Allison farm, which Daniel Immel is vacating.

Squire Rishel and George Weaver have been nominated for Justices of the Peace. The friends of Mr. Weaver think he could deal out justice with one arm in any emergency.

Clayton S. Detwiler came home last Thursday on a two days' vacation. He holds a remunerative position on the main line of the Pennsylvania railroad, one-half mile south of Montandon.

His brother Perry went with him to the R. D. Tower for a short stay.

Harvey Rote in addition to farming the land which he now occupies, will also farm for Jacob Detwiler. Mr. Detwiler will make sale of his farm stock, but it is his intention to continue living on the farm.

Burnham.

Quite a number of men were laid off work at the Steel Works on account of work being slack, but hope for brighter times.

There are several cases of diphtheria in this place and Yeagertown.

Charles Stroup and Miss Ella Gearhart were quietly married one day last week. They will reside in Altoona, where Mr. Stroup is employed.

Edward Schaeffer, of this place, moved into one of Frank Pecht's houses in Yeagertown last Saturday.

Farmers Mills.

The young ladies have organized a society, and it is their intention to give a supper some time in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Krader visited at the home of John Rishel during the past week.

Mrs. William Hagen, who has been ill, is not improving.

When you feel blue and that everything goes wrong, take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse and invigorate your stomach, regulate your bowels, give you a relish for your food and make you feel that in this old world is a good place to live. For sale by C. J. Finkle, Spring Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

Harris Township.

The attendance at the services held in the Reformed church last week was small, owing to the bad condition of the roads.

Rev. A. A. Black is conducting services at Pine Hall this week.

An illustrated lecture on "Lights and Shadows" will be given in the Lutheran church this (Thursday) evening, by Rev. Myers, of Phillipsburg.

James Wert and Rev. O. L. Buck went to the Loop on Sunday to attend the meeting conducted by Rev. Adam Bierly.

When You Have a Cold.
The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. J. Finkle, Spring Mills.

Merchant O. F. Corman, Spring Mills, is making a special sale, for ten days, of lantern globes. Price 4¢ cents.
