Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How to Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Sons, Swamp-Root Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

"Finders Keepers"
"Finders keepers" is evidently the motto adopted by the person who found the pocket book containing over fifty dollars in cash, recently lost by Frank Bible, of near Centre Hill.

A judge down east decided that a person who found an article of value and made no effort to discover the real owner, committed a crime of no less degree than theft, and imposed sentence accordingly.

It may safely be presumed that Mr. Bible in his case would be willing not to prosecute, providing the money is returned.

The Weather.
The weather, for the past week, has been unusual for this time of April. The thermometer registered below the freezing point every night for the past week.

Tuesday afternoon mercury fell to twenty-eight degrees above zero; and during that night it sunk nine degrees farther. Wednesday morning at seven o'clock, the mercury column stood at twenty degrees.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Judge Thompson for Supreme Court—J. C. Meyer, Esq., and James Kerr Delegates to National Convention.

The Democratic convention held at Harrisburg Tuesday was enthusiastic and largely attended.

The convention was called to order by State Chairman James K. P. Hall, who announced F. J. Fitzsimmons, of Scranton, as temporary chairman. Upon taking the gavel, Mr. Fitzsimmons made a strong speech, the following paragraph being one of the first utterances:

"The Republican party, in this Commonwealth, is dead to State pride and individual liberty. The serfs on the plains of Siberia have more independence than have the cringing machine-ridden and boss-worshipping pack of slaves who belong to the party given glory by Lincoln and a long line of illustrious statesmen, but which has descended, in this State, to be sponsor for ballot box-stuffers, repeaters and grafters."

The temporary organization was next effected as follows:

W. T. McEhlin, of Butler, secretary; William Hayes Grier, Lancaster; C. A. Small, Columbia; W. R. Kemerer, Berks, and Charles Newhart, Armstrong, assistant secretaries; J. Wood Clark, Indiana, reading clerk; George T. Brumbaugh, Centre, sergeant-at-arms, and James A. Sweeney, Luzerne, chief doorkeeper.

ADJOURNMENT FOR LUNCH.
Along about one o'clock, after the announcement of the committees the convention got hungry and demands for adjournment were made by several delegates. This was taken after the customary rules had been adopted.

NO WORD FOR PARKER.
The committee met on the stage immediately after the convention adjourned for lunch, and Park Davis, of Easton, offered a resolution that the Pennsylvania delegation to the St. Louis convention use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Judge Parker for president. This occurred after William J. Brennan, of Pittsburg, had offered the platform as drafted by the leaders. The Parker resolution was rejected by a viva voce vote and the platform was adopted with a hurrah. Ex-Governor Pattison was chosen chairman, the plan to put Robert E. Wright at the head having been sidetracked.

The organization committee met in the State headquarters and selected Senator Arthur G. Dewalt, of Lehigh, as permanent chairman, continuing the temporary officers.

BACK AT WORK.
The convention got to work again about 2:30 o'clock. The house was even better filled than in the morning and just as lively, there being another cheer for Pattison when he appeared. As soon as the convention resumed work John M. Garman presented the report of the credentials committee ignoring the Independence party and it was promptly adopted.

Then G. Gordon Bromley, of Philadelphia, reported for the organization committee, recommending Senator Arthur G. Dewalt, of Allentown, for permanent chairman and the continuance of the temporary secretaries and other officers. They were all elected and Mr. Dewalt was presented with the gavel by Col. Fitzsimmons. Senator Dewalt, in assuming the reins, denounced the president as unsafe and lauded President McKinley, his reference to the late chief executive evoking hearty hand clapping. His demands for tariff reform and a strong navy and scornful reference to the Republican policy of "standing pat" were well received and more than once he was interrupted by applause.

PATTISON READS PLATFORM.
The introduction of ex-Governor Pattison as chairman of the committee on resolutions, made immediately after Senator Dewalt's address, was the signal for an outburst of applause and cheers in which the Philadelphia delegation led.

The adoption of the platform was made with cheers and then nominations for the candidacy for the Supreme Court bench were called for. Michael J. Ryan, of Philadelphia, came forward to present the name of Samuel Gustine Thompson. He was given a hearty reception and several times in the course of his scholarly address was cheered. One of these occurred when, after a splendid tribute to justice, he said "Woe to Pennsylvania when her courts are made of bricks and mortar. The world marvels that Pennsylvania is contented." In fine rhetorical vein he spoke of Pennsylvania's glory and mourned the barter of offices and franchises on the auction block, crowned by the attempts to use one of the most exalted offices in the State to quell rebellion and insure the thralldom of six millions of people. The judge, he declared, should not be the one who had stuggled in the forum, but one who had made a quiet study of the law, fitted with cold impartiality to decide questions.

In presenting the name of Samuel Gustine Thompson he styled him "the worthy son of a great chief justice," twice honored by Governors of opposite political beliefs as worthy to adorn the bench and worthy to do so now.

The nomination was seconded by W. J. Brennan, of Pittsburg.

THE DELEGATES CHOSEN.

County Controller Aeneas, of Reading, next nominated James M. Guffey, Robert E. Pattison, Robert E. Wright and J. K. P. Hall for delegates at large to the national convention and they were selected by acclamation. Senator Vandergrift nominated the following for alternates-at-large: John S. Billing, Erie; E. M. Herbert, Berks; George McGowan, Philadelphia; J. Davis Broadhead, Northampton, who were elected.

New York Indorsed Parker.
The Democratic convention in New York Indorsed Judge Parker for president. Tammany was overcome. This action of the New York Democrats practically decides that Judge Parker will receive the Democratic nomination for president at the National convention to be held in St. Louis.

Two New States.
By the strict party vote of 147 yeas to 104 nays the House Tuesday passed the Statehood bill, under the provisions of which Oklahoma and Indian Territory may be admitted to the Union under the name of Oklahoma and Arizona and New Mexico under the former designation.

Lost an Eye.
Edgar Yearick, second son of Henry Yearick, of Philadelphia, received an injury to his eye that necessitated the removal of the optic. Mr. Yearick is a student at the Pennsylvania Military College, Chester, and it was during rifle practice that a portion of a shattered target inflicted the injury.
