Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail Home of Swamp-Root, N. Y., also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

Official Business as Reported from Bellefonte by a Special Correspondent.

[Reported by W. H. Walker, Esq.]

The regular April term of court convened at the Court House, Bellefonte, Monday morning with Hon. John G. Love, President Judge, on the bench; Prothonotary Gardner and Recorder Arehey were in their respective places.

About the only business that was done during the morning session was the calling over the list of names of jurors, the charge to the grand jury, the return of the constables of the several districts of the county, and the presentation of motions and petitions by the attorneys at the bar.

The list of criminal cases for trial are few, and none of them are very important, nor are there any for trial of a serious nature.

The Court appointed John P. Harris, banker, of Bellefonte, foreman of the Grand Jury.

There are ten cases on the civil list for disposition in the nature of appeals from judgments rendered by justices of the peace of the county for the first week, and seventeen cases on the calendar for the second week of court which begins on Monday, May 2nd. Many of the cases on both lists are settled and continued.

Quite a number of petitions for roads and bridges were presented to the Court Monday forenoon.

Before Court adjourned Monday forenoon the case of Charles Fravel vs. Daniel Long, was marked settled; the attorneys agreed to a non suit in the case of George Robb vs. Even R. Lucas. The case of J. H. Weber vs. Geo. Geutzel was continued. These three cases were appeals from judgments rendered by justices of the peace.

Court adjourned at 11 a. m. to 2 p. m.

The case of Eunice H. Jackson versus D. D. Woods was continued at the costs of the plaintiff. This was an appeal taken from the judgment of a justice of the peace in Phillipsburg.

The first case tried on Monday afternoon was that of the Lackawanna Fertilizer Chemical Company versus John Mitchell. This was also an appeal. From the facts in the case it appeared that the plaintiff company made a contract for the sale of fertilizers, etc., with the defendant, he to receive certain commissions according to the grade of fertilizer sold. For some reason or other the terms of the contract were not as desired and the contract was rescinded before any orders were sent in by the defendant.

The plaintiff brought suit in the pursuance of the said terms and the defendant took the appeal. The jury after argument of counsel and charge of the Court found a verdict in favor of the defendant.

In the case of Commonwealth versus Thomas Park, who was charged with an assault etc., the grand jury ignored the bill of indictment and put the costs on the county.

The Grand Jury ignored the bill of indictment in the case of Commonwealth versus James Cunningham, who was indicted for assault and battery, and placed the costs on the county.

By leave of Court a nol pros was entered in the case of Commonwealth versus David Pearce and Mame Pearce who were indicted for assault and battery. Job C. Bair was the prosecutor in the case. A true bill was returned by the Grand Jury in the case.

Bert Dellge who is noted for his scrapping disposition in and around Scotia was found guilty of assault and battery on one, William Bottorf, and was sentenced by the Court to pay a fine of $10.00, the costs of prosecution, and sent to the jail of Centre county for one month.

The first case tried Tuesday morning was that of Commonwealth versus Barney Mendleman, a Russian peddler from Phillipsburg. Louis Finberg was the pro-secutor. From the facts in the case it appeared that the defendant and the prosecutor had some words which meant fight. Each party indulged in the use of names, slurs, etc., and in the wind up they used fists to end it. Finberg showed to the Court and jury a finger that was about bitten off by Mendleman. The jury after hearing the case thought about as much of one side as the other and found the defendant not guilty and divided the costs equally between the prosecutor and defendant. Their fun cost each of them from $50.00 to $75.00.

The second case called for trial Tuesday afternoon was that of Commonwealth versus Hillary Viard, charged with assault and battery on the person of James Cunningham. From the evidence in this case it appeared that the defendant stoned the prosecutor when on his way from work on March 10th, between four and five o'clock. Some swearing and vile language was indulged in by both the boys. The verdict of the jury has not as yet been rendered.

The grand jury ignored the bill of indictment in the case of Commonwealth versus Charles Bathurst, who was charged with the crime of larceny, and that of receiving stolen goods. Walter Fulton is the prosecutor. Costs were put upon the county.

The Grand Jury in the case of Commonwealth vs. E. E. Geutzel who was indicted on three counts—larceny, larceny by Bailee, and embezzlement by an agent—ignored the bill. J. H.

Reifnyder, of Millheim, was the prosecutor.

Hillary Viard, who was tried for assault and battery, was found guilty.

The bill against Ollie Dumbleton, who was indicted for an assault, was ignored by the Grand Jury and the costs put upon the prosecutor, Patrick Close.

Tuesday evening the last case taken up was that of Commonwealth vs. A. G. Wilson, of Burnside twp., who was indicted for "Breaking Quarantine Regulations." The prosecutor was Dr. W. R. Babb, State Quarantine Officer.

The Grand Jury returned a true bill, but on motion of the attorneys for defendant the bill of indictment was quashed.

The Howard township quarantine cases were continued to next term of court.

The Grand Jury approved a county bridge over Sinking Creek in Potter township; also a county bridge over Wallace's Run in Boggs township.

All jurors, except those in the box, were discharged Wednesday morning.

COURT NOTES.

J. Singleton Bell, Esq., of the Clearfield county bar, was admitted to the bar, he being specially interested in a civil case to be tried during the week.

Hon. Cyrus Gordon, and A. H. Woodward, Esq., both of Clearfield, are in attendance upon Court.

Attorney Nolan, of Phillipsburg, is here in the interest of his clients.

The criminal cases this week are few and of very little importance.

Thursday afternoon is the time fixed for the habeas corpus hearing in the case of Commonwealth versus Father Zarek, of Snow Shoe.

Ex-Sheriff Brungart is here from Centre Hall, serving as one of the traverse jurors.

N. J. Rishel, wife and two children were to Bellefonte Thursday between trains, shopping.

The two sons of Chalmers Houtz, who have been suffering from diphtheria are reported almost well again.

The venerable George Cronmiller was a pleasant visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. Kaup, of Oak Hall Station, last week; his late illness has left him very feeble.

Charles G. Getz, returned Thursday after spending a short time at Altoona and Pittsburg.

Clark Bible, of Burnham, enjoyed Saturday and Sunday at the home of his parents, at Oak Hall Station.

C. D. Houtz is constantly making improvements and a present summoned to his aid John C. Hoy, and is having a new summer house put up.

Mrs. Lloyd L. Houtz is able to be around again after suffering from diphtheria, apparently none the worse, except somewhat weaker.

Boyd Williams has been confined to the house, suffering from pleurisy.

An 're's Hassinger's son Jackson, is on the sick list this week, suffering from convulsions.

Clarens A. Houtz, wife and two children, from the Hoy School District, spent a few days at the home of his father, the latter part of the week.

Clayton Eiters is now prepared to weigh the heavy cattle of the district, as he had Wallace Musser and his crew put in new timbers Saturday.

Clayton Eiters, Grant Meyers, and L. F. Mayes started Monday for Montourville to attend the I. O. O. F. anniversary.

LOCALS.

Upsidedown.
James N. Litzell, auctioneer and ex-soldier, was in town Thursday.

There will be a meeting of the Hospital Aid Society in the rooms over Kremer & Son's store, Monday evening, May 2nd. Ladies come prepared to sew.

Mrs. C. D. Runkle, of Pittsburg, arrived Tuesday morning. The Runkles, as stated last week, will make Centre Hall their home, and will occupy the Dinges property.

J. S. Rowe was called to Blair county, Monday, to put into operation a stone crusher purchased by road supervisors. He is representing a crusher that has many superior points.

Miss Anna Bartholomew was an arrival Wednesday from Curwensville, where she has just finished a term of public school. On her return to that place she will open a select school. Miss Bartholomew is a most successful teacher as will be attested by the patrons of the public school of this town where she taught several terms.
