Improvements on Camp Ground.
The Encampment Association, P. of H., observed arbor day on an extensive scale, and planted a large number of maple trees on the encampment grounds. In a few years these trees will afford a comfortable nesting place for those attending the encampment and exhibition.

The association is having a large number of slatted benches constructed for use on the camp grounds.

Each tent will be fitted up with a folding table, and a neatly constructed cot, instead of the weather-beaten, rough board table and clumsy, uncomfortable bunk.

Other improvements are also under consideration.

You Never Saw It Before.

The strange and foreign air which the Filipinos give to the Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show, which exhibits in Bellefonte, Tuesday, May 10th, is, however, but a part of the strangeness of the whole aggregation of which Pawnee Bill is the head. It is the most cosmopolitan gathering that has ever been brought under canvas, not because Japs and Cosacs have not been shown before, but because every race is represented. The show is a perfect babel of tongues and orders have to be given through interpreters of which there are one or two for each nationality. There are Filipinos, Japanese, Cosacs, Mexicans, gauchos from Argentina, Brule and Ogalalla Sioux Indians and Australian bushmen.

PLAIN STATEMENTS.

Mr. J. D. Murray Knows Whereof He Speaks.

Chronic and lingering coughs are generally the result of catarrh, and cannot be cured by cough syrups. What is needed is a blood-cleansing tonic, which will remove the poison germs from the system, replenish the blood supply and restore the wasted tissue, supplying strength as it builds. No remedy has been found which so speedily effects a cure as does Vinetna. Mr. Murray has so much faith in this great remedy that he promises to refund your money if the results are not satisfactory.
