PLAIN STATEMENTS.

Mr. J. D. Murray Knows Whereof He Speaks.

Chronic and lingering coughs are generally the result of catarrb, and cannot be cured by cough syrups. What is needed is a blood-cleansing tonic, which will remove the poison germs from the system, replenish the blood supply and restore the wasted tissue, supplying strength as it builds. No remedy has been found which so speedily effects a cure as does Vin-tena. Mr. Murray has so much faith in this great remedy that he promises to S. G.
