The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both Home of Swamp-Root, sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

BRIDGE COLLAPSES.

Gregg Township Bridge Collapses—Horses and Engine Go Down.

The Dunlap bridge across Penns Creek, between Sober and Spring Mills, Tuesday of last week collapsed while an engine and six horses were crossing it. One of the horses was drowned, and the engine damaged to a considerable extent.

The engine was a part of a saw mill outfit, the property of William Bitner, of Spring Mills, and was being hauled by Elmer Bobb, of Georges Valley, from Poe Valley to Brush Mountain. On reaching the scene of the disaster, the engine was hauled on the bridge, and in order to make the strain on the bridge as light as possible, it was the intention of Mr. Bobb and his assistants to remove the horses from the bridge, attach a cable chain to the engine and in that way draw it across the structure. It was while these preliminaries to this part of the program were being enacted that the bridge timbers began to groan, and before the six noble animals could be removed to a point of safety, the bridge collapsed, precipitating horses, engine, wagon and all into the water.

The water in Penns Creek at this point is of considerable depth, and in the struggle one of the horses was held under and drowned. The injury to the others was very slight.

Mr. Bobb values the horse in question at $225, a sum equal to that refused in cash a short time ago.

The Gregg township supervisors have taken the matter in hand, and the disposition on both sides is to make an amicable settlement.

First Honors at Allentown.

First honors were awarded Miss Helen S. Hosterman, by the Allentown College for Women. She is a daughter of Dr. G. W. Hosterman, of this place.

Muncy Ginseng Farm.

The Muncy Ginseng company, of Muncy, has been chartered by the state department at Harrisburg. The capital stock is $6,000. The garden, which is situated on the land of Smith Opp, in the southern part of the town, has nearly 15,000 growing plants.

Assailed the Telephone Law.

Judge McClure and his two associates in Selinsgrove as a court of equity in the case of the United Telephone and Telegraph Company against Charles Power. Mr. Power had threatened to cut down telephone poles erected upon his farm without his consent. A bill in equity was filed and a preliminary injunction granted restraining him. Power denied authority under the state law for the incorporation of a combined telephone and telegraph company, and hence the outcome of the case will be very important.

DEATHS.

MRS. HARRY GILMORE.

From Balsburg Correspondent.
Not for a long time has the announcement of a death in this community been received with more genuine sorrow and regret than was that of Minnie Amelia Gilmore, wife of Harry Gilmore, who passed away at the family home, near Balsburg, last Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock after a few days' illness.

Mrs. Gilmore's condition had been most critical from Wednesday previous when on Friday morning it was generally known that there was no hope of her life being spared.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Daniel and Lucy Stover, and was born in Bellefonte, thirty-seven years ago on the 22nd of February.

Her marriage to Harry Gilmore took place May 28th, 1891, and her home relations were particularly happy. She was a devout member of the Reformed church, in which she took an active interest, but pre-eminently over all other characteristics devotion to her family and home ranked first.

She is survived by her husband, six children, four sisters and three brothers. The children are Oscar, Jessie, Pearl, Sophronia, Harry and Nevin. An infant daughter was laid to rest Wednesday morning. The brothers and sisters are Mrs. Pearly Sharer, Mrs. Nannie Smith, of Zion; Mrs. Sara Kuhn, of Punxsutawney; Mrs. Alice Durst, and George, of Earlystown; Oscar, of Balsburg; Foster, of Ill. Mrs. Ida Tressler died in Kansas about ten years ago. Two brothers died in infancy.

Her father died at Earlystown in 1874 and her mother at Balsburg in 1896.

Funeral services were held in St. John's Reformed church, Balsburg, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. A. A. Black officiated, with a large congregation present.

The floral tributes were beautiful and the body with its pall of white lilacs, myrtle and the sweet-scented crab-apple blossoms was carried to its final resting place in the Balsburg cemetery by Harry Bailey, Nevin and Curtis Meyer, Homer Barr, Edward Riley and Daniel Patterson.

RUTH CATHARINE BOOB.

William and Hannah Boob, of Woodward, are mourning the loss of their little daughter, Ruth Catharine, whose death occurred Saturday of membranous croup. Her age was one year and four months. Interment private in the Woodward cemetery, Rev. Buck officiating at the grave.

LILLIE CARRIE DAVIS.

Lillie Carrie, aged five years and five months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, of Millheim, died Thursday of last week, of scarlet fever. Interment in the Union cemetery, Rev. T. N. Bair officiating.

LOCALS.

Bishop Foss of the Methodist church has been retired.

Williamsport was obliged to spend $5000 on account of the mild epidemic of small pox.

Mrs. Ellen Bower, of Bellefonte, Sunday, was the guest of her brother, D. J. Meyer.

Mrs. Gress, during the absence of Rev. Gress, is spending the time at Spring Mills.

Miss Blanche Rossman is back to school again after an absence, on account of sickness, for two weeks.

The Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., has engaged Grange Arcadia in which to hold their festival on the evening of Memorial Day.

George Eaton, of Orangeville, Ill., a merchant of experience and well known to many of the Reporter readers, has purchased a grocery in Freeport, Ill.

Seventy-hundredths of an inch of rain fell Saturday and Sunday. The rain was much needed, by growing vegetation and to aid in preparing corn ground.

Harry Hettinger, son of Spear Hettinger, deceased, is able to sit up after having been seriously ill for some weeks at the home of his mother, near Centre Hill.

James Gragg, of Milesburg, was in town Tuesday. He was looking for material with which to make repairs on the buildings on the Gregg farm, west of town.

Among the improvements of note in Georges Valley is the remodeling of the arm house of Wells E. Ans, on the tract recently purchased by him. When completed, the home will be one of the coziest in the neighborhood.

J. W. Sweetwood, of near Spring Mills, who devotes much time to the honey-bee, relates that the past winter was a severe one for the bees. Out of twenty-eight active families of honey-gatherers, only seven survived the excessive cold.

The finance of the cemetery association, at the annual meeting held Monday night, were found to be in good condition. After the expenditure of nearly $200 for improvements, the association has a nice cash balance and good accounts.

Messrs. W. E. Cavender and J. C. Pflum, representing the Farmer's Nursery Company, at Tippecanoe City, Ohio, are canvassing Centre county in the interest of that firm, the latter being located at Centre Hall at this time. These gentlemen sold a large number of fruit trees, berries, shrubbery, etc., last season, and it is a pleasure to note that the stock was entirely satisfactory and the method of business pursued by the company equally honorable.

The Georges Valley Lutheran church, Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor, will be rededicated Sunday, 29th inst. The pastor will be assisted in the dedicatory services by Rev. W. E. Fischer, D. D., of Shamokin, and Rev. I. H. McGann, of Lewisburg. The edifice has been remodeled throughout at an expenditure of considerable money.

Col. Edmond Pruner Dead.

Colonel Edmond J. Pruner, a business man, well known throughout Central Pennsylvania, died of paralysis Saturday, at his home in Tyrone. He was born at Bellefonte sixty-four years ago, and formerly lived in Philadelphia. He was engaged in lumbering, contracting and railroading, being one of the original stockholders of the Northern Pacific and a promoter of many other Western roads.

LOCALS.

D. L. Kerr is improving his dwelling houses and lots in Centre Hall. Snow, to the depth of one inch, fell Sunday on the mountains west of Altoona. In the afternoon stray snow flakes were observed falling here.

James B. Neff, of Antonio, Colorado, in a note to the Reporter, states that the precipitation for the past twelve months in that section has been less than one inch. You will believe it when he says that the range is in need of rain.
