Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble. Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits.

by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mailing Home of Swamp-Root, 1.50, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Haines-Gramley. A pretty home wedding took place at the home of County Superintendent C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, yesterday (Wednesday) evening at eight o'clock, when the marriage of his daughter, Miss Alma E., to M. Claude Haines, also of Rebersburg, was solemnized, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Bixler, of the Lutheran church.

The attendants were Miss Orpha Gramley, of Spring Mills, and Lynn Emerick, of Rebersburg, and the flower bearers Florence Heckman, of Clintondale, and Harry Hubler, of Rebersburg. The wedding march was performed by Miss Bessie Dubs.

The Gramley home, which was beautifully decorated in white and green, became a scene of social activity after the formalities of the wedding ceremony were over. Although the invitations were confined to the immediate friends and relatives of the principals, fully sixty covers were laid to serve the guests, the refreshments not being one of the least features in the affair.

The bride is accomplished and refined and truly womanly. The groom is a school teacher, son of George B. Haines, and is associated with his brother in the butcher business in Rebersburg.

The couple are at home in Rebersburg, having dispensed with the customary honey-moon trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Haines were most heartily serenaded by the callithumpians, the omission of which act in that town would be regarded as an evil omen.

Copperhead Snake 16 Feet Long.

A peculiar experience was that of Edward Williams, of Lemont, the other morning, when he went to feed his horses. On opening the feed box he discovered the head of a copperhead snake protruding from the mass of quivering chop that covered the remainder of its body, three feet in length. The venomous reptile struck viciously at Mr. William's hand and barely missed it.

Dr. R. G. Young, of Snow Shoe, charged with false imprisonment and perjury in connection with the recent arrest of Father Victor Zarek, of Clarence, waived the hearing which was to have taken place before Justice Keichline Saturday morning at ten o'clock, and was bound over to court in the sum of $1,000. John Uzzle, of Snow Shoe, furnished the bail for Dr. Young. The case will probably come up at the August term of court.

Goes to Berlin Instead of Lisbon.

Harry W. Shoemaker, of New York, who is a nephew of J. C. Quiggle, of McElhattan, and a frequent visitor in this section of the country, has just received from the president the appointment as third assistant secretary of United States legation at Berlin, Germany, and will depart for his post of duty in the near future. Mr. Shoemaker previous to this appointment held the office of secretary United States legation at Lisbon, Portugal.

Mr. Shoemaker is the author of the "Hermit of the Knobs" which appeared in the Reporter several weeks ago.

DEATHS.

DAVID S. KEMP David S. Kemp died at his home Lima, Ohio, aged sixty-two years. The deceased was interested in the oil business, and was a son of Philip Kemp, at one time a resident of near Sprucetown. He is survived by two brothers, John Kemp and Miles A. Kemp, of Duke Center, Pa., and one sister, Anna, wife of C. C. Ramsey, of Pleasant Gap.

MARY FRANCES SMITH.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Smith, of Spring Mills, were called upon to give up their infant daughter, Mary Frances. Death came to the little one Friday night, at the age of two months and twenty-four days. Interment was made Sunday, Rev. J. M. Rearick officiating.

LOCALS.

Clevan D. Mitterling, son of W. J. Mitterling, Wednesday left for St. Louis where he will be employed as a yardman at a large hotel during the time of the Exposition. He will stop in Chicago for a short time where Charles Mitterling, a brother, is employed.

After the memorial ceremonies were over at Dale, Esq., the orator of the day, called on some of the Republican leaders in Centre Hall, with a view, no doubt, of adding to his strength as a candidate for the Republican nomination for assembly. Mr. Dale made a good display of his ability as an orator, and since the nomination of a Republican for the office of assembly is simply a matter of form, the party might as well place in the field a man capable of expressing his thoughts.

ALIVE AND WELL.

Rev. Harman and Edwin Jordan Send in Protest.

The following will be read with great satisfaction by the Reporter readers who know Rev. C. B. Harman and Edwin Jordan:

CHICAGO, ILL., May 20, 1904.

Mr. Editor— In the columns of your newspaper we see published the death of Edwin Jordan, late of Spring Mills, also the death of Rev. Harman, late of Rebersburg, Pa.

Where you get your information from we should very much like to know, as we are regular subscribers to your paper and you would naturally have been informed of any such event, if true, by some member of the family.

We received a letter from Rev. Harman several days ago and know he is not dead. Edwin Jordan might have died in a church but not in a theatre. Please correct errors.

Yours, &c. EDWIN JORDAN.

The source of the Reporter's information concerning the death of the gentlemen mentioned above was supposed to be reliable, and was given by friends of both, who, of course, had been misinformed, but how cannot be explained. The death of Rev. Harman came from members of the Northern Conference, who received the news while in session at Tusseyville.

Wallace Musser Injured.

Wallace Musser, of Penn Hall, was thrown from his wagon and sustained an injury the outcome of which can at present only be conjectured.

Mr. Musser drives one of the several wagons that collect cream for the Spring Mills creamery, and immediately west of Centre Hall, on the Brush Valley road, the horse he was driving took fright at a stone crusher in operation. Before assistance could be given, one of the lines broke which threw the horses against the fence and as a consequence the wagon was upset. Realizing that after the lines had parted he could no longer control the horses, Mr. Musser jumped from the wagon and in doing so he was tripped by the line and thrown to the ground, one of the wheels striking the scromion (the outer extremity of the shoulder blade) and crushing it. A gash was also cut above the eye by the top of the falling wagon.

Mr. Musser was taken to the office of Dr. Allison where the wounds were dressed, and in the afternoon (Memorial Day) he was taken to his home. After the wagon was upset, the horses became detached, and after running for a short distance were easily captured.

Wednesday Mr. Musser was reported as improving.

Bezer, the Bellefonte butcher, Monday drove twenty-one head of cattle through town, the average weight of which was twelve hundred and twenty-six pounds. The cattle were purchased from various parties in Millin county.

Mr. John M. Bullock is ready to take your measure for that . . .
