

THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1904.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Lutheran—Centre Hall, morning; Tusseyville, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening, Children's service. J. M. REARICK, Pastor.

Principal Wanted. The Centre Hall school board is in want of a principal for the High School. A college man is preferred.

Reduced Rates to Chicago.

For the benefit of those desiring to attend the Republican National Convention, to be held at Chicago, June 21 to June 24, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round-trip tickets to Chicago, from all stations on its lines, from June 16 to 20, inclusive, good returning, leaving Chicago not later than June 29, at rate of single fare for the round trip.

Borough School Teachers.

The borough school directors at their meeting Thursday evening of last week elected the following teachers: Grammar, Flo Duck. Intermediate, Rebecca J. Moyer. Primary, Helen S. Hosterman.

LOCALS.

One way to keep a cook is to marry her.

In business nothing succeeds like a successful failure.

It is impossible to cultivate some men without irrigation.

Frank Bohn, son-in-law of Mrs. Bradford, in this place, is seriously ill from catarrh of the stomach.

Messrs. Earl C. Lutz and Frank Walker, of near Centre Hall, were callers at the Reporter office Saturday evening.

Dr. Charles Rhone, formerly of Bellefonte, and Miss Mary Cecilia Bosbyshell, of Los Angeles, California, were recently married. They are at home at Douglas, Arizona.

You will please remember that Progress Grange will hold its regular June festival Saturday evening. Strawberries, ice cream, cake, etc., will be served. The proceeds will be devoted to the hall fund.

Col. John A. Woodward announces that the time and place for holding the farmer's institute will be fixed at a meeting of the institute managers to be held in the Commissioner's office, Tuesday, June 21st.

In the series of papers on personal beauty which are appearing in The Delineator, Dr. Murray, in the July number discusses the care of the hair. The article contains much valuable information and is effectively illustrated.

A fruit cupboard in the cellar of Merchant H. W. Kreamer upset the other afternoon, breaking about sixty jars of fruit belonging to various parties who had stored there. The wreck was caused by the supports to the cupboard decaying.

A. E. Humpton, of Snow Shoe, will leave Centre county for Portland, Oregon, where he will engage in the lumber business. Mr. Humpton was the Democratic candidate for county commissioner two years ago, and proved himself a gentleman, the character of which this county can ill afford to lose.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Meyer, of Penn Hall, this week attended the commencement exercises at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, and witnessed the ceremonies incident to the conferring of the degree of Doctor of Philosophy on their son, J. Frank Meyer, an instructor in physics in that institution.

Mrs. Ertley, wife of W. F. Ertley of, Windber, Somerset county, accompanied by her little son Robert, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Conley, of Centre Hall, during last week. Mrs. Ertley being a niece of Mr. Conley. Mr. Ertley is conducting a blacksmith and wagonmaker shop in that thrifty Somerset county town.

Centre county people going to the World's Fair will find a very suitable stopping place at 7050 Wise Ave., two squares for Skinker Road entrance, which can be reached by taking Market street cars from Union Station. Mr. Sweetwood is a native of Penns Valley, and went west from Harrisburg, and will give the best of accommodations for the money.

A horse being driven through Centre Hall Thursday morning by Frank Keller, of Pleasant Gap, began kicking and knocked the front part of the buggy to pieces. The young man quickly turned the animal to the side and prevented the brute from inflicting injury to his mother, Mrs. Harvey Keller. Their predicament was discovered by people on the streets who hurriedly rendered assistance and no doubt prevented a serious termination of the affair.

Very interesting and instructive Children's Day services were held in the Presbyterian and Lutheran churches Sunday. These services are of particular value to the little people who receive a training there not obtained in the public schools. Occasionally, perhaps, the main object of Children's Day is miscarried, but generally speaking, the participants in the exercises are benefited, even though the exchequers of the orphanages are not materially replenished.

LOCALS.

J. J. Arney, west of town, last week, repaired his farm barn.

The late planted corn is making very satisfactory growth.

G. W. Ocker, of Lewisburg, has purchased a house and lot in that town.

The corner stone was laid in Lewistown for a United Evangelical church.

A district Sunday school convention will be held at Pleasant Gap next Tuesday.

W. H. Smith, of Spring Mills, the junior member in the furniture firm of Smith Brothers, was in town Saturday.

W. M. Grove and Peter Smith, both of Centre Hill, attended the treasurer's sale of unseared land, held at the court house Monday.

Dr. McCluney Radcliffe was an arrival from Philadelphia Wednesday, having come up to visit his aunt, Mrs. J. Shannon Roal.

The Potter township school board will meet in Tusseyville Friday evening for the purpose of electing teachers for Potter township.

B. D. Briden represented the Republican borough organization in the convention of that party held on Tuesday. He was unopposed.

Masters Ted and John Bailey and Ray Williams represented the Reporter at the athletic sports on Beaver field, State College, Monday.

Saturday evening the town was filled with people from all sections. The streets were lined with rigs, and every available tying post was in use.

Friday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Crawford, of Bellefonte, started for St. Louis, and will spend ten days or more at the exposition.

Horse goods is what Merchant Swartz advertises. Read his adv.; become acquainted with his prices, variety and quality of goods kept on hand.

The mow fields are looking fine, although the clover in the old fields was all frozen out, and many stubble fields are minus clover for the same reason.

Messrs. William Pealer and Daniel Ripka, of Spring Mills, were in town Saturday to conduct the sale of the personal property of Jacob Ripka, deceased.

J. Malcolm Laurie is now cashier in Winburne, Clearfield county. He formerly held the position of assistant cashier of the Centre County Banking Company, Bellefonte.

The lumber industry of east Brush Valley is at its zenith. Nearly two hundred men find daily employment cutting logs and peeling bark in the several camps operating there.

P. Gross Yearick, of the firm of Yearick Brothers, Philadelphia, is the guest of his mother and sister, the latter Mrs. W. E. Mingle, in this place, having come to Centre county on his vacation.

In another column of this paper you will see an advertisement of The Protective Nurseries, Geneva, N. Y. They want you to write to them and secure a good position selling their whole root Nursery stock.

The degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on Henry Prentiss Armsby, director of Pennsylvania Agricultural Experiment Station, connected with State College. The honor was bestowed by the Wisconsin University, at Madison, Wisconsin.

Frank Glass, a well-known Freeburg, Snyder county lawyer, was injured in a runaway accident Sunday night of last week. He was thrown from his buggy in the narrows along Susquehanna, and after being exposed all night he was found unconscious in the morning with a broken collar bone and contusions about the head.

Umbrella menders know the value of advertising, which was demonstrated recently by one of the clan preferring to sit in a drizzling rain to perform his work rather than in a comfortable room, saying his working might be observed by some one who needed his services. Mr. Merchant, are you as wise?

Rebekah's Install Officers.

The Centre Hall Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., Tuesday night of last week installed the following officers, the ceremonies incident being performed by Mrs. T. G. Haines, assisted by Mrs. Gochnour:

Noble Grand, Roxanna R. Briabin. Vice Grand, Elsie Moore. Secretary, Edith Lutz. Treasurer, Mrs. Lucy Henny.

A Series of Misfortunes.

That misfortunes never come singly was proven conclusively to the family of William Homan, living east of Centre Hall. Sunday evening Mr. Homan's hired boy on returning from children's day services, found some one endeavoring to enter the house. He quickly remounted his bicycle and went to meet his employer, who was driving a span of spirited mules. The mules took fright at the approaching bicyclist and started to run away. Some of the occupants of the spring wagon jumped for their lives, and others, among them Mrs. Homan and baby, remained on the vehicle until it was upset in a fence corner, and received slight injuries. The mules ran home.

Money may be the root of all evil, but baseball produces the rooter.
