Up to this time, Monday evening, nothing reliable has been learned as to the condition of J. H. Reifsnyder, who is lying seriously ill at the Lock Haven hospital, suffering from apoplexy since Tuesday last. An enjoyable moonlight party was given Friday evening by a number of the young folks, near the knitting mills, in honor of Miss Maud Woomey, of Bellefonte, who is visiting at the home of D. L. Geary. S. R. King, the popular landlord of the Musser House, with his family left Thursday of last week for a two or three weeks' visit to Shickshinny, Luzerne county, the former home of Mrs. King. Their friends here wish them a safe journey and an enjoyable visit. P. Gross Yearick, of Philadelphia, was in town shaking hands with friends and old acquaintances. Mr. Yearick is engaged in business in Philadelphia, and usually visits this neighborhood about once a year and especially the old town of Aaronsburg, where his boyhood days were spent. J. C. Hosterman, of the Millheim Journal, having received the sad news of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Boob, left Thursday of last week for her home near Millinburg, where he expects to remain at least until there is a change in her condition. Mrs. Boob is suffering from a stroke of paralysis. Last Thursday evening Albert Roberts, of Bellefonte, gave a free exhibition of fancy snare-drumming on the diamond, after which he gave a stereopticon exhibition in the town hall, for which he charged a ten cent admission fee. It is likely his audience was larger on the diamond than it was in the hall. J. B. Spangler, of Mapleton Depot, to whom some time ago a franchise was voted by the borough council, to put in a water plant, was here Wednesday of last week, presumably on business pertaining to the same. He left Thursday morning on the early train; nothing could be learned as to what was done in the matter. Miss Katie Stumm, of Loganton, came to Coburn Friday to meet her sister, Mrs. Jensen, who arrived on the morning train from New York City, her place of residence. On their way they made a short stop at this place to visit their aunts, Mrs. Wm. Henny and Mrs. Jacob Gephart. They are daughters of Samuel Stumm, of Loganton. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gephart, accompanied by their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker, of Johnstown, came down from Bellefonte Sunday on a short visit to Mr. Gephart's mother, Mrs. Jacob Gephart. After supper Mr. Gephart treated his guests to a drive through the Narrows, north of town, where there is at this season a nice cool breeze and delightful scenery. They left for Bellefonte Monday.

Farmers Mills.

The festival at Hoy's school house was well attended by the young people of this community. Miss Gertrude Hagan, who is plying the needle at Millheim, spent Sunday with her parents. Miss Lodie Kishel, who spent last week with her father, at the Bellefonte hospital, returned home Sunday. Mr. Kishel is somewhat improved. The Union Sunday school of this place will hold a festival Saturday evening, June 25th, at which all the delicacies of the season will be served. Music will be furnished by the Penn Hall band; all are invited. Miss Lettie Armbruster and Mrs. H. E. Shreckengost were entertained at the home of Elmer C. Hettinger Sunday afternoon. J. M. Goodhart purchased a new carriage from J. M. Wieland, of Boalsburg. Mr. and Mrs. George Armbruster spent Friday at Millheim. One of M. L. Rishel's horses is sick with catarrh fever.

Woodward.

Rev. O. L. Buck and family, of Rebersburg, spent a few days in town last week. Mrs. Harris Stover and mother-in-law visited Mrs. Stover's mother, Mrs. Wolfe, one day last week. Dr. Ard and wife left for Lewisburg on Sunday. Miss Maude Bellman, of Millheim, is visiting with Mary Eby. Fisher Motz, of Monessen, is home to see his mother, who is very ill. Daniel Benner went to Aaronsburg on Saturday. C. D. Motz was called to Jefferson, South Carolina, last week, at which place his father is very ill with paralysis. Jacob Musser, of Coburn, was in town Monday. Mrs. Thomas Wolfe and Annie Wolfe, of Fiedler, spent a day last week at the home of 'Squire Musser.

Mrs. Carper is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Nathaniel Zeigler. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Homan, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday at the home of Peter Smith.

Linden Hall.

Mrs. J. H. Ross is seriously ill at this writing. Miss Catherman is visiting her brother Will, at this place. Mrs. Thomas Meyer, of Aaronsburg, is visiting Mrs. Agnes Meyer. Mrs. D. C. Hess is at Lewisburg, the guest of her nephew, Dr. W. C. Bartol, of Bucknell University. Mrs. William Brooks left Tuesday for Derry, where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. S. Fleck. Bruce Meyer, of Woodford, Virginia, is here for the summer. It is his first visit since the family left about twelve years ago. The supervisors have built a large, new bridge and raised the road in front of the dam, which is quite an improvement. The Children's service in the United Evangelical church Sunday evening was a decided success. The house was crowded. Miss Maude Irvin, of Baileyville, and J. H. Miller, of Rock Spring, were guests of F. E. Wieland and family over Sunday. Levi Miller is around shaking hands with old friends, having come home for a vacation on account of the retirement policy in the Altoona shops. Mrs. F. E. Wieland left Tuesday for a trip through the western part of the state and West Virginia, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. C. T. Lemon, and Mrs. Freda Hall, at Elkins. Miss Gertrude Wieland left this (Thursday) morning for St. Louis, from there she will go to western Nebraska, where she will spend several months with her brothers Will and E. K. Wieland, who are located near Alliance.
