DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

For President Judge: ELLIS L. ORVIS, Esq., of Bellefonte.

For Assembly J. W. KEPLER, of Ferguson.

JOHN NOLL, of Bellefonte. For Prothonotary: ARTHUR B. KIMPORT, of Harris.

For District Attorney W. G. RUNKLE, of Bellefonte.

J. H. WETZEL, of Bellefonte.

President McKinley looked ahead to the emergent conditions that now confront the country. He foresaw and foretold the need of markets. Having by tariff premiums and inducements pushed the capacity of manufacturing production far beyond the capacity of home absorption, he insisted that a vent must be found for our surplus. He insisted that "the period of exclusiveness is past".

President Roosevelt, on the contrary looks backward. The platform which he has directed chiefly vaunts farm. what has been done. In the face of the very contingency of overproduction and business stagnation which McKinley anticipated, it is announced that the party rejects his dying counsel. The cry goes forth to "stand pat."

There is more interest being manifested in the St. Louis Convention than there was in the Chicago Convention. The Chicago delegates were not assembled to make choice of a Presidential nominee. They were brought together to annouce a choice already made and proclaim a platform already decided upon. The St. Louis delegates will agree upon a candidate and make a platform to suit themselves. Until the thing is done there will be a continuing uncertainty as to the result. Hence the interest. The party in this country which surrenders in advance its volition and does what it is commanded to do by autocratic authority has lost its taste for self-government and abdicated its capacity for usefulness.

A demonstration of the workings of Protectionism may be given on the Isthmus of Panama. The Canal Commissioners, of course desire that the canal be built at the least possible cost consistent with good work; and to this end they wish that material, machinery, supplies and food for the laborers may be admitted to the canal zone duty free. The Secretary of the Treasury, as a consistent Protectionist, insists that American manufacturers of steam shovels, cement, pickaxes, flour, dredges and dinner pails shall be fenced off from foreign competition by the extension to the Isthmus of the provisions of the Dingley tariff. The Government would in that case have to pay to the purveyors thus favored the difference between the cost of these articles in the open and in the protected market; and it would be made to appear very clearly that the consumer (in this instance the Government) pays the tariff taxes.

It is a tale about flesh and blood people; a story for men and women. "Uncle Joe" Cannon, Speaker of the National House of Representatives, is most enthusiastic in his praise of Miss Miriam Michelson's book. This is what he has to say about it. "I am in receipt of a copy of 'In the Bishop's Carriage,' by Miriam Michelson. I read the same with great pleasure, It seems to me it ought to be a popular publication and one that will exert a good influence. Perhaps I can best describe it by saying that I commenced reading it early in the morning and finished it that night and the coming morning, and when finished I drew a long breath and feit that I had forgotten everything else but the book and regretted that there was not more of it. With respect, etc.
