Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Millheim.
The Uncle Tom's Cabin show had a fair audience.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Campbell visited at the home of Elmer Houtz, near Linden Hall, Saturday.

At the ball game at Aronsburg Saturday afternoon, Millheim vs. Rebersburg, the score was 14 to 0 in favor of Rebersburg.

George Homan was on the sick list several days last week; he is up and around again.

Mrs. Howard Klepper with her four children, of Lock Haven, is here on a few weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kreamer.

The ladies of the Lutheran congregation renovated the church Thursday last week. To make the auditorium appear more beautiful and inviting, some new carpet and matting was put down.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kuhn and daughter, of Rockview, visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Meyer, in this place, Saturday and Sunday.

William Kreamer with the assistance of three or four carpenters and painters, is improving and beautifying his home on Penn Street.

Mrs. Pauline Klepper, of Boonville, and her sister, Mrs. Sarah Kerstetter, of Loganton, visited friends in this place Wednesday of last week. About twenty years ago Mrs. Klepper moved from this place to Boonville, Clinton county, having lived here with her first husband, Charles H. Held, who died in 1878. It has been some time since Mrs. Klepper was here on a visit and she finds many changes.

In getting off the butcher wagon one day last week, John Meyer stepped on the spring which gave way so suddenly and to such an extent that it caused his foot to slip, throwing him upon the wheel, painfully hurting his back. The pain was so great that he became unconscious a short time after the accident.

While returning from Coburn with a heavy load Saturday afternoon Drayman Harry Leitzell met the Uncle Tom's Cabin parade at the lower end of town, and, when passing their wagons his horse took fright and in the endeavor to get away the wagon was upset, doing considerable damage to some of the goods and the wagon. Mr. Leitzell had a narrow escape from being hurt. He, however, had jumped from the vehicle, thereby probably saving himself from serious injury.

The Philadelphia Record
Of all the exchanges that reach us daily none is more welcome than "The Philadelphia Record." It typifies, as near as possible, that ignis fatuus, "the model newspaper,"—that perfection of journalistic enterprise for which an eager and unsatisfied public constantly yearns. There is an old saying to the effect that he who strives to please everybody pleases nobody, but "The Philadelphia Record" comes pretty close to disproving this. There is not a class of readers that it doesn't cater to. That "The Record" is popular needs no emphasis. With its enormous circulation, the largest of any paper published in Pennsylvania, its influence is powerful and far-reaching, and always for good. It has no axes to grind, no favors to seek, no whitewash brush to apply to political corruption. It is fearless in its championship of the people. It hits out from the shoulder when occasion demands, vigorously, and yet with much of the old time dignity that is reminiscent of the days of Greeley and Raymond. In its editorial policy "The Record" combines the spirit of progress with the best elements of the old school.

In the matter of giving the news it is not surpassed by any paper in the country. It is progressive, exhaustive and above all accurate. It enjoys the full confidence of its readers. Moreover it is a paper for the family. Its special departments are kept up to a standard of excellence such as a magazine might be proud of. Its pages fairly bristle with bright things from the pens of experts in many fields. There is something for the farmer as well as for the city man, something for the woman, something for everybody. Its style is invariably bright, crisp and newsy. In fact, a daily reading of "The Philadelphia Record" is in itself a liberal education.

On account of the few cases on the list only one week of August court will be held.

Harris Township.
Rev. and Mrs. Black spent a few days at Lewistown attending services in connection with the dedication of a new church edifice of Trinity Reformed congregation.

Mrs. Sara Hunter and her aunt, Mrs. Sara Rankin returned from a visit to Altoona.

Mrs. Ada Musser and daughter Margaret, of Wilkesbarre, are visiting in this their former home.

Mrs. Drusilla Hess after spending a week at the home of Dr. Bartol, of Lewisburg, returned to her home.

Robert McCrae and family, of Pittsburgh, are visiting here.

Alvin Myers and family and Andrew Hunter are visitors from the Mountain City.

Miss Elizabeth Gettig, of Braddock, is at present visiting her many friends in this vicinity. She, in company with her sister, Mrs. Regina Sharp and her sons James and Paul, spent Friday at the McClellan home near Tusseyville. Part of the time was spent at the cemetery adjoining the Evangelical church, where a monument in memory of their brother Clayton Gettig has lately been erected, by his wife, Mrs. Lillie Gettig.

Grover Walker, in company with his cousin, Bruce Meyer, spent Sunday at the former's home at Penn Hall.

Mrs. Hale Ross who has been very sick for the past week is improving.

Miss Janet McFarlane and Mrs. Emma Stuart spent Friday afternoon at Lemont.

Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Myra McKee, of Wilkesburg, visited Mrs. Mary Hess last week.

Linn Bortorf and family, of Curwensville, spent Sunday evening here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Thomas visited in Altoona a few days.

Master Harry Felty, of Altoona, came to spend the summer with his grandfather, Adam Felty.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods Bathgate, of Altoona, spent a day at the Felty home.

Hall Bortorf, wife and daughter, were visitors at the home of E. W. Hess.

All are invited to attend the festival in the town hall at Boalsburg on the evenings of the 2nd and 4th of July, given by the ladies of the Reformed church.

Miss Edie Long and Mrs. Lida Long did some shopping at Bellefonte on Thursday.

Quite a number of persons from State College are enjoying themselves by outings in the Shingleton Gap, which is at present a very beautiful and attractive place.

Mrs. J. W. Miller, of Pine Hall, is spending this week with her brother, Harry Gilmer and family.

J. P. and F. W. Weber spent Sunday with their brother, J. H. Weber, at Centre Hall, who is slowly recovering from his sickness.

Nittany Mountain.
J. A. Hoover is a busy man, selling books and farm machinery, and has now added harness to the list.

Veterinary surgeon, D. M. Bowersox, of Aronsburg, was in this section examining cattle, which it was feared had tuberculosis, but found no disease among the cattle.

Todd Ryan, wife and daughter, of Bellefonte, are spending several days with Mrs. Ryan's sister, Mrs. J. B. Sprow.

Miss Ray Horner, daughter of Rev. Andrew Horner, and friend, spent Sunday with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sprow.

Mrs. Lucile Parker, widow of Amos Parker, moved from the Logan House, Centre Hall, to the Samuel Brass house.
