A complete conspectus of the political situation at the outset of the Presidential campaign is presented in the editorial pages of the July Review of Reviews. That publication seems likely to prove as indispensable this year as in previous campaigns. No fact of importance in State or national politics escapes it.

Ex-United States Senator Henry G. Davis, the Democratic nominee for Vice President is a fine type of the American self-made man. At a time of life when men are usually simply waiting the last summons, he is as hale and hearty as a man of sixty and had been generally agreed upon as the Democratic candidate for Governor of West Virginia this Fall. Parker and Davis make a ticket to win.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

Mr. Murray Tells You It Costs Nothing unless it Cures.

It makes no difference what may have caused you to lose flesh, to be nervous and irritable, to rise in the morning feeling languid and dull, to be dyspeptic and despondent. The all-important question to you is: "How can I regain my health? How can I become my former self?" So strong is Mr. Murray's faith in the merits of Vintena that he is ready to promptly refund the money if, after a few days' use, Vintena fails to benefit. We challenge you to test our guarantee. For sale by J. D. Murray.
