The September McClures.

McClures Magazine for September is a vigorous expression of American life and interest, part fact, part fiction, all entertaining. Several serious articles give it commanding importance and character.

From Millheim Journal.

H. H. Leitzell and son, Eugene, of Millheim, were arrivals in Millheim Wednesday morning. They expect to spend several weeks with relatives and friends in this place, Rebersburg, Spring Mills and Centre Hall.

Sweet Girl Ablaze.

Sunday evening, after using cologne pretty freely, Miss Bertha Fittery struck a match when her clothing took fire, as is related by the Huntingdon Monitor. She immediately ran to her neighbor, 'Squire Mierlie's' where the fire was extinguished. She was badly burned about the hands and arms and from her neck to her waist.

Elmer From Drowned.

Elmer From, aged eighteen years, who lived with his father, William From, along the old pike in the Narrows below Lewistown, directly opposite the dam, was drowned in the Juniata river near Bixler's, Tuesday of last week. He was subject to epilepsy and it is supposed he was attacked with a fit and fell out of his boat. The youth was a nephew of Jacob From, of this place.

Millin County Democrat.

The Millin county Democratic Convention, of which Rev. A. M. Spangler was chairman placed in nomination the following ticket: Assembly, James C. Nagney, prothonotary, Frank B. McCabe; register and recorder, David Sunderland; district attorney, W. W. Toist; director of the poor, Abram Moist; county surveyor, John C. Swigart. Charles A. Shunkwiler was elected county chairman.

Great Grangers' Picnic.

The 31st Annual Great Grangers' Picnic Exhibition will be held at Williams' Grove, August 29 to September 2, 1904. This is undoubtedly the largest and finest display of farm machinery held in the east. The beauty of the exhibit is that so much of it is running, Saw Mills, Shingle Mills, Threshing Machinery, Tractor Engines and Ensilage Cutters galore are all shown in operation. A new feature will be a high grade Poultry Department under the auspices of the Pennsylvania Fanciers' Association. The auditorium will be attractive as usual. During the day addresses by leading Grangers and Agriculturists. Tuesday and Wednesday evenings illustrated lectures on Russia and Japan, by Frank R. Roberson. Thursday and Friday evenings musical and literary entertainments by the best of Chautauqua talent. Everything first class. Tickets good from August 25th to September 6th, at low rates on all railroads. Consult your nearest ticket agent.

LUMBERMAN KILLED.

Body of Ellis Etters, With Head Battered, is Found Along Railroad.

The following dispatch was sent out from Bellefonte: Word has been received here of the finding Monday of the dead body of Ellis Etters, a brother of David O. Etters, superintendent of the Bellefonte schools, along the North Branch of the Susquehanna, near Cataract.

Etters was operating a lumber job near Pine Glenn, Centre county, and Saturday night left the Cataract Hotel to go to his home across the river. The last seen of him, until his body was found Monday, was when he got into his boat to row across the river. When found the body was lying on the track of the Beech Creek Railroad. There were two deep bruises on the head.

There are various theories as to the manner of his death, but the general impression is that he was murdered, as he generally carried considerable money on his person.

Last Low Rate Excursion to Atlantic City.

The last Pennsylvania Railroad low-rate ten-day excursion for the present season from Lock Haven, Troy, Bellefonte, Williamsport, Micanopus, Sunbury, Mt. Carmel, Shenandoah, Lykens, Dauphin, and principal intermediate stations (including stations on branch roads), to Atlantic City, Cape May, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Avalon, Angelsea, Wildwood, or Holly Beach, will be run on Thursday, September 1.

Excursion tickets, good to return by regular trains except limited trains, within ten days, will be sold at very low rates. Tickets to Atlantic City will be sold via the Delaware River Bridge Route, the only all rail line, or via Market Street Wharf, Philadelphia.

Stop over can be had at Philadelphia, either going or returning, within limit of ticket.

For information in regard to specific rates and time of trains consult hand bills, or apply to agents or E. S. Harrar, Division Ticket Agent, Williamsport, Pa.

AUGUST COURT.

Fifty-one Criminal Cases Before the Grand Jury.

W. Harrison Walker, Esq., up to the time of going to press furnished the readers a full and accurate account of the proceedings of court. The court has before it an unusually large number of criminal cases, and the judge in his charge to the grand jury, as is noted by Attorney Walker, asked the grand jury to perform its work speedily.

The regular August session of court began Monday morning with Hon. John G. Love, P. J., on the bench and Prothonotary Gardner and Register Arthey in their regular places. The forenoon was taken up in the presentation of motions and petitions by the several members of the bar. The constables of the several boroughs and townships made their quarterly returns.

The Court delivered his usual instructive charge to the seventeen members of the grand jury and dwelt some time on the crimes recently committed and which would come before them for disposition. He also urged upon them to act as promptly as possible on all bills of indictment laid before them by District Attorney Spangler for the reason that the list is exceptionally large and no time could be lost in waiting for cases for trial.

The Court appointed Daniel Irvin, of Ferguson township, foreman of the grand jury.

There are fifty-one cases on the calendar for trial, in which are included the jail breakers, and seven civil cases.

In the case of Thomas F. Brungart vs. George B. and Reuben Lucas administrators of Morgan M. Lucas, deceased, a verdict was taken in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $1983.97 debt and $100.00 attorneys commissions.

A verdict was also taken in the case of Thomas E. Griffith vs. Morgan M. Lucas' administrators in the sum of $197.48 debt and $8.42 attorneys commissions.

The case of Frank McCoy, et al., executors of J. D. Slaughter, late of Bellefonte borough, deceased, vs. Lewis Rosenthal, being an appeal, was continued to next term of court.

The case of Harrisburg Grocery Company vs. Chas. P. Long, being an appeal was continued, also the case of J. H. Lingle vs. Rosenthal.

W. Harrison Walker, Esq., was appointed as auditor in the estate of Jas. M. Lucas, late of Boggs township, deceased.

N. B. Spangler, Esq., was appointed an auditor in the estate of Morgan M. Lucas, deceased, filed by the administrators, and also for W. Harrison Walker as trustee appointed by the Court for said decedent.

Court adjourned to 1.30 Monday afternoon.

Court called at two o'clock Monday afternoon with Hon. J. G. Love, P. J., on the bench and the other court officials in their respective places. Quite a number of petitions and motions were presented, among which were the petitions for final discharges of Elmer Atkins and Oscar Schenck.

A petition was read on behalf of O. A. Harvey, Horace Stuver and Elmer Flannigan, of Clinton county, who were instrumental in the capture of Dillen, Green and Henderson in the swamps near Beech Creek some time ago. They made a demand on the Commissioners of Centre county for the rewards offered by said commissioners for the capture of these jail breakers of $600.00 and were refused for the reason that several other parties made similar demands on the commissioners. The court, after the petition was presented and read and after some argument by counsel, granted a rule on the commissioners to show cause why they should not pay the rewards to the petitioners. Rule to be returnable to October Argument Court.

The attorneys interested in the cases of Dillen, Green, Henderson and Constance and the cases for which they were arrested and committed to jail before they made their escape, are as follows: For the Commonwealth, District Attorney N. B. Spangler, Ellis L. Orvis, Col. E. R. Chambers and Col. W. F. Reeder. The defendants will be represented by H. C. Quigley, Esq., and Clement Dale, Esq.

The only case called for trial Monday afternoon was that of Commonwealth vs. the Viard family, of South Phillipsburg borough, charged with resisting an officer of said borough.

The powers of A. A. Dale, Esq., as auditor in the Thomas Meyer estate were enlarged and continued to the next term of court.

Howard Creamery Burned.

The Howard Creamery, R. D. Wilson proprietor, was totally destroyed by fire Sunday night, the fire being first discovered a little before three o'clock. The loss is placed at $1500, with no insurance.

Mr. Wilson has stated that the creamery will be rebuilt immediately. This is the second creamery that was burned at Howard, the first being owned by the Howard Creamery Co. It is supposed that both fires were of incendiary origin.

A large black bear was observed near the sulphur spring, above Loganton.
