

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1904

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Lutheran—Tusseyville, morning; Centre Hall, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening. Presbyterian—Centre Hall, morning; Spring Mills, evening. Evangelical—Lemont, morning; Linden Hall, afternoon. Reformed—No services.

World's Fair Excursions.

Low-rate ten-day coach excursions via Pennsylvania Railroad, September 7, 14, 21 and 28. Rate $15.95 from Centre Hall. Train leaves Centre Hall at 8.18 a. m., connecting with special train from New York arriving St. Louis 4.15 p. m. next day.

Railroad for New Berlin.

Shamokin and New Berlin capitalists applied for a charter for the privilege of building a narrow gauge railroad from New Berlin to Winfield, a distance of eight miles, which will connect with the Reading railroad at the latter place. New Berlin citizens donated four thousand dollars toward the project.

Union County's Big Fair.

The Fifty-first Annual Fair to be held at Brook Park, Lewisburg, Sept. 28, 29 and 30, will be one of the most attractive from every standpoint that has ever been held by the Association. The premium list will be away ahead of any other fair in this section, and the racing track will have some of the fastest trotters and pacing horses that have ever been seen hereabouts.

Apples Galore.

In Pennsylvania and New York the apple crop is one-fourth greater than last year, and in the New England States the increase is still greater, New Hampshire reporting a crop of three times as many as last year. Unless something untoward and unexpected happens apples will be more plentiful and cheaper this year than for many years past.

The October "Smart Set."

The October number of The Smart Set is a veritable mine of brilliant stories and poems. "Mo red," by Anna A. Rogers, is the title of the novlette which opens the issue. It is a story full of quiet humor dealing with the temptation which comes to the young wife of a naval officer while he is abroad and she is "moored" at home. The tale leaves a remarkably vivid impression and will attract wide attention.

Local Telephone Co. Organized.

On account of the exactions of the telephone companies in Union county, The Buffalo Valley Telephone Company, composed of citizens of that county, has been organized with these officers: President, Judge H. M. McClure; secretary, John W. Ruhl; treasurer, A. W. Brown; Board of Directors, H. M. McClure, G. C. Mohr, Dr. James Kleckner, John W. Ruhl, Charles R. Ruhl, William R. Folmer, Grant Driesbach.

One-Way Rates to the West.

From September 14 to October 14, inclusive, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell one-way Colonist tickets from all points in its territory to Western and Southwestern points at greatly reduced rates, thus affording a specially attractive opportunity to visit the growing and rapidly developing crop-producing sections of the great Western Empire. Detailed information as to rates and times of trains can be had of all Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agents.

Subday Excursions to be Abolished.

It is said that among the principal railroad lines of the country the practice of running Sunday excursions is likely to be abolished. The matter is under serious consideration, and some of them have gone so far as to call off excursions that were being run on the first day of the week. It is predicted that within two or three years the practice will scarcely be known. This is not because these excursions don't pay, but it is on moral grounds and in recognition of the sentiment held by religious people concerning these things.

Constance and Henderson Sentenced.

At a special term of court held Thursday of last week, Judge Love handed down an opinion refusing a new trial in the cases of Constance and Henderson, asked for by their attorneys, W. Harrison Walker and H. C. Quigley. Constance was sent for and sentenced by the court as follows: To pay a fine of $1.00, the cost of prosecution and to undergo imprisonment at separate and solitary confinement in the Western Penitentiary for four years. The court suspended sentence so far as escaping from jail was concerned. George Henderson was sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00, the cost of prosecution and to undergo imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for two years and eight months. Sentence was also suspended so far as his escape from jail was concerned. Mike Bartges, who was convicted of indecent assault, was sentenced to two years in the Western Penitentiary.

CAMP OPENED SATURDAY.

Tentholders Arrange Their Temporary Abodes—The Festival. There was considerable activity on Grange Park all day Saturday; the tentholders arranged their temporary abodes; the sutler nailed and tacked in order to be in readiness for business in the evening and the coming week; the merry-go-round man tuned up his whistle and groomed up the horses on the largest machine that ever raced around the circle on the park; the tents were given their last pat and the ropes drawn taut; exhibitors whose goods were on the ground were busily putting them in position, and those less fortunate were anxiously inquiring concerning the whereabouts of wares delayed in transportation. Saturday night the sutlers on the ground did considerable business, and the merry-go-round came in for the lion's share of the nickels. The ice cream festival held by Progress Grange, was well patronized. The day's work for Saturday, when all was summed up, was entirely satisfactory.

Sunday at Camp.

Sunday was an ideal day for driving, and many hundreds took advantage of the opportunity and came to Grange Park instead of going to other points. The religious services in the auditorium in the afternoon were conducted by Rev. G. W. McIlroy, pastor of the Penns Valley Methodist charge. His sermon was appropriate to the occasion, and was listened to with the closest attention. The auditorium was filled to overflowing. Although there were large numbers of people on the camp grounds during the greater part of Sunday, there was no unnecessary commotion or hubbub. The camp was quiet, each one feeling the restraint of the Sabbath day.

Furnaces Shut Down.

Foundries Nos. 1 and 2 at the Standard Steel Works, Burnham, have been ordered closed down for an indefinite period. This shutdown will affect about four hundred men. The hours were cut in other departments.

LOCALS.

Montgomery & Co. make an important announcement in their advertisement this week. Read the adv. Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Conley, of Bellefonte, left Saturday afternoon for New York City, Philadelphia and Ridley Park, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fye attended the funeral of George Bailey, at Boalsburg, whose horrible death is recorded elsewhere in this issue.

I will buy in large or small lots, cigar bands, tobacco tags, coupons or certificates. Must have them soon.—CHAS. D. BARTHOLOMEW, Centre Hall, Pa. The members of the Vincent Dramatic Company Tuesday morning drove to Penns Cave. They were highly pleased with the beauties of the interior and the wonderful formations. R. W. Neese of Auburn, was a caller Monday. Mr. Neese is a member of the firm of Neese Brothers, and is making his annual visit to his old home at Spring Mills. He also spent several days at the encampment. For best hotel accommodations—lodging or meals—go to Old Fort Hotel, I. A. Shawver, proprietor, where special arrangements have been made to accommodate the public during the encampment and exhibition at Grange Park. McClure's for October is timely in the best sense. It reads vigorously and intelligently some important lessons of the hour. In its serious articles McClure's does not deal with the cursory and the superficial, but with the vital, fundamental thing, and interprets its real meaning and application.

Spring Mills.

Wm. Sones is home paying his family a visit. Rev. J. V. Royer is paying his parents a visit this week. Roland Gentzel and family, of Altoona, visited at the parental homes during last week. Mr. and Mrs. Harshberger and three children, of Altoona, are visitors at the home of C. E. Royer. C. C. Bartges is very ably assisting C. A. Krape in the postoffice during the absence of Miss Carrie Gentzel. Hon. Wm. M. Allison was in attendance at a convention of the Millers' Association, held in Reading last week. Mrs. Mary Stover has been visiting among friends and relatives in Bellefonte and Centre Hall for the past week or more. Mrs. C. E. Zeigler had as her guests over Sunday, her father, Mr. Miller, and her sister, Mrs. Charles Smull, and son, all of Hebersburg. Miss Bertha Braucht, of Coburn, has come to live with her uncle, Dr. Braucht, for the winter, thus enabling her to take advantage of the High School so recently established. Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. George Gentzel and daughter, Miss Carrie, departed for a first month's visit in the west. Their first stop was Altoona. They expect to visit principally in parts of Iowa, and will likely spend some time at the St. Louis Exposition before returning.

BLOWN THROUGH ROOF.

Hot Rivet Explodes Gas in an Empty Oil Tank Car. George Bailey, an employe of the Penn. Railroad Company freight car shops, Altoona, was killed by being blown through the roof of the shop Saturday. While assisting in adjusting a safety valve on the dome of an empty oil tank car, Mr. Bailey got into the manhole to hold a rivet which was about to be driven. When the hot rivet entered the side of the tank an explosion followed and Bailey was blown out of the manhole and through the skylight in the roof of the shop. The shattered and dismembered body fell back again to the floor of the shop. The explosion is attributed to an accumulation of gas in the tank. Mr. Bailey was thirty-six years old and leaves a widow and two children—Edna and Eva. Mrs. Bailey is the daughter of John A. Kline, of Oak Hall. Interment was made at Boalsburg Monday afternoon, Rev. Hutchison, of the United Presbyterian church, Altoona, and Rev. Black, of the Boalsburg Reformed church, officiating. The deceased was a son of William and Mary Glen Bailey, of near Pine Grove Mills.

Transfer of Real Estate.

J. H. Weber, et. ux., to I. O. O. F. No. 894, June 30, 1904, lot in Boalsburg—$2,300. John Fox, Jr., trustees, to Bruce Miller, June 24, 1904, 5 acres, 73 perches, in Harris twp.—$65. Matthew Riddle, et ux., to N. P. Riddle, July 4, 1878, 2 acres, 125 perches, in Howard boro.—$350. Geo. D. Green guardian to Wm. E. Rager, Aug. 29, 1904, lot in State College—$1000. Wm. P. Lucas' executrix to Jacob H. Orndorf, Sept. 8, 1904, two tracts of land in Howard boro.—$2,300. Charlotte H. Harter, et. al., to A. Walter, Aug. 1, 1903, two lots of ground in Millheim.—$1. Susannah E. Hendershot to Mary C. Smith, Aug. 29, 1904, 1 acre and 60 perches in Spring twp.—$500. J. C. Smith, et. ux., to A. Walter, May 4, 1904, 6 acres, 45 9-10 perches in Millheim.—$314. Wm. Colyer's ex'rs to Wesley Nevel, Sept. 10, 1904, 350 acres in Potter twp.—$150.

The Vincent Dramatic Co.

The Vincent Dramatic Company, who have been giving nightly entertainments in the Auditorium, Grange Park, is deserving of continued patronage. They are a local Media company, and are young men and ladies of good moral character and standing in their community. They are here for an outing rather than the money that is in it, but their expenses are considerable and in order to meet these they should receive liberal patronage. The names of the thirteen members of the company are appended: Peter H. Riley, Mgr. Wm. P. Flack; Frank D. Suter, William Suter; Joseph F. Devine, Edward F. Fisher; John F. McGinley, Matt. C. Fox; Albert E. Hol, Miss Catharine Nolan; Miss Dora Nolan, Miss Gertrude Fisher; Miss Agnes Whelan.

Returns from Maine.

The returns from Maine indicate a Democratic gain of 30 per cent, and a Republican gain of 15 per cent, over the vote of 1902. Similar changes elsewhere would give New York to Parker by a plurality of 87,000, New Jersey by 5,000, Rhode Island by 6,000, Maryland by 32,000, Nebraska by 8,000, and Utah by 300. These, with the States carried by Bryan in 1900, would be exactly enough to elect. In addition, Delaware, West Virginia and Indiana would be in doubt if these percentages of gain were to prevail.

Encampment of Knights Templar.

Sir Knights from Great Britain and from many Eastern cities who have attended the triennial grand encampment of Knights Templar in San Francisco will witness the exercises of the fourth annual field day, First Division, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, in Fairmont Park, Philadelphia, Saturday, October 1. A feature of the field display will be Corinthian Chasseur Commandery, which led the great parade in San Francisco. Upward of 2500 Sir Knights in uniform will participate.

Editor McCloskey Dead.

James C. McCloskey, city editor of the Daily Express, of Lock Haven, for the last twenty-two years, died Sunday at his home there at the age of sixty-four years, from a complication of diseases, superinduced by Bright's disease. He leaves a wife and two sons. Mr. McCloskey was one of that class of busy workers for the press who, alive to their daily obligations to the public, pursue their way modestly and unostentatiously in the exacting duties of their profession, and give credit and character to their calling.

Special Services for Old People.

Special services for old people will be held in the Evangelical church, Lemont, Sunday morning, Rev. J. F. Shultz pastor. All persons over fifty years of age will be given an opportunity to register. The singing and services in general will be conducted so that the aged people may be able to participate.

LOCALS.

Resumption of work at the axe factory at Mill Hall has been postponed until the 29th. Fire, originating from a spark from a locomotive, damaged St. Mark's rectory in Lewistown to the extent of $1000.

Miss Sarah Mc Kinney, who has her home with her sister, Mrs. G. L. Lee, in this place, Friday of last week fell down the cellar steps and broke her collar bone.

Nearly every organization of volunteer firemen in the state of Pennsylvania, as well as from Western, New York and Eastern Ohio, will be represented at the silver anniversary convention of the Pennsylvania State Firemen's Association, to be held at Erie, October 4-7. One-fare rates from all points in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gross Mingle, of Bellefonte, had an exciting experience Sunday while crossing Nittany Mountain. When half way up the mountain an automobile approached them from behind and caused the horse they were driving to become greatly excited. Mrs. Mingle, with her little son in her arms alighted from the buggy, ran back to meet the auto and pleaded with them to stop immediately, which they did. The horse in the meantime was driven to a telephone pole and by the aid of several men who happened to be prevented from running away. The brute became perfectly crazed from fear, repeatedly rearing and striking the pole while standing perfectly erect. But for the protection of the telephone pole the animal could not have been prevented from getting away, as it was the men were in great danger of life and limb while endeavoring to pacify the frenzied animal.

Millheim.

Quite a number of our people drove to Grange Park, Sunday. W. O. Royer, who had been living at Renovo this summer, moved to this place last week. Mr. and Mrs. David Witman, of Hubersburg, were visitors at the home of Christ. Woodling. Mr. and Mrs. John Royer left Monday for Centre Hall where they will stay with their son Edward, during Grange Encampment. John Hardenburg, after spending his vacation in this place, Thursday will leave for Philadelphia, to resume his medical studies.

Miss Lizzie Geary left Monday for Newport where she has accepted a position in the knitting mill managed by A. D. Hoke, formerly of this place. J. T. McCormick, of State College, was in town and vicinity Thursday and Friday of last week, in the interests of the United Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer spent Saturday and Sunday at Rock View where they were guests of Mrs. Meyer's parents. J. C. Smith, who was employed as manager of the College hardware store for the last two years, has resigned and accepted a position as traveling salesman for the John Lucas Paint Company, of Philadelphia. About two thousand bushels of potatoes have thus far been shipped by Grocer N. A. Auman, of this place. An abundant crop has been raised in this vicinity.

Messrs. Boob and Wert, of Aaronsburg, have about one and one-fourth acres of ground in tomatoes. The patch is located one-half mile northeast of this place, and is doing fine. The tomatoes are being raised for the Coburn canning factory.

Aaronsburg.

Joseph Bitner, of Penn Hall, was in town on Sunday. James Weaver and wife spent Sunday with their daughter at Kloudyke. Mrs. Alice Lose and son, of West Fairview, are visiting Mrs. Lose's father, John Yarger. Mrs. Harvey Muser and son Harvey, of Akron, Ohio, are spending a few days with friends in town. Frank Tomlinson, of Clearfield, made a business trip to this place one day last week. Mrs. Katie Burr and Miss Marian Emerick, of Smulton, spent Sunday with Polly Stover.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stover, of Coburn, spent Sunday with Mr. Herman's family. Edward and Sumner Fehl, who spent the greater part of the summer in Ohio, arrived home this week. Mrs. Eisenhower and children spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Everett, at Coburn. Mrs. George Jordan and daughter-in-law, of Chicago, Illinois, are the guests of Mrs. M. J. Deshler. Miss Sara Haffley has returned home after having spent a few months in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Orwig spent a few days with the gentleman's parents near Hartleton. Rev. Z. A. Yearick, of Shenandoah, a former pastor of this place, preached a very good sermon in the Reformed church Sunday forenoon, to a large audience. Rev. Milton Bollinger, a former young man of this place, but now located in Iowa, preached a very interesting sermon in the Lutheran basement on Sunday evening.
