Mercury Down to 26.

Not in many years, if ever, did mercury fall so low as early in September as it did Wednesday night, when the thermometer registered twenty-six degrees above zero, that point being six degrees below the freezing point. Vegetable life was cut short, and the bright sun of the following day caused many beautiful beds of flowers, gardens and fields to part with their beauty.

Centre County Fair.

For the Centre County Fair, to be held at Bellefonte, Pa., October 5, 6, and 7, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell on these dates excursion tickets from Lewisburg and all intermediate stations, to Bellefonte and return, at reduced rates (no rate less than 25 cents). Tickets will be good to return until October 8, inclusive. On October 6 and 7 special trains returning will leave Bellefonte at 7 p. m. for Coburn and intermediate stations.

One-Way Rates to the West.

From September 14 to October 14, inclusive, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell one-way Colonist tickets from all points in its territory to Western and Southwestern points at greatly reduced rates, thus affording a specially attractive opportunity to visit the growing and rapidly developing crop-producing sections of the great Western Empire. Detailed information as to rates and times of trains can be had of all Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agents.

The Ladies' Department at the Fair.

The ladies in charge of the general exhibition building at the Fair have been meeting with more than expected success in their efforts to arouse interest in all parts of the county. They are in constant communication with representative women in every township, to the end that the Women's and Children's departments will be far more elaborate than they were last year, and this is saying much, for this particular exhibit of the fair attracted unusual interest for its completeness and variety.

LOCALS.

The borough and township schools are in session again.

G. R. Meiss advertises the sale of his farm stock to take place Saturday, October 22nd, at his store at Colyer. His advertisement will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl and child, of Linden Hall, this week were the pleasing guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Diehl, at their pretty country home near town, says the Millinburg Telegraph.

Mrs. S. S. Brown and daughter Miss Tressie, of Milroy, were callers last Friday. They spent the week at Old Fort Hotel and returned home Saturday. Mr. Brown, who had also come over for the picnic, was called home during the middle of the week owing to the illness of his father.

John S. Auman, of this place, will on October 11th, become a resident of Beaver Springs, Snyder county, where he leased a well-equipped water power flour and feed mill. Mr. Auman, five years ago, bought the Centre Hall roller flouring mills, grain house and coal sheds recently sold to the Weber Brothers, and operated the same. He has been a good citizen, ruggedly honest in business affairs, and one whom all will regret to see leave the town.

Messrs. Samuel F. Snyder, George W. Condo, Alvin Moyer, and Milton Snyder are a quartette of young men who came from the western part of the state to attend the encampment. Mr. Snyder is a superintendent at Greensburg; Mr. Condo the right hand man in the large butchering establishment of D. T. Knappenberger, at Jeannette; Mr. Moyer is engaged with the Madison Supply Company, at Darrah, and the latter Mr. Snyder is with a builder and contractor, doing general carpenter work. They are all getting along splendidly.

13,000 AT CAMP.

A Conservative Estimate of the Crowd Thursday.—2500 Vehicles.

Possibly at no previous time were there as many vehicles at the G age Encampment as this year. This mode of travel is, of course, much cheaper and more convenient to the average farmer.

Up to ten o'clock Thursday morning, Mrs. Mary Dinges counted four hundred vehicles pass her home, opposite Kreamer & Son's store, going in the direction of the picnic grounds. This number included vehicles coming up the Brush Valley road and across Nittany Mountain and a part of the travel on the Brush Valley road from the west, a large number of drivers coming down the latter road went out Hoffer street and did not pass the Dinges residence. It may be safely said that up to ten o'clock on the day mentioned six hundred vehicles passed along the pike and Hoffer street from the north, and until noon the number was easily increased to one thousand on these two roads.

To the number given above must be added all the traffic on the pike from the south, the Boalsburg road, the Spring Mills pike, and Keller's road. Fifteen hundred would be a conservative estimate of the number of vehicles that reached the picnic grounds over these roads, or a total of twenty-five hundred from all directions. These conveyances carried on an average at least four persons, or a total of ten thousand. To this add the fifteen hundred that, according to the tickets sold, came by rail; the five hundred permanently located on the grounds, and another thousand representing the town, its guests and nearby country people, makes a grand total of thirteen thousand—an estimate not too high or too low by many hundreds.

Milton Fair.

On account of the Milton Driving Park Association Fair at Milton, Pa., October 4, 5, 6, and 7, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell on these dates, round-trip tickets to Milton and return from Bellefonte, Lock Haven, East Bloomsburg, Mt. Carmel, Millersburg, Middleburg, and intermediate stations, at rate of single fare for the round trip (minimum rate, 25 cents.)

Racing at the Fair.

Experts in such matters have pronounced the track on the Centre County Fair grounds as the best half-mile course in Central Pennsylvania. A good track, however, would afford little amusement without good horses. For the great Centre County Fair next month fifty entries have already been made, and horsemen are looking forward to one of the greatest race meets ever held in this county.

Died of Blood Poisoning.

Harvey Shope, formerly of Bellefonte, died at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where he was serving as a soldier in the United States Army. The last letter his mother received from him, which was only a few days ago, stated that he had been vaccinated and was very sick in the hospital. Blood poisoning is supposed to have been the cause of his death. The body was sent to his home near Snow Shoe for interment.

LOCALS.

October 8th is the last day for paying taxes that will qualify you to vote.

Rev. and Mrs. Isaac Heckman, of Millin, beginning of last week, were guests of the family of B. D. Brisbin, in this place. Rev. Heckman, it will be remembered, was one of the successful pastors of the Methodist church in this place, and is warmly greeted by his former parishioners.

The North American, in its Sunday issue, would have its readers believe that Pennsylvania State College is located at Bellefonte. That paper speaks of State's football team as Bellefonte boys, which probably accounts for the score being 6 to 0 in favor of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.

THE ENCAMPMENT AND EXHIBITION

Held Last Week an Entire Success—Large Crowds Wednesday and Thursday.

The thirty-first annual Encampment and Exhibition of the Patrons of Husbandry of Central Pennsylvania is past. The gathering was one of the most successful in many respects ever held. From a point of attendance it was probably the largest ever held and that great interest was manifested by the members of the order and others was attested by the large exhibit in the various departments.

Rain interfered with the program arranged for Tuesday, but Wednesday forenoon addresses were delivered by Hon. W. F. Hill, Master of the Pennsylvania State Grange, and Hon. Jason Sexton, of North Wales, Montgomery county.

Thursday forenoon Prof. H. A. Surface, State Zoologist, and Robert S. Conklin, Commissioner of Forestry, spoke to a large audience.

Dr. Pearson and Pure Food Commissioner Warren were detained on account of business, and could not be present to speak.

S. S. Blyholder, of Armstrong county, member of the finance committee of the State Grange, was delayed and did not reach Centre Hall until Thursday afternoon, too late to speak.

Wednesday and Thursday afternoons were taken up by the Democratic and Republican county organizations, respectively. The addresses on these occasions were, of course, of political nature, and were mentioned in last week's issue.

The County Grange and the committee acting for that body, of which Hon. L. Rhone is chairman, are entirely satisfied with the encampment and exhibition. The settlers, those having amusements and the boarding house keepers had a good harvest and a good profit.

Ex-Senator William C. Heinle, who had been given the endorsement of Clinton county, withdrew as a candidate, and made the speech nominating Congressman Kerr.

It was stated by Mr. Heinle that, inasmuch as the Republicans had nominated Colonel E. A. Irvin, they had thrown down the gauntlet to make Clearfield county the fighting ground in the district, and such being the case, he felt that it was his duty to withdraw and allow the nomination to go to Mr. Kerr.

The Clinton county men expressed their willingness to nominate Mr. Kerr, if assured that he would accept, which assurance was given by the Clearfield county chairman, J. C. Bardey.
