In the prime of life, at the age of thirty-three years, the death of David Long occurred at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Long, near Madisonburg. The young man had been ill but a few days, his sickness being pneumonia. Interment was made Monday, in the Union cemetery, at Farmers Mills, Rev. Wetzel, of Rebersburg, officiating.

SAMUEL LEWIN.

He was married to Miss Helen Oberndorf, of Baltimore, Md., who survives him with two children, Louis and Miriam.

JOSEPH S. SMITH.

Joseph S. Smith, a well known citizen and justice of the peace, at Snow Shoe, died as a result of a paralytic stroke.

The deceased was fifty-seven years of age and was born at Howard. All his life he followed the trade of a shoemaker. He was a member of Co. F, 200th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers during the civil war and was wounded at Fort Stetman, near Petersburg.

The Watsonstown fire delayed the west bound train on the L & T. Saturday evening for several hours. The fire company had hose lying across the railroad track and could not remove them until the flames were subdued.

Mrs. Henry Hettinger, together with her son Paul and daughter Martha, of Altoona, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fye, in this place. They accompanied Mrs. Mary Breon, of Spring Mills, who had been in Altoona for some time, to this place.

Linn McGinley, a lad of seven years of age, while attempting to jump on the rear of an ice wagon in Bellefonte, fell between the wheel and the wagon box, sustaining a severe fracture of the hip bone. To release the boy it was necessary to remove the wagon wheel.

Mrs. M. M. Stuart, of Rossiter, Indiana county, spent Thursday and Friday of last week at the home of Mrs. N. F. Snyder. Mrs. Stuart has been staying at the home of J. H. Snyder since the beginning of August, and will remain until about the middle of this month.

CORNER STONE LAYING.

Of the Penns Creek Lutheran Church, Sunday 10 A. M.

The corner stone of the new Penns Creek Lutheran church, at Penn Hall, will be laid with appropriate services Sunday morning, ten o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. F. P. Bergstresser, of Tyrone, and the ceremony incident to the laying of the corner stone will be performed by Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder, the pastor of the Aaronsburg charge, of which the Penns Creek congregation is a part.

A special invitation is extended to the neighboring pastors to be present as well as all others—ministers and laymen.

The Penns Creek Lutheran congregation was organized in 1802. In 1810 or 1811 the congregation joined with the Reformed congregation of the same place and purchased the church property, located near the site of the residence of D. J. Muser. The congregation conducted their worship at that place until 1890 when a new brick Lutheran church was built immediately east of Penn Hall.

This latter structure served the congregation until some months ago when it was decided to build a modern brick edifice to the village of Penn Hall, about three-fourths of a mile west of the former church site. It is proposed to use some of the old material in the new church.

An outline of the ground floor of the proposed new structure is presented:

Smith, the Photographer.

Dillen & Green Case.
The argument for a new trial for the convicted murderers, Dillen and Green, has been postponed until Tuesday, October 18, 10 a. m.

200 Bushels of Peaches Frozen.
G. W. Kister, of Millheim, was a heavy loser on account of the heavy frost about ten days ago, at which time about two hundred bushels of peaches froze in his orchard.

Apples Two to Three Cents per Bushel.
To illustrate the cheapness of apples, a local paper in the fruit belt in New York, states that an orchard estimated to yield twenty-five hundred bushels of apples, was sold for fifty dollars, or at the rate of two cents a bushel. The purchaser, of course, to harvest the crop. Another orchard of seven thousand bushels was sold for two hundred and fifty dollars, or a little over three and one-half cents per bushel. Such prices would make Penna Valley farmers wince.

Millinery Opening.
Mrs. M. C. Ishler, of Tusseyville, has received her Fall and Winter millinery goods. The latest styles in hats and bonnets, also the latest novelties in trimming. Her opening will be Saturday, October 8th. Ladies are invited to call and see the new styles.

Kerr Declines.
A cablegram was received Saturday from ex-Congressman James Kerr, who at present is in London, declining the Democratic nomination for State Senator in the Clearfield-Centre-Clinton district. Mr. Kerr's reason is his absence in England until election time. Mr. Kerr's name will likely remain on the ticket regardless of his recent cabled declination.

Weber-Davis.
Samuel E. Weber and Miss L. Gertrude Davis were quietly married Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. Lewis Robb, pastor Trinity Reformed church. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. George Miller, 1823 Eleventh avenue. They immediately left for Centre Hall. They will make their home in this city. Mr. Weber is a graduate of State College, and is at present a special apprentice in the railroad shops. The bride's former home was in Bedford county. They are most excellent young people and their friends all wish them a bon voyage through life.

The above is from the Altoona Tribune, and is very true. The young couple arrived at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weber, Saturday evening, and looked so pleased that it aroused the suspicion of the writer, who pried into the matter farther to discover that the knot had been tied. The Reporter extends congratulations.

Coldran-Keretter.

Married, Thursday evening, September 29th, at the manse, Centre Hall, by Rev. W. H. Schuyler, James Coldran and Miss Mabel E. Keretter, both of Pleasant Gap. The young couple were attended by their friends, Messrs. William Taylor, of Bellefonte, and Ralph Noll, of Pleasant Gap.

Fell From Window.

Samuel Noll, aged seven years, son of Abner Noll, of Pleasant Gap, had the misfortune to fall from the second story window of his home, with serious results—a complete fracture of the ulna, a green-stick fracture of the radius and a dislocation of the wrist. Dr. J. R. G. Allison, of this place, the family physician, reports the lad as getting along quite well.

Repainting Reformed Church.

The exterior of the Reformed church, in Centre Hall, is being repainted. The work is being done by Witmer Lee.

Druggist Krumrine, of Bellefonte, called on the trustees Monday in the interests of the Krumrine Brothers, who install modern heating plants, with a view of making a sale. The church officials, however, have not come to a conclusion in this particular matter.

Surprise Party.

Last Monday evening a happy surprise was given Mrs. Mary Ishler of Tusseyville, by her friends and neighbors of that place, it being in honor of her fifty-fourth birthday.

After spending some time in social chat the refreshments, which consisted of ice cream and cake, were brought forth and served, and greatly enjoyed by all present.

She was the recipient of many useful gifts, for which she heartily thanks the donors.

Mr. Murray Guarantees Every Bottle of Vintena, and Will Pay Back Your Money if You Are Not Satisfied.

Vintena, a specific for Blood Diseases, Scrofula, Chronic Catarrh, Pimples and all forms of Skin Diseases. The fact on purity and vitality of the blood depends the vigor and health of various kinds are generally a sure sign that Nature is trying to remove the cause, leads to the conclusion that a remedy which gives life and vigor to the blood and removes all impurities, as Vintena undoubtedly does, must cure and prevent many diseases. Vintena is a purely scientific preparation, carefully prepared from the most powerful, yet harmless alteratives and blood-purifying agents. For Blood-Cleansing, Fish and Appetite Producing. Vintena has no equal.

Remember it costs nothing if it fails. Mr. J. D. Murray pays back your money.

The fellow who takes what doesn't belong to him also takes a chance.

ROAD LEGISLATION NEEDED.

Courts Take a Hand in Obliging Rural Districts to Build Better Roads.

It is apparent that new road legislation is needed. Within the past few months various county courts have called constables to account for not reporting the miserable condition of the roads in their bailiwicks. The present condition of the average country road is not what it should be. No one will dispute this, but there are two sides to the question. The building of good, permanent roads will entail vast expenditure of money, and under the present road laws the burden rests on real estate, which already bears an unjust share of taxation.

At the opening of the Blair county Quarter Sessions Court, Judge Martin Bell read and commended from the bench an editorial that recently appeared in the Philadelphia Press, under the caption "The Courts and County Roads." The Press is the champion of the Sproul road law, which, although the state pays two-thirds of the cost of road building under its provisions, if generally applied, would bankrupt every township in Centre county.

Judge Bell admonished the forty-one constables of the county, that it is their duty to report to the courts all bad roads in their respective bailiwicks, and that hereafter they will be held to strict accountability should they neglect this duty.

Judge Bell said that for forty years the public roads have been growing worse instead of better, and that the fault is with the township supervisors, to whom the care of the roads is entrusted.

The cost of building and maintaining such roads as are demanded today is beyond the financial reach of any rural district, without state or national aid. The Sproul road law, which is the result of the first attempt to give state aid for road building, is abortive in rural districts—its millions can only be participated in by the wealthy townships of the first class. The rural districts can have no part in this appropriation of $3,500,000, except to see it disappear in salaries and the building of automobile courses on the outskirts of the large cities, for which evidently the money was intended.

New sensible road legislation is needed that will financially aid rural districts in building and maintaining roads, and until such legislation is passed the court should stay its hand.

George Mowery, of Burnham, drove through Centre Hall Wednesday on his way to the Centre county fair. He will take back with him his daughter, Miss Anna, who has been in Bellefonte for a short time.

The advertisement of Reick Brothers, furniture dealers and undertakers, appears in another column. They have engaged space for a year, and they will endeavor to keep the housekeepers posted on the new wrinkles in house furnishings.

Miss Bertha Wolf, who for the past two months has been at the Inside Inn, World's Fair, sends word to her friends among the Reporter readers, that she is enjoying the Fair hugely, and expects to remain until the close of the season. Before returning home she will spend some time in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Clapper, of Altoona, are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Royer, having arrived Saturday. Mr. Clapper is making his first visit to Spring Mills since meeting with an accident on the railroad which resulted in the amputation of his right leg above the knee. Mrs. Clapper's maiden name was Harshbarger, and her visits to that place have been more frequent.

The sweet girl graduate now burst upon our view.
