Re-modeling Flouring Mill.

The Red Mill flouring mill owned by George Harter and son is being extensively remodeled. The latest milling machinery is being installed and the capacity increased.

Hunting Season Opens.

The hunting season for squirrels and wild turkeys opens Saturday, 15th. Many of the enclosed woods are not open to hunters, consequently the richest fields for game are along the base of the mountains.

Dauberman's Cattle Sale.

Saturday is the day set for the sale of choice Shorthorn cattle, at Old Fort hotel, by John G. Dauberman, Esq. These cattle were all raised on the Dauberman farm and are a choice lot. For detailed description see sale register at head of local column.

Presiding Elder's Daughter Married.

Miss Grace Brown Bell, daughter of Presiding Elder and Mrs. J. Ellis Bell, was united in marriage with William Murdock Kiser, of Pittsburg, at the home of the bride's parents in Altoona, Wednesday evening of last week, at eight o'clock. It was a pink and white wedding and was a very neatly arranged and pretty affair. The father of the bride performed the ceremony.

Dynamite in Buckwheat sheaf.

A three-pound stick of dynamite was discovered in a sheaf of buckwheat on the farm of Milton Paust, in Penn township, Lycoming county. It is supposed the explosive was placed there by an evil disposed person whose intention was to blow up the threshing machine when the crop was threshed. The fiendish attempt at wholesale murder was providentially frustrated.

County Superintendent Candidates.

Mifflin county is well supplied with candidates for county superintendent of public schools. Prof. S. L. Hana-walt is in the field for re-election, and among the other teachers who are reported are T. W. Lauer, of Milroy; M. C. Swigart, of Oliver; James F. Willis, of Union; J. A. Rouk, of Wayne; G. T. Cooper, of Lewistown; C. W. Oldt and H. W. Firth, of D-estar.

Want Midget for Exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lapointe, the parents of Williamsport's famous midget, have already received several offers from museum people to secure the baby for exhibition purposes, all of which have been promptly refused. The child is eight weeks old and weighs two and one-half pounds. The little pink doll boots she wears reach to her knees. The house is thronged with curious spectators, and the object of their curiosity is enjoying perfect health.

One-Way Rates to the West.

From September 14 to October 14, inclusive, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell one-way Colonist tickets from all points in its territory to Western and Southwestern points at greatly reduced rates, thus affording a specially attractive opportunity to visit the growing and rapidly developing crop-producing sections of the great Western Empire. Detailed information as to rates and times of trains can be had of all Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agents.

BEARS IN CLINTON.

Five of Bruin's Tribe Slain Within a Week in Sugar Valley.

Bear promises to be unusually plentiful in Clinton county this year as in the past week no less than five big black fellows have been run down and slaughtered on the mountains in Sugar Valley.

Leading the bear hunters this season is John Ruhl. He killed the first two bears below Tylerville. A. D. Kleckner shot a big fellow near his lumber camp, north of Loganton. Samuel Matter and John Cooper are credited with having trapped a 150-pounder in Spruce Hollow. Newton Shook and John Feidler killed their game with clubs and stones along Cherry run after a long and fierce battle.

Rev. Potts Injured.

Rev. Potts, formerly of Centre Hall, was injured by falling from an apple tree recently. The Huntingdon News of October 6th gives the following particulars. Wednesday afternoon, Dr. A. D. Potts pastor of the Lutheran church, Petersburg, while picking apples at William Walters' two miles north of Waterstreet, fell from a ladder, striking the ground on his back and was rendered unconscious for three hours. His wife was summoned and also Dr. Grove, of Alexandria. When the physician at last resuscitated him, the patient complained of pain in the rear part of his head and in the small of the back. There seems to be scarcely any external injury and it is believed that Rev. Potts had a slight paralytic stroke and his helplessness while in that state caused the fall. Dr. Grove believes that the trouble is not serious and this, at least, will be comforting news to the many ardent friends of the talented minister.

LOCALS.

John H. Garver, west of Centre Hall, was one of the Reporter's callers on Tuesday.

Thomas Peth, of near New Castle, died Sunday at the age of one hundred and two years.

Samuel Goodhart, in adjusting the chain on his bicycle, tore the nail and end of the index fluger off.

Mrs. Wm. Smith and daughter Margaret, of Tyrone, were guests of Mrs. J. A. Reesman, sister of the former.

Mrs. J. J. Arney, last week, spent several days in Boalsburg, visiting Mrs. Homer Barr and other friends.

Rev. A. T. Elliott will give a stereopticon entertainment in the Spruce-town Methodist church, Saturday night.

Seventy-five farmers in the vicinity, of Pottsville have formed an association to prosecute all hunters who trespass on their lands.

W. Frank Shutt, the Hoffer Street blacksmith, has erected an extensive poultry house and next summer will devote considerable attention to raising chickens.

Mrs. John Williams and son Fred, of near Centre Hall, Monday returned from Woodward, where they had been visiting Mrs. Wolfe, who is the former's sister.

"The Reporter is welcomed every week," writes Catharine Oberholtzer, of Killinger, Dauphin county. And to prove that she meant the words, a crisp bank note was enclosed with the message to prepay the Reporter for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Knorr and Mrs. Sarah Knorr, of Wernersville, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett, in this place. Mr. Knorr is a brother of Mrs. Huyett and is a coal dealer. Mrs. Sarah Knorr will stay with her daughter, Mrs. Huyett, for some time.

James A. Keller was a caller the other day to express his delight over having visited the World's Fair. Mr. Keller is a stockman, and devoted much of his time looking over the fine cattle, sheep and hogs. He "blue ribboned" a number of sheep and was pleased to note that the judges and he agreed. In some of the other departments he was also successful, but in a less degree, in spotting the choice of the herd and flock. The Fair, as a whole, in Mr. Keller's opinion, is grand, magnificent.

Change in Hour of Service.

The time for holding service in the Presbyterian church, Centre Hall, next Sabbath, has been changed from 7:00 p. m. to 2:30 p. m. Sabbath school 1:30 p. m.

For Each Town to Say.

A local option bill, sweeping in its nature, will be introduced in the next legislature. The intention of the bill is to afford voters of any city, town or borough the opportunity to decide by vote every two years, if they so desire, whether or not license to sell liquor shall be granted. Such a measure is now in force in Ohio.
