YOUNG GUNNER'S HEAD BLOWN OFF.

A Union County Youth Meets With a Horrible Death While Hunting for Rabbits.

Owen Crisswell, a 16-year old son of J. Calvin Crisswell, who lives near the White Deer Churches, in Union county, met with a horrible death, while hunting for rabbits near his home Wednesday afternoon, of last week. He was one of a gunning party, who separated about noon, most of them going home for dinner. After dinner J. H. Crisswell, of White Deer, and his father, T. C. Crisswell, of Kelley X Roads, who are relatives of the dead boy, resumed their hunt. They had not proceeded very far until they scented an odor of burning cloth and upon investigation they found the body of young Crisswell lying near a wire fence with the back of his head blown off and his clothing on fire. His body was still warm and it is likely that the accident had not occurred more than fifteen or twenty minutes before the ghastly discovery was made. His gun was on the opposite side of the wire fence, where there was a small brush pile, from which a rabbit had been chased earlier in the day. It is supposed that young Crisswell was leaning over the fence and was poking the brush with the butt of his gun, when it was discharged. His right ear and the back part of his head were blown off. His clothing was burned to a crisp.

Lungs weak as a result of lingering coughs; nerves exhausted fighting the severe colds of winter; energy gone. For these conditions physicians prescribe Vintena. Why not test it on our guarantee? Here is our Challenge.

Buy a bottle of Vintena, take as directed, and if, after a few days, you do not feel greatly benefited; if you do not feel that it has strengthened your nerves, produced restful sleep, improved your digestion, and in fact made you feel that life's worth living, your money will be promptly refunded.

Mr. Murray gives his guarantee with every bottle.
