

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1904.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Lutheran—Spring Mills, morning; Tusseyville afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.

SALE REGISTER.

Wednesday, November 23, 10 a. m., Annie and Lizzie Bible, 1/2 mile east of Centre Hall, on Brush Valley road, two work horses, four cows, four head young cattle, seventeen hogs, farm implements, etc.

L. E. Rossmann Buys Farm.

L. E. Rossmann, of near Penns Cave, recently purchased the Keen farm, near Millheim, from Alfred, Lizzie and Ida Keen. The price paid was $3250.

Death of John W. Speddy.

John W. Speddy, editor of the Port Royal Times, died suddenly in his office Wednesday morning of last week. He was aged about sixty years and is survived by his wife.

Dr. Beck Drops Dead.

Dr. George A. Beck, the well-known Flemington physician, dropped dead Monday afternoon, while in the post-office at Flemington. Friends carried his body from the office to his own home.

Hunter Shoots Boy in Hip.

Harry, the six year old son of Aaron Singley of High Bridge, near Lewis-town, was shot through the hip with a thirty-eight calibre revolver by one of a party of huntsmen who in cleaning a revolver snapped the hammer and the cartridge exploded. The ball struck the little fellow in the hip and passed clear through the fleshy portion.

Ex-Landlord Brown Buys Farm.

The Milroy correspondent to the Lewistown Gazette writes thus:

S. S. Brown has purchased what is known as the Lehr farm, on the pike near Milroy, from his brother Albert. We feel sure our jovial ex-landlord will make a success as a farmer and will not be one of those with a crownless straw sombrero driving a team of scare crows with some of his wife's clothes line, but will run an up-to-date model farm. Here's hoping "Stackey" will always have lots of "praties" in his patch.

For the Benefit of Hospital.

At the Union Thanksgiving service to be held in the Lutheran church, Centre Hall, Thursday morning, November 24th, an offering will be taken for the benefit of the Bellefonte Hospital. The custom in vogue in many churches of remembering on Thanksgiving Day the charitable work being done in some hospital is most appropriate and commendable. During its brief existence the hospital at Bellefonte has done an excellent work in relieving human suffering; but it is hindered by want of means. A large offering will be most timely and acceptable.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Winter Excursion Route Book.

In pursuance of its annual custom, the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has just issued an attractive and comprehensive book descriptive of the leading Winter resorts of the East and South, and giving the rates and various routes and combinations of routes of travel. Like all the publications of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, this "Winter Excursion Book" is a model of typographical and pictorial work. It is bound in a handsome and artistic cover in colors, and contains much valuable information for Winter tourists and travelers in general. It can be had free of charge at the principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, or will be sent postpaid upon application to Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

Swabb-Bitner.

Last Thursday the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bitner, near Penn Hall, was the scene of a very important affair. In the presence of about thirty invited guests, their daughter, Miss Jennie, became the wife of Paul Swabb, of Aaronsburg. The house was tastefully decorated with evergreens, potted plants and chrysanthemums.

As the clock pointed to the hour of twelve, the bridal party descended the stairway and took their places in the parlor. Here the ceremony was performed by Rev. Fetterolf, uncle of the bride, assisted by Dr. D. M. Wolfe.

The bride, who was attired in white silk muslin and carried a large bunch of white chrysanthemums, was attended by Miss Ruth Swabb, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid. The latter wore a white silk gown and carried a cluster of large pink chrysanthemums. Jacob Bitner, brother of the bride, acted as groomsmen, and Miss Dora Meyer, of Bellefonte, very ably rendered the wedding march.

A sumptuous wedding dinner was served, after which the couple departed for a few weeks' visit in Johnstown. They were the recipients of numerous, handsome gifts.

POSTAL SERVICE RUN AT LOSS.

Auditor of the Department suggests Salary for Fourth-class Postmasters to Prevent Fraud.

The annual report of the Auditor for the Postoffice Department shows that the fiscal business transacted through the postal and money order branches of the department during the last year were:

Revenues of the postal service $143,582,624; expenditures, $152,362,116. Total amount of money orders issued: Domestic, $383,452,373; foreign, $37,876,265. Total amount of money orders paid: Domestic, $385,100,020; foreign, $6,714,846.

The deficit in the postal revenues, therefore, was $8,579,490.

Among the items of expenditure during the year were the following:

Wagon service, $1,070,674; inland mail transportation, railroad, $38,595,427; railway postoffice car service, $5,261,948; railway mail service, $12,106,130; transportation of foreign mails, $2,574,540.

The Auditor further suggests that a salary be paid the fourth class postmasters in order to prevent the frequent frauds committed on the government. The auditor's idea is to pay a salary based on the sales of stamps, without reference to cancellations. The adoption of the plan here suggested would destroy the motive for fraudulent cancellations, as no report of cancellations would be required.

It is humiliating to think that the fourth class postmasters are such a set of frauds that it is necessary to change the base on which compensation is allowed.

Sewing Done.

Mary Fetterolf, of Centre Hall, announces that she is prepared to do all kinds of sewing—neatly and promptly, by day, week or piece.

Lady Broke Her Leg.

Aunt Mae Fortney while visiting at the home of Samuel Slack, near Potters Mills, Wednesday morning, slipped on an icy plank causing her to fall and break her leg near the hip.

Pie Causes Murder.

James Frain, twenty-seven years old, a laborer of Lewistown, was shot in Abler's hotel, St. Louis, Mo. Neal Martin, thirty-five years old, night bartender, has been arrested. The shooting was due to quarrel over a pie.

J. B. Royer Purchased Home.

J. B. Royer, who last week made sale of his farm stock and implements, at his present residence on the D. L. Kerr farm, southwest of Centre Hill, purchased the W. W. Royer farm, at Centre Hill, from Mrs. Sarah Royer. The property consists of a house, stable and several acres of land.

Sold 25 Acres of Land.

B. H. Arney sold twenty-five acres of land from his farm to George Durst. The field lies north of Keller's road, and near Mr. Durst's home. The price paid was fifty-five dollars per acre. Mr. Durst has his eye on several other tracts of land near by, but thinks the price asked entirely too high for a good investment.

Rebersburg.

Jared Kreamer is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Abbie Gilbert is on the sick list at this writing.

Ammon Walker returned to his home in this place last week.

William Mingle, of Aaronsburg, was seen in town last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wantz, of Aaronsburg, spent a day last week in town.

John Breen, the Millheim fire insurance agent, was in town last Tuesday.

The schools are closed this week as the teachers are attending institute in Bellefonte.

Miss Rebecca Moyer, of Bellefonte is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Chesta Stover.

Mrs. Amos Frank with her son and daughter spent Saturday with her son Ed. at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shaffer, who spent several weeks visiting in Philadelphia, returned home last week.

Rev. Wantz, presiding elder of the Evangelical association, preached a very able sermon Sunday morning.

Last Tuesday evening the Livonia band came to this place and treated the people to some of the choicest music which was very much appreciated.

Many of the farmers as well as town people are hurrying their butchering as much as possible owing to the hog cholera which is epidemic in this vicinity.

Friday of last week an exciting run off occurred and terminated with little injury. The team of Wm. Hubler, of Rockville, was left standing untied in front of J. W. Harter's store, and shortly afterward a little son of Mr. Hubler's climbed on the wagon when the horses started to run at a high speed. The little fellow remained on the wagon, while the horses dashed onward for a half mile, and then jumped to the ground without injury. The team was caught shortly afterward, and little harm had been done.

It's an unwise spoon that stirs up trouble.

Potters Mills is to have its postoffice re-established—sure thing.
