The Faith Cure a Hoax.

The faith cure as far as concerns Miss Minnie Kline, of Altoona, has proven to be a hoax. Beginning of October the Altoona papers published a lengthy account of the complete cure of spine curvature, from which affliction Miss Kline suffered since her childhood. It is now stated that the lady is confined to her bed, and that the restoration ascribed to faith was never experienced. Miss Kline is a daughter of J. A. Kline, of Oak Hall.

Painters Meet With Accident.

Messrs J. P. and Fred Weber, of Boalsburg, while returning from State College, where they had been painting, were thrown from an open buggy and received severe injuries. The latter was the most unfortunate, having been thrown on his face, and struck the ground with such force that the plate of his false teeth broke and cut both his upper and lower lip through and through. In dressing the wound it was necessary for the surgeon, Dr. Kidder, to stitch the wound both on the outside and inside.

The other Mr. Weber was badly shaken up, but feels no ill effects at this time. The accident was caused by the horse shying.

DEATHS.

REUBEN M. MAGEE.

Reuben M. Magee, a well-known member of the Philadelphia bar, died suddenly Tuesday at his home 3619 Powelton Avenue, aged sixty-five years. Death was due to a stroke of apoplexy.

Mr. Magee had been a resident of Philadelphia for fifteen years. He formerly lived in Bellefonte and was at different times District Attorney and superintendent of schools of Centre county. In politics he was a staunch Democrat, and was vice-president of the Tariff Reform Association in Philadelphia. At the time of his death Mr. Magee was manager of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, a member of the Underwriters' Society, vice-president of the Centre county Association, and he was for many years an Odd Fellow.

His widow and three sons, William A., Forrest N. and Boyd H., all of Philadelphia, survive him.

He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Jane Harper, Centre Hall, and Mrs. Sarah Bierly, Bradner, Ohio. One brother, William Magee, died when a young man. The deceased was a native of Miles township, where he lived when holding the office of county superintendent.

Funeral services will be held at his late home on Friday evening. The funeral party will proceed to Bellefonte, where interment will be made Saturday, services in the Reformed church 11 o'clock a. m.

MRS. HENRY ROYER.

After an illness covering a period of several months, Mrs. Henry Royer departed this life Thursday of last week, at her home east of Centre Hill. Interment was made Sunday forenoon in Heckman's cemetery, near Penn Hall, Rev. J. M. Reardon and Dr. D. M. Wolf officiating.

Mrs. Royer is survived by her husband and three children, two sons and one daughter, namely: Harvey E. Royer, Colby, Ohio; John F. Royer, of near Madisonburg, and Miss Edith, at home.

The deceased's maiden name was Amelia Heckman. She was the sister of ex-Commissioner Daniel Heckman, of Bellefonte; John F. Heckman, Spring Mills, and Mrs. Henry Mark, of near Penn Hall; Elias Heckman, Orangeville, Ill.

Mrs. Royer's age was sixty-eight years and seven months. The direct cause of her death was diabetes.

MRS. J. FRANK BIBLE.

Although the death of Mrs. J. Frank Bible, of Centre Hill, was not unexpected, the news cast a gloom over the entire community. She was a young woman, well thought of by all her neighbors and acquaintances, and was a devoted wife and mother of a child aged about two years.

Mrs. Bible was stricken with consumption and was ill ever since early in the fall. Death came Sunday night. Interment was made in the Spruce town cemetery Wednesday morning, Rev. G. W. McInney, of the Methodist church, officiating.

Tuesday. She was the daughter of Jesse Mauck, deceased, and was raised in Millheim, where for a time she was engaged in the millinery business. The husband and two children survive.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and one dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.
