THE CENTRE REPORTER.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1904.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS. Evangelical-Tusseyville, morning; Egg Hill, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening. Lutheran-Centre Hall, morning ; Union, after-noon ; Georges Valley, evening. Reformed-Tusseyville, morning ; Centre Hall, Presbyterian-Centre Hall, morning and evening. [Appointments not given here have not been reported to this office.]

SALE REGISTER.

Wm. Scholl, March 15, Centre Hall. Saturday, December 17, 2 p. m., at Colyer, hree tracts of land.—Mary A. Colyer, Calvin S Bottorf.

Horses for Brooklyn, day morning. The animals were purchased by Wm. E. Opping, assisted by was $141.35.

Refused to Grant Road.

Messrs, Isaac Smith, Gates Kennelly and Hall A. Herring, the latter a civil engineer, appointed to view a The view was held Monday of last wise decision. week.

Could Not Escape Law's Clutches.

Thomas Miller, late postmaster at Hawk Run, Clearfield county, has been arrested in Kansas. Miller was a fugitive, having been indicted at the May term of the United States district court at Pittsburg for embezzlement of $354 31 money order funds. He aban-1903, and was enabled to keep his whereabouts a secret for some time. When arrested he was employed as a aside party prejudice. coal miner.

Fierida Personally Conducted Tour. Tuesday, February 14, 1905, special train with Pullman sleeping cars and through dining car will run from New York to Jacksonville via Seaboard Air Line Railway under the auspices of the Pennsylvania Railroad, whose representative will have charge of the train.

Low rate excursion ticket including Pullman berths and meals en route. If interested, write for full information. J. J. Puller, district passenger agent, 1411 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Says Doctor Stole Wife's Love.

in the Prothonotary's office, in York, by Wm. H. Runkle against Dr. Z. C.

Dr Should-The Reason Why They Will Do So There will be many thanks given over the turkey today (Thursday.) Half the people will give thanks be-about them. The average successful Republican candidate will give thanks for election over Roosevelt's shoulder.

THEY WILL GIVE THANKS

cause the other half don't know all

Every citizen of this great government ought to give thanks that the States are at peace with the world.

The Reporter will give thanks because its subscription list has increased four years.

A car load of heavy draft horses were give thanks because his sixty-six ma- dramatic production known to the Commissioner P. H. Meyer and Hon. J. W. Kepler, although defeat-D. J. Meyer. The average price paid ed at the recent election, will give hanks because of the consciousness of having served the people of Centre county with the greatest fidelity.

Judge Love should give thanks because he will be able to amass a fortune new road at Earlystown, refused to on the bench. He will also thank the ic story, its fine climaxes, its ornate grant the prayers of the petitioners. people for aiding him in making this and gorgeous scenes, pageants and tab-and gorgeous scenes, pageants and tabpeople for aiding him in making this wise decision.

R. P. Baldwin may be thankful that there is such a similarity between wild turkeys and the kind of turkeys raised by Mrs. Frank Moyer, west of towo, that the average sportsman can't detect the difference—after they are in a game bag.
Thanks will go up alike from the people of Centre county and their newand gorgeous scenes, pageants and taba aud gorgeous scenes, pageants and taba aud gorgeous scenes, pageants and tabb aux, its beautiful dances and its general magnificence is also a powerful attraction for the habitue of the theatre. It draws everybody to the playhouse. It is praised by ministers of all denominations and has been made the theme of pulpit discourses. This from its chure's aspect. Theat rically too, it is one of the most gena fint and gorgeous scenes, pageants and tabb aux, its beautiful dances and its general magnificence is also a powerful attraction for the habitue of the presented to the Orphans' Court of Centre count of Mary J. Goodhart administration wednesday, the 30th day of November, A. D. 1901.
The final account of Mary J. Goodhart administration of the most generated to the orphans' court of Palipsburg borough, deceased.
Fins from its chure's aspect. Theat rically too, it is one of the most generate a spect of state of Jane F. Mann, dec'd, as field by forence F. Dale, executive of John M. Dale, the specified of the most generate and the specified of the most generate a spect of the most generated to the orphans' deceased. that the average sportsman can't de- made the theme of pulpit discourses tect the difference-after they are in a game bag. people of Centre county and their new- uine and convincing successes the ly elected President Judge Ellis L. doned his office on December 29th, Orvis because the judiciary of Centre county has been elevated, and that it creeds to the theatre it exacts much was accomplished by the voters laying the same influence as "Ben Hur."

Pennsylvania State College can well over two hundred people in this won- " afford to give thanks that she has a president with diplomatic espacity so that the institution's needs are brought in their best light before the most liberal minded millionaires and the vetoing power of the Commonwealth

Presiding Elder Bell Honored.

At a meeting of the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church in Boston, Mass., Nov. 11th, Rev. J. Ellis Bell, presiding elder of the Altoons district, was appointed on the board of the Epworth Lesgue to represent the Fourth General Conference district, composed of Baltimore, Central Pennsylvanis, Norway, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Wilmington conferences A suit for $7000 damages was entered This appointment stands for four years. The board meets annually.

A STUPENDOUS PRODUCTION.

"The Shepherd King," Chestnut Street Opera House, Philadelphia, November 28

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mil's Arney and One of the most remarkable dramatic baby Arney, of Bellefonte, were guests productions of the age will be presentof Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Arney over ed at the Chestnut Street Opera House, Sunday. Philadelphia, beginning Monday 28th inst., in "The Shepherd King," the Mrs. Harper, mother of Mrs. George Emerick, with whom she makes her profoundly impressive and sumptuously produced Biblical play based on the home, is recovering from a recent sestory of the life of David from shepvere illuess. herd boy to King of Israel. Wright for November.

Union Thanksgiving services will be Lorimer who has risen quickly to held in the Reformed church, Boalsgenuine fame as an actor of the first burg, in the morning. Sermon by J. quality by his graceful, forceful and I. Stonecypher. highly artistic portrayal of the char-

LODALS

Eggs are unusually high in price

Harry Taylor, of Baltimore, and acter of David, and as a skilled and fifty-five per cent during the past liberal producer in the magnificence of Miss Elizabeth Taylor, of Beliefonte, the scenic and costume equipment for drove to Centre Hall Sunday and were Assemblyman-elect John Noll will this great play, making it the largest entertained by the Misses Brungart.

shipped to the Brooklyn market Fri- jority will count just as much for him stage of this country. Mr. Lorimer wife, of Bellefonte, were in town Satas will Roosevelt's million and a half first presented "The Shepherd King" urday. Report has it that he is, diczat the Knickerbocker Theatre, Newsering for some real estate in Centre York, last spring, receiving high com- Hall.

> William Scholl, next spring, will move from the Harper farm to the home recently occupied by John Rossman, on the Rossman farm, below

4 The first and final account of John A. part, deceased 4 The first and final account of D. L. Zerby, administrator d. b. n. c. t. a. of the estate of Michael Fiedler, of Miles township, deceased. 5 The account.of William H. Pifer, adminis-trator of &c. of Sarah Pifer, late of Bellefonte bor-ourch deceased stage has known in years. In its power to bring all classes, sects and creeds to the theatre it exacts much the same influence as "Ben Hur." There are twenty-five characters and over two hundred people in this won-derful drama. The engagement at the Cheatnut Street Opera House will be for a 1- w weeks only.

. ", deceased. 5 The first and final account of Lydia Zeigler, admi. stratrix of &c, of Henry Zeigler, late of Gregg t. "ship, deceased. 19 Thit. "artial account of William Tressler, executor of , "omas Meyer, late of Benner town-

&c, of Henry Stevens, late of Half Moon town ship, deceased. 17 The first and final account of D. F. Fiedler, administrator of &c, of Mary Fiedler, late of Miles township, deceased. 18 First and final account of D. L. Meck, ad-

SUITS AND OVERCOATS

. For Men and Young Men

We take great pleasure in announcing to the men and young men of Bellefonte and vicinity that we are EXCLUSIVE SELLERS IN THIS COUNTY of the famous custom-made, ready-to-wear Suits and Overcoats that bear the name of

B. Kuppenheimer & Co. Of Chicago, America's Leading Clothes Makers.

The name of Kuppenheimer stands pre-eminent throughout America as the guarantee of absolutely the best ready-to-wear clothing that can be pro-duced. B. Kuppenheimer & Co. have but one purpose—to provide well dressed men with ready-to-wear clothing that will stand the closest comparison with the highest priced garments - the most exclusive workmanship of the best merchant tailors in the world. Kuppenheimer woolens are chos-en by an expert; their journeymen tailoring force is conducted by a mast-er mind, while their fashioners and designers each season send out these styles, which are at once accepted in the masculine world as correct - as authoritative. No garment leaves their workroom that is not exquisitely finished in every detail, bearing the unmistakable marks of skillful hand-work. Notwithstanding the superiority of this famous clothing, we offer the various lines of Suits and Overcoats at our usual modest prices.

PRICES FROM $12 TO $30 FOR Kuppenheimer Suits and Overcoats MONTGOMERY & CO.

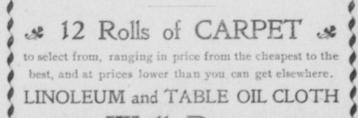

BELLEFONTE, PA.

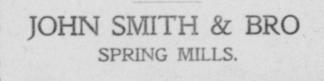

From October 1 to December 1.

Here we are again. From October 1 to December : with all kinds of . . .

Cook Stoves, Ranges and Oak Heaters

... Wall Paper ... Almost Giving It Away.

The feature of the December mart Set is undoubtedly the novel 'le, 'Clavering and His Daughter,' a story of Washington life, by a new author, Foxcroft Davis, whose mete-oric entrance ioto the field of action is likely to be the sensation of the season. Dan Patch Lowers the Record On the association track as Otla-base (ike Obl. Therein a divide the track as Otla-base (ike Obl. The track as Otla-the track as Oble. The track as Otla-the trac The feature of the December mari weeks only.

The December Smart Set.

homa City, Okla, Thursday of last week, Dan Patch lowered the world's rec rd for pacing ou a half-mile track, the official time bying 2:03 flat. The mendations from critics, pulpit and public. "The Shepherd King" is one of those rare plays that appeal strongly to the church going element by its high moral influence and Biblical Penns Cave. reference, and by its intensely dramat-

Myers, a well-known physician, in which the plaintiff charges the defendant with alienating the affections of his wife.

At the same time a suit for libel for damages to the extent of $7000 was brought by Ada Lauer against Ada V. Runkle.

No statements were made, but the summonses are returnable the first Monday in December.

Abuse of the Mail System.

The shameless abuse of the mails is a matter that deserves attention of the postoffice officials. For months the mails have been loaded down with matter sent out under congressional rank but which was in no wise entitled to the privilege. Tons of this matter have been carried over the pense to the postoffice department, because it provides absolutely no revecause it makes the general public bear literature. During the mail weighing seasons, when a basis for payment for tons of similar matter are hauled. It is a fraud that should be stopped, along with a number of others that are apparent in the postal department.

LOCALS.

tion, considering the very scant rain morning. Mr. and Mrs. Vonsda and and Mary, at Lemont. fall since seeding.

ter and brothers.

and Mrs. Thomas Murphy, of Belle- borrow money to pay railroad fare. He a dog with which she was playing.

Congressman Dresser has recommended the appointment of A. L. Bolger as postmaster at Philipsburg,

Interesting to Odd Fellows,

Grand Secretary Joseph H. Mackey has issued official notice of a contemplated tour of Grand Master Robert Graham, of Philadelphia, accompanied by other Grand Lodge officials, admitting past grands to membership, giv ing instructions in the unwritt-n ity among the rank and the file of the order. The Grandmaster will be in Bellefonte Tuesday evening, 29, and will stones. hold a meeting at that time.

Thanksgiving Supper.

The members of Progress Grange will hold their usual Thanksgiving supper, in Grange Arcadia, from 4:30 country free of charge to the commit- to 10 o'clock. The residents of Centre tees, but at immense cost to the gen- Hall and surrounding country ought eral government. It is a heavy ex. to, and no doubt will, show a due appreciation of this order by most liberally patronizing them in their effort to nue, and is an unfair advantage, be- liquidate the debt on Grange Arcadia. The hall is a credit to Centre Hall ; the expense of circulating campaign there is not its equal in the county, outside of Bellefonte and Philipsburg, and every one who possibly can owes transporting the mails is being secured, the Grange their support on this occasion.

Prospering in Kansas.

Lanson J. Burris, of near Centre Hall, accompanied by his brother-inlaw, Ambrose Vonada, of Sylvan two children came east last month to

Mrs. W. B. Mingle, Saturday, came visit among relatives and friends. Mr. day with John Diehl and family, leavhome from Philadelphia where for two Vonada went west from Haines town- ing Monday for a short visit with her or more weeks she visited her daugh- ship in 1880, and has met with remark- brother, Daniel Corman, at Rebersable financial success. When he left burg. Catharine, the little daughter of Mr. lower Penns Valley he was obliged to fonte, was badly bitten in the face by began farming near Sylvan Grove, Pittsburg, after which they will visit and today owns, free of debt, three hundred and sixty acres of splendid in the west. farm land, the improvements alone on which cost him $3000. His crops are wheat, corn, alfalfa. The crop of Bolger as postmaster at Phillipsburg The present incumbent is John Gow. Mrs. Wm. Scholl was a caller the other day to say that on March 15 Mr. Scholl will sell his farm stock and im-plements. He lives on the Harper farm, east of Centre Hall. The spirit of Christmas invades the editorial sanctum long before Decem-ber comes, and the Christmas maga-zines celebrate the holiday season with a specially liberal literary and artistic inters men color and tint. Among the Christmas maga-zines the Bookbovers will take a for-ment and artistic illustrations, many of them in color and tint. He will return west next west. He will return west next west.

previous record, held by Dau Patch himself, was made at Birmingham, November 2, 1904. Ala., last year, being 2:03].

Farmer Blown to Pieces by Dynamite. While drying several sticks of dy-namite at an open fire in order to blow out stumps, Adam Keil, a far-mer's beloer near White Deer, was work of the brotherhood, and thus mer's helper near White Deer, was Nov. 10, 1934. seeking to kindle a deeper and broad- blown to pieces by an explosion of one owner of the farm, who was some THE SHARPLESS TUBULAR CREAM SEPA er interest in the work of the fratern- of the sticks. John Zettlemoyer, the owner of the farm, who was some distance away, was severly hurt by being struck in the face by flying stones. Linden Hall. Calvin Stem is visiting friends in Calvin Stem is visiting friends in Milton this week.

Miss Grace Carper left for Bellefonte

Stone Valley.

Miss Ella, the charming daughter of Mrs. D. C. Hess left Friday for an extended visit with her grand-daughter, Mrs. George M. Hall, in Elkins, West Virginia.

George Baker, of Downs, Kansas, is greeting old neighbors and friends, The grain fields are in good condi- Grove, Kansas, were callers Monday and visiting his sisters, Mrs. Wieland to

Mrs. Rose Diehl, of Ohio, spent Sun-

St. Louis, and other cities of interest

The west-bound train Thursday afternoon was filled with prominent township, deceased A. G. ARCHEY, Register, Bellefonte, Pa

2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. EXECUTOR'S NOTICE -LETTERS TESTA . Thinking of Buying Shoes?

Centre Hall, Pa.

Here's Information for You. Yeager & Davis

Have the most complete family Shoe Store in Centre county where every member of the family can find Variety, Style, Fit, Finish, Comfort, Price and General Satisfaction. We do not claim all and the only good shoe made, but we do have the very best to be had in the different grades and our prices are the lowest.

For Women

DOROTHY DODD SHOES

JOHN H. CROSS

To prove the above we ask you to examine the list of the goods we have, or, better still, come in person and look over the shoes in stock. It will satisfy you that our claims are based on solid facts and that this is the place to buy footwear. We do business on the live and let live plan. Treat all alike, and have but one price.

Our Leading Lines Always In Stock

For Men . . .

STETSON

Spring Mills, Pa.

Miss Grace Carper left for Bellefonte where she will spend the winter. F.'E Wieland made a business trip to Lock Haven and Willismsport last week. Mrs. Coble and grand-daughter, Miss Clara Stambach, are visiting friends in Stone Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ross, spent last week as the guest of S. E. Goss, in Bellefonte.

one hundred and twenty-seven acres, seventeen acres being good imber. GOOD BULLD NGS AND WATER A new farm house was built on this place last summer; the barn is large a d iu good repair. There is running water at both house and barn. The farm is well located and is a desirable and pleasant place to itve. This farm will be sold very cheap, as the own-er has no desire to be burdened with the trouble of looking stiter the property. For further particulars write or apply in person to M. B. HERING, BUTING MULLS, Pa.

Spring Mills, Pa.

TARM FOR SALE .- The undersigned of day with John Diehl and family, leav-ing Monday for a short visit with her brother, Daniel Corman, at Rebers-burg. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lowdar left for a visit among friends and relatives in foung oreins... farm; hesithfui and desnu-farm; hesithfui and desnu-nurther particulars apply to R. D. FOREMAN, Centre Hall, Pa.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.—The executors of the estate of William Colyer, deceased, will sell at public sale, at Colyer, Pa., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17, 2 P. M.

BILT WELL YEAGER & DAVIS SPECIAL WALK OVER We have the well known Freed Brothers Working Shoes. We have a full line of Tan Shoes, high and low cuts, We can give you men's all leather shoes for dress or work for $1.00 We can give you women's all leather shoes, high or low cut, for $1.00

Why shuffle about in shoes too large Or limp in a pair too small,

When Yeager & Davis have sizes to fit you all. Style, Finish, Durability and Prices guaranteed to give satisfaction.

YEAGER & DAVIS BELLEFONTE, PA.

YEAGER & DAVIS & & & & & &

QUEER, isn't it that Furniture is selling so cheap at REARICK BROTHERS? The idea is right here -we want to keep our goods moving.

3 Large Orders For ROCKERS are on the road, and will be here soon. These Rock-ers range in price from $1.35 to $9.00. A nicer lot of Chairs has never been put on exhibition in town.

.. A Nice Lot of Parlor Stands..

A nice lot of quartered oak, polished, Parlor Stands will be on the floor soon for the Christmas season. Nice Tabourettes are here now at 65 cents.

NEW LOT of WALL PAPER FOR NEXT SEASON Twelve large sample books to select from. We defy a nicer line of paper to be shown in the Valley and doubt if there are many in the country. Give us your orders now and save money because we save the freight which is your gain.

CHURNS GIVEN AWAY-We have a few Holstein churns on hand. We do not intend carrying churns, and will give away a churn with a nice order of Furniture. We will exchange Furniture on Feed. Farmers take advantage of this.

