

HORSE KICKED MR. GRENOBLE

Causing Slight Fracture and Depression of the Skull.

John A. Grenoble, of near Spring Mills, is suffering from the kick of a horse, although his physician, Dr. H. S. Braucht, states that he is not seriously injured and that his complete recovery is reasonably assured.

The accident happened Thursday of last week at the home of a neighbor, Harry Stover, whom he was assisting in killing hogs for the market. To lessen the labor of the men, a horse was used to drag the hogs to the tripod, and in doing so a trace became detached. Mr. Grenoble was in the act of fastening this part of the harness to the whippetree when the horse kicked striking him back of the ear.

The stroke from the beast caused an abrasion of the skin, a fracture and a slight depression of the skull.

In connection with the injury noted above, Mr. Grenoble is suffering from rheumatic pains to which he is subject, and, although he is not in a serious condition, he is suffering considerable

GEO. BURCHFIELD COMMITS SUICIDE

By Shooting Himself Through the Heart at Newhaven.

The many acquaintances and relatives of George Burchfield, in Harris township, were deeply grieved when hearing of the sad ending of his life. He committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart at his boarding place in Newhaven, Tioga county.

The remains arrived at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Jacobs, Boalsburg, Tuesday, from which place interment was made this (Thursday) forenoon, Rev. W. K. Harsh, of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

Mr. Burchfield, aged thirty-three years, was the youngest son of Mrs. Hannah Burchfield, who now lives at Singletown, at which place he was also born. His father died when he was but a child.

Besides the mother there survive the widow, Mrs. Cora Burchfield, and two children, and the following brothers and sisters: Edward and Hugh Burchfield, Altoona; Mrs. Nora Felty, Altoona; Mrs. Effie Jacobs, Boalsburg; Mrs. Mollie Beck, Centre Line.

Conducting Mrs. Chadwick.

Cassie Chadwick's extraordinary cunning is shown in two details of her operations. One is the claim to be the daughter of Andrew Carnegie. This was likely to be kept somewhat private by the men she told it to, and, therefore, the danger of exposure was reduced. She did not seek to discount notes purporting to be signed by Mr. Carnegie, but merely used them to induce her dupes to lend her money without security. Thus she did not "utter" forged paper within the meaning of the law, and a good deal of doubt is expressed about convicting her. If she be the Madame Devre who has served a term for forgery it is evident that she has stilled the law of forgery to some purpose.

The Pennay Ahead.

In the Supreme Court of the United States the Pennsylvania Railroad has won its fight against the Western Union over the right of way. The telegraph company claimed authority under the law of 1866, but the Court holds that this does not grant eminent domain to telegraph companies over the private property of railroads. Consequently, the Pennsylvania Railroad had a right to order the Western Union off its property, and, in the refusal of the latter to go, to cut the poles down.

TEACHING MOTHER TO USE RIFLE

Ball Strikes Her Left Breast Over Heart, Passes Through Arm.

Another accidental shooting case has been added to the long list already recorded. The scene was the home of Mrs. R. D. Killian, south of Centre Hall station.

In the Killian home is a Flobert rifle, and since Mr. Killian is obliged to be away from home the greater part of the time, Mrs. Killian was anxious to become acquainted with the use of the fire arm so that in case self defense in the future became necessary she would be able skillfully to handle the weapon. Her son Roy, a lad of twelve or thirteen years, undertook to instruct the mother in the art of handling the dangerous firearm. As the lesson proceeded a cartridge stuck, and in the boy's endeavor to correct the unexpected error of the mechanical workings of the rifle, the cartridge exploded.

The small bullet entered the left breast over the heart of Mrs. Killian, cutting its way for about one and one-half inches, entered the arm on the under side passing out on the upper side. The missile was checked by the outer garments, and was found in the lining.

Dr. J. R. G. Allison was called on and dressed the wound, which while not serious, was painful, and bringing complications will soon be healed.

While this accident may not be attributed to absolute carelessness, it serves to further emphasize the importance of carefully handling firearms no matter in whose hands they chance to be.

SERIES OF ACCIDENTS

Mrs. Danley and Mrs. Isaac Tressler Break Arms—Mrs. Black Dislocates Hip.
Mrs. Danley, of Pine Grove Mills, an aged lady, while on her way to church, fell and broke her left arm near the wrist. This is the third bone she has had broken, the right arm having been previously broken, and prior to that her leg was broken, the latter break having also been caused by a fall.

Mrs. Isaac Tressler, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Lesech, at Circleville, had the misfortune to break her right arm below the elbow while going up stairs to bed. Mrs. Tressler is quite an aged lady, but she is getting along nicely, nevertheless.

Mrs. Black, of Huntingdon, the mother of Rev. A. A. Black, by a fall sustained a dislocation of the hip.

DEATHS.

D. S. DUSHAM.

David S. Dusham, formerly of Bellefonte, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Dutton at Passadena, Cal. His death was due to gangrene, which attacked one of his limbs. One limb was amputated and he was thought to be getting along nicely, but he suffered a relapse which resulted in his death as above stated.
The deceased was widely known throughout Pennsylvania as a newspaper man and founded the first paper ever published in Lusk Haven. He did considerable newspaper work in Bellefonte and was a veteran of the civil war. His birth place was Indiana, Pa., and the date of his birth October 25, 1828. He leaves two children, Fred S. Dusham, of Howard, and Mrs. H. H. Dutton, of Passadena, California.

CLAIR E. KEISLINGER.

Clair E. Keislinger, the young man who is injured while setting off a blast at the "Stevens" quarry of the American Lime & Stone Co., died at the Bellefonte Hospital Wednesday of last week. Mr. Keislinger's death was rather unexpected as he had been getting along very nicely, it was thought.
The remains were taken to the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Krape, at Salons, from which place the funeral services were held. His age was twenty-four years. His wife (nee Florence Krape) and three children survive.

The State Grange in Session.

The Pennsylvania State Grange is in session in Erie. This is the thirty-second gathering of that organization and is one of the most interesting from various points.
The Great law, the agricultural exhibit at the World's Fair, parcel post, and the election of a master to succeed W. F. Hill, are the foremost topics discussed by delegates.
In speaking of the World's Fair, Master Hill said: "Acting in my official capacity, I had asked the commission for a statement of the manner in which it expended the $300,000 appropriated by the State, and particularly the $15,000 set aside for the agricultural exhibit.
"I have received no reply. I, for one, cannot see where $15,000 was spent in that display."
The State Grange received 7200 members in the last year, and the treasury surplus is now in round numbers $14,000. Some years ago there was a deficit of $12,000.
There are now more than 30,000 members of the Grange in Pennsylvania.

Found Money in a Bureau

Abraham Lutz, a farmer of Shirley township, Huntingdon county, died last fall, and last week his heirs sold his personal property at public sale.

An old bureau was purchased by Mrs. Charles Ewing, a daughter of the deceased. In examining the piece of furniture she found a strip of board nailed to the back, and on the removal she found $4,000 in greenbacks and $500 in gold. Lutz never disclosed to his family that he had hid the money.

Quail for Pennsylvania.

Forty thousand quail are being purchased in Oklahoma for distribution in Pennsylvania. It is an easy matter to trap 10,000 per day in that territory, and plentiful are they. The legislature at the next session will be requested to adopt these laws: The state to raise game for stocking purposes, to prohibit duck hunting after January 1. No dogs to be trained until August 1, and then to be kept under control and not permitted to remain all night in the woods. Deer hunting to commence November 1 and continue for fifteen days, limiting each hunter to one deer per annum and providing a penalty of $100 for shooting deer with buckshot; bullets only to be used.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of their work, poisons, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail Home of Swamp-Root, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

I consider it my duty to recommend Vin-te-na to my friends."
