Poultry, Pork, Beef hides wanted at C. P. Long's store.

Mrs. Wm. Bressler, of Oak Hall, was in town last week.

Miss Emilie Alexander, of Tyrone will spend the holidays at her home in Centre Hall.

Miss Bessie S. Weber, a student at the Woman's College, Frederick, Maryland, is home for the Christmas vacation.

Mrs. E. E. Wood and son Charles, of Scottsdale, have been visiting at the home of W. J. Carlin and other friends in Rebersburg. They left for home today (Thursday).

Methodist appointments—Centre Hall, morning; Spring Mills, afternoon; Sprucetown, evening. The meetings at Sprucetown are being continued with interest.

Miss Anna Bartholomew, who is teaching her second term of school in the city of Curwensville, will spend the holiday season at the home of W. H. Bartholomew, in this place.

Will Shoop came back from Pittsburg the other day. He reports having seen all the Centre Hall boys, and states that they are all in good spirits and holding down good positions.

Every customer purchasing to the amount of five dollars ($5.00) the week preceding Xmas will receive a handsome crepe paper tablecloth, twelve napkins and doilies free at C. P. Long's.

Wm. H. Smith, of the Smith Brothers furniture firm of Spring Mills, was in town on business the other day. Will is always on a rush, and only stopped long enough at the Reporter office to give orders.

F. W. Sweetwood, who for the past few years has been located at Sycamore, Illinois, came east a short time ago and will remain with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Sweetwood, near Potters Mills. He is pleased with Illinois, and expects to return after a few months' vacation.

The sensational "foreword" to M. Lawson's story in Everybody's Magazine promised strange disclosures of certain proceedings in a Delaware court-room, in which two dressmaker cases filled with money changed hands under the judge's eyes. This incident forms the climax of the January instalment of "Frenzied Finance," and is the closing scene of a tremendous fight for the control of Bay State Gas.

The following is the report of the Wolf's Chapel school, for the third month ending December 12th, E. R. "LITTLE JOHNNY JONES."

New Year's Week at the Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia.

The Yankee Doodle Comedian, Geo. M. Cohan, with his extraordinarily successful production, "Little Johnny Jones," a play with music, will be the New Year's week attraction at the Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia. This will be Mr. Cohan's second visit to Philadelphia within a few weeks, a return engagement made advisable by the enormous demand of the Quaker City theatre goers. No musical play of recent years has created more comment, or excited more genuine enthusiasm than "Little Johnny Jones," while George Cohan as the little American jockey abroad, has scored the greatest of his several recent triumphs.

The ensemble of show girls is said to be an emporium of beauty, an array of feminine loveliness the equal of which was not seen in any musical play for years.

Death of Rev. W. T. Auman.

Rev. W. T. Auman, a well known Episcopal rector, died at his parents' home in Millheim Friday morning, of pneumonia accompanied by Bright's disease.

The reverend gentleman had been ill for some time. His last charges rector was at Clearfield. He was well and favorably known throughout Central Pennsylvania diocese and was quite successful in his church work.

Deceased was born in Millheim, and was forty-two years of age. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Auman. He was unmarried, and is survived by his parents, one sister, Mrs. Josephine Hardenburg, and two brothers, M. A. and L. P. Auman, all of Millheim.

Woodring, Port Matilda.

Humorous Entertainment.

Dr. George P. Bible advertises in this issue that he will be in Centre Hall to give a humorous entertainment, Thursday evening, December 29th. He is so well known here personally, that nothing that may be said of him by the editor would add to the knowledge of many of the readers. Dr. Bible, although he spent years in this place, has never been on the stage before a Centre Hall audience since his school days when old fashioned exhibitions were the style. He is now principal of the leading oratorical school in Pennsylvania, and as a humorist can not be excelled, surely he's a whole show.

Married.

At the Haag House, Bellefonte, on Dec. 22nd, by Rev. A. A. Black, John M. Hubler and Miss Frances Grace Snyder, both of Ferguson township.

William Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Bradford, is dangerously ill.

The Union Sunday school at Farmers Mills will hold a Christmas service Saturday evening.

Messrs. Roy Miller and J. F. McClellan, of Tusseyville, were the guests of Prof. W. A. Krise, Monday.

Constable Philip Frank, of Centre Hill, was a caller Tuesday, as was also John A. Sisek, of Potters Mills.

J. F. McClellan, who for the past few years has been located at Blue Ridge, Illinois, is staying at Tusseyville for the present.

E. C. Harter and daughter, Miss Roy, of near Spring Mills, were in Centre Hall Monday, and favored the Reporter with a short call.

F. F. Palmer, of Potters Mills, was in town Wednesday, having accompanied his brother, D. E. Palmer, Esq., to the railroad station. Lawyer Palmer came here from Boston where he was interested in a law suit. He went west twenty years ago, studied law and graduated from the Laurence (Kansas) Law School, and at present is located at Topeka, Kansas. He is employed by the well-known Kansas real estate and railroad corporation lawyers, Messrs. Bleed, Ware & Bred, Mr. Ware being the head of the U. S. Pension Bureau. Before returning home Mr. Palmer will go to Philadelphia, Chicago and other cities. Since leaving Potters Mills he has been constantly on the rise—another example of the worth of better township blood.

Progress Grange Meeting. The next meeting of Progress Grange will be on Saturday afternoon, December 31st.

Sweet Little Babies.

Sweet little babies came to the homes of Richard Brooks, west of Centre Hill, and Foster Judon, east of Centre Hill. A little in advance of Christmas, but they will be accepted as the most precious Christmas presents.

Married Thirty-seven Years.

Monday evening it was thirty-seven years since the marriage of Mr and Mrs. B. D. Brisbin took place, and as a little surprise a few friends were invited to spend the evening with the family. Their daughter, Miss Roxanna, having secretly provided refreshments.

A Wedding to Be.

Great preparations are being made at Linden Hall for the marriage of Miss Anna Winifred Wieland and John Mitchell Garbrick to take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Katharine Wieland, December 28, 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. Garbrick is principal of the Fleetwood public schools, and it is here the couple will make their future home.

Colyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Boal, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Boal.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Jordan and sons Boyd and Andrew, spent Sunday at the home of Supervisor Frank Bogdan, at Pine Hill.

J. S. Housman made the first break to cut and store ice from the creek. The ice is about ten inches thick and clear as crystal.

Aaron Detwiler spent several days with his brother Ed, at Reedsville, the past week.

Albert Page and Minnie Rickert spent a run with the latter's brother, Harvey Horner, at the mountain farm.

VIRGINIA HARNED.

Virginia Harned, who will be seen at the Garrick Theatre, Philadelphia, in her new play, "The Lady Shore," has been rehearsing her company at that theatre for several days past. "The Lady Shore," which was written expressly for Miss Harned by Lewis R. Smith and Lillian S. Thompson will be produced in a noteworthy manner. More than 150 people will be on the stage in one of the scenes, and the part which Miss Harned will play—the title role—is said to give this distinguished actress a splendid opportunity for that emotional work which has made her famous.

The mounting of the play has been done with a lavish hand and in the ensuing great attention has been paid not only to the securing of harmonious color schemes, but to every detail of historical accuracy. During this engagement at the Garrick, for two weeks beginning 26th inst., Miss Harned will offer matinees on Wednesdays and Saturdays, with a special New York's Day matinee on Monday, January 2 d.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail, Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
