

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.
ADVERTISEMENTS.—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.
The figures opposite your name on label of paper indicate the date to which your subscription is paid. When no date is given the date implied is July, 1905; when no month is given the month implied is July—thus: '05' means July, 1905; '01', means July, 1901; '04' means that your subscription is paid in advance to July, 1904. Other months than July are indicated by abbreviations. When you pay your subscription always examine your label, and when a notice appears that corrections have been made, compare and report immediately if you have not been given proper credit. No receipts for subscription will be sent by mail unless by special request. The change of date on label ought to be sufficient evidence. Money by mail is reasonably safe. There have been no losses to this date.

Mrs. Hettie Gramley, aged ninety-one years, and Mrs. Susan Strohecker, aged eighty-six, are on the sick list.
The man who stole Edwin Frank's wood is positively known, and Mr. Frank is very anxious for the party to come and settle.

Some of the young men of this place recently organized a boxing school. The members pledged themselves not to use intoxicating drinks, tobacco nor any profane language. This is a step in the right direction.
Wm. Hackman has announced himself an auctioneer. He is an expert in this business, as was seen at the sale recently held in the basement of the Lutheran church.
Willis Weber and wife are visiting relatives in the eastern part of the state.

Prof. Frank, Saturday, returned from a week's visit to Selingsgrove, Harrisburg and other points. This gave his scholars a vacation, which they very much appreciated.

Harris Township.

Christmas services were held in each of the churches, but on account of the inclement weather the attendance was not as large as usual.
Prof. P. H. Meyer and son Robert, of Bellefonte, spent Christmas here.
Mrs. E. P. McIntire and son Norman were visitors from Altoona.
Miss Margaretta Goheen, a student of the Millersville Normal, spent her vacation with her parents.
Miss Dora Mayer, of Bellefonte, visited for a few days in this place.
Edward R. Weber, who is employed as a book-keeper at Eastman Business College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was visiting friends in this his former home; he was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. P. M. Weber, of Huntingdon.

Mrs. James Hannah and Mrs. W. O. Gramley are among the sick this week; both are improving, however.
Mr. and Mrs. David Sowers, of Watson, spent Christmas at the home of the former's parents.
Rev. J. V. Royer visited his parents for a few days last week.

William Musser, of Altoona, spent Christmas at the home of his father, K. D. Musser.
Mr. and Mrs. George Wise, Mrs. C. O. Mallory, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Royer, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hubler, all of Rebersburg, were visitors in town last week.
Grover Gentzel and Roland Gentzel and family, all of Altoona, spent a few days during the Christmas season with their parents and friends here.

Among the many useful and handsome presents distributed in this neighborhood on Christmas Day, was a very elegant upright seven and a half octave mahogany piano, one of Kreager's highest grade, presented by John Smith to his daughter, Miss May, who plays and sings very charmingly, and is quite an artist at that instrument.
John Smith and Brother, furniture dealers, have just dressed their team of high-spirited horses with a set of splendid harness, solid nickel mountings, elegantly chased, bought of James Schofield, of Bellefonte, and costing $160.00. The harness is made in the best possible manner, beautifully finished, and without exception, is the finest set of double harness in the valley. This firm is doing a large business, not only in furniture, but also in carpets, rugs, ranges, stoves and house furnishing goods of every description.
All the merchants report a very satisfactory business during the holidays.
The holidays here passed off about as usual. The entertainments at the churches were all well attended. The music was excellent, and the little folks delivered their addresses like orators; all the children received a box of candy, as is usual on these occasions. On Christmas Day turkeys suffered only to a limited extent; they were too scarce and high in price this year, so people fell back on chicken or substituted the English dish of roast beef and plum pudding. On Saturday last the New Year "shooters" paraded the streets in all their glory, and in all sorts of ridiculous costumes, causing considerable merriment. Centre Hall was largely represented in the aggregation.
Considerable ice is being housed just now, and is as solid as flint.

The Spring Mills Lodge I. O. O. F., 597, will hold a banquet in their hall Saturday evening.

The January Clearance Sale

Begin the New Year with a resolution to wear a new suit and overcoat. You can get them here at greatly reduced prices, and a splendid stock to select from.

We put in an unusually large stock of the best made clothing, and still have enough left of the right kind.

MONTGOMERY & CO.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

...O. T. CORMAN... SPRING MILLS

Being headquarters for holiday goods and having done a very large business, the remaining goods—left over—I am now selling at ridiculously low prices. Such as dolls, go-carts, wagons, barrows, horses and a large quantity of toy candy, games, ornaments, novelties, etc., will be sold absolutely regardless of cost to close out the entire stock. All the holiday goods must be sold to make room for general merchandise.
Now is your opportunity to buy goods at your own prices. My counters are lined with the greatest bargains you ever saw. Why pay fancy prices at other stores when you can buy goods here at about half their value? An examination will convince you.

Candies and Confectionary
Just received another lot of choice candies and confectionary, consisting of chocolates, vanilla almonds, creams, mints, coconut, Spanish bon-bons, French mixture. Fine confectionary in boxes, and a large assortment of stick and toy candies. English walnuts, paper shell almonds and Pecan nuts, also a very large assortment of fancy cakes, oranges, lemons, bananas and table raisins.
Jewelry
Also an elegant array of fine jewelry—chains, rings, seals, brooches, cuff and collar buttons, and infants' neck chains.
Notions and Dry Goods
An invoice of notions just opened and now displayed on the counters. Gloves, mittens, neckwear, collars, kerchiefs and fine umbrellas. Dry goods department has also been replenished with a line of elegant dress goods in all the beautiful fall and winter shades, also gingham, muslin and a choice line of superb woolen blankets.

Groceries
My groceries are all fresh and carefully selected. In addition to regular sugar, coffee and spices I have a very desirable line of breakfast foods, canned goods, table oil, olives and sardines.
Glass and Queensware
My stock of glass and queensware is very complete. Elegant dinner and tea sets, from 75 to 125 pieces; cut glass, beautiful lamps and fine Bohemian and Japanese shades.

Tusseyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClellan visited friends in Reedsville and Yeager-ton last week.
