

The Correspondence Columns.

There is good, fresh local news matter in the Reporter's correspondence columns. The trashy, silly items that largely make up communications in some local papers, find no room in the Reporter.

Farm and Mill Sold.

The real estate of Fred Bottorf, deceased, of Pine Grove Mills, was recently sold. Howard Goss purchased the farm for $7000.

The flouring mill at Pine Grove Mills was sold to Messrs. Albert and William Bradford for $5500.

Smith, the Photographer.

For the month of January, Smith, the Photographer, will make you one dozen of his $4.00 pictures for only $1.50 per dozen. Centre Hall gallery open every Friday until 2 o'clock.

W. W. SMITH, Photographer.

Child's Forehead Cut.

Mary, the little four-year-old daughter of James Runkle, of Colyer, received a cut on the forehead that required seven stitches in the dressing. The child fell against a table on which stood some glassware, one of the pieces of which struck the little one.

John Tressler Injured.

While John Tressler, of Oak Hall, was driving the horses in a wagon loaded with corn fodder, to the barn, the horses started suddenly, throwing him to the ground backwards. His injuries were such that the doctor was hastily summoned, but at this writing he is improving slowly.

Barn Burned.

The barn on the farm of Miles G. Gray, near Pine Hall, tenanted by George W. Hoy, was burned Friday afternoon. Only the children of the family were at home when the fire occurred. All the crops, including 400 bushels of wheat, 400 bushels of corn, and 350 bushels of oats, were burned. Mr. Hoy had $700 insurance in the Farmer's Mutual Company.

Chestnut Street Theatres.

Sam H. Harris offers the Yankee Doodle comedian, Geo. M. Cohan, presenting the season's newest, swiftest, fastest vehicle of mirth and tuneful melody—a play set to music—"Little Johnny Jones," the American Jockey.

Next week Charles B. Dellington will present Frank Daniels, in the "Office Boy." Original cast, production and beauty brigade.

Chestnut Street Theatre, Nixon & Zimmerman, proprietors and managers.

LOCALS.

Judge Orvis held argument court Tuesday morning.

Ex-Sheriff Miles Walker has recovered from a serious illness.

Prof John A. Young, principal of the High School at Kane, was in town this week.

Harry M. Allison, of Spring Mills, visited his brother, Dr. Allison, in this place, last week.

Albert Allen, of Boalsburg, was one of the many callers at this office beginning of this week.

Thomas Service at Farmers Mills.

The Union Sunday school of the Farmers Mills Union church rendered a beautiful Christmas service on Christmas eve. The title of the main service used was "The Gift of Praise." The choir which consisted of some thirty young men and ladies rendered excellent music. The little folks had appropriate recitations and songs, which were well prepared and much enjoyed.

The church was beautifully decorated with spruce pine and ornaments, and lighted candles.

The treat was one of the features of the service. More than one hundred recited gifts—candies and nuts. Rev. Gress was present and offered prayer, and made the Christmas address.

The service was well attended, the church being comfortably filled. All seemed to enjoy the exercises of the evening.

DEATHS.

MARGARET KRISSE.

Margaret K. Kriss, wife of John W. Kriss, of Livingston, Mont., died a short time ago, aged sixty-seven years. She is survived by her husband and two daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Kriss, for a number of years, lived in Milroy, and are known to many people in Penns. Valley.

MRS. MARGARET DUFFY.

Mrs. Margaret Duffy died at her home in Tyrone, last Thursday, the 29th, of apoplexy, after a week's illness, during which time she never regained consciousness.

She was raised and spent most of her life at Fairbrook and was the oldest daughter of the well-known Cronin family. Her body was taken to Pennsylvania Furnace on Saturday morning and interment made in the Graysville cemetery.

Mrs. Duffy was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church. Her husband survives, also two brothers, David and Wilson Cronin, and two sisters, Miss Jane Cronin, and Mrs. Emma Miller.

LOCALS.

I. A. Sweetwood and little daughter Carrie, of this place, attended the wedding of the former's sister at Glen Iron Mrs. Milford Luse, Tuesday of this week, returned from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Kerstetter, at Laurelton.

M. M. Hunter, chief organizer of the Modern Woodmen of America, was here to look up the interests of the local camp.

Messrs. Thomas and Samuel Kerstetter, sons of Joel Kerstetter, of Laurelton, are now located in Lenox, Washington.

The young people of Centre Hall and vicinity enjoyed a leap year party at the Potters Mills hotel, Thursday night of last week.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Sprucetown having reached its sixth week. The meetings are largely attended and will be continued.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bradford celebrated the twelfth anniversary of their marriage, 29th ult., by inviting a number of their friends to their home.

Archie Homan returned to his home in this place Saturday, after spending the past six weeks with relatives and friends in Williamsport. He enjoyed the trip very much.

The Pine Grove Mills order of Odd Fellows celebrated their fifty-sixth anniversary Wednesday of last week. There were about one hundred and twenty-five present at the banquet which was an elaborate affair.

George Runkle, of the School Ship Saratoga; Charles Braehill, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Flora O. Bairfoot, William J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer, Misses Bertha and Violeta Wolf, all of Centre Hall, were guests at the Centre Hall hotel New Year's Day.

Among the guests entertained by Mrs. Lizzie M. Jacobs, at Christmas time, were Mrs. J. W. Stuart, of State College, and son, Daniel W. Stuart, manager of Heintz's pickling establishment, at Norfolk, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bottorf, Lemont; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sweeney, Boalsburg, and H. A. Fetteroff, Centre Hall.

Calvin Osman, of Glen Iron, was in Centre county for several days, and among other places visited at Spring Mills and Centre Hall. Mr. Osman is a track-foreman on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, having received his initiation in the business while located at Oak Hall. He is getting along splendidly, and thinks he would not like to return to Penns. Valley permanently.

Edward Lucas, son of W. H. Lucas, of near Centre Hill, will in the near future, become the manager of a gent's furnishing store on 8th street, Philadelphia, where he is now employed as clerk. Louis Fabian, the proprietor of the store, will open a second store on Market street, and the 8th street store mentioned above, will then be under the care of Mr. Lucas. Mr. Fabian was associated for a number of years with Samuel Lewin, deceased, both in Bellefonte and Philadelphia.

Messrs. Frank H. and Charles E. Fisher, both of Boalsburg, are among the young men on "the road" who are making profit for their employers. The former is located at Washington, D. C., and has charge of the Washington office of the Northern Consolidated Milling Company, of Minneapolis, Minn. His territory covers the states of North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland. He has been with this company since September, and his rapid rise attests to the efficient work he is capable of and is performing. The latter, the youngest member of the Fisher family, represents the Harrisburg Burial Case company, and at all times considers the interests of his employers paramount. He is a splendid salesman and reliable in every way.

Linden Hall.

Mrs. Chestie Miller and daughter, of Renovo, are visiting friends and relatives here this week.

Among the strangers in town for the holidays were Mrs. S. L. Goss and little Curtis, James S. Miller, of the Glades; W. H. Diehl, at his brother's home, and Miss Dora Meyers, of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Ezra Tressler, of Rock Springs, spent a week visiting relatives and friends here, returning to her home on Monday.

William Beck, of Altoona, spent Christmas at the home of David Glasgow.

Scott Wieland came home for his sister's wedding and spent a week very pleasantly among old associates, returning to Nordmont Friday, where he has charge of a large mercantile business.

Miss Margaretha Goheen, who is a member of the graduating class of the Millersville Normal, spent the holidays with her parents and returned to school Tuesday.

Mrs. Nancy McClintic went to Centre Hall to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Bradford, who has been quite sick for some time.

Mrs. Clyde Boyer, of Milton, spent some time at the parental home, and returned Monday.

No, Maude, dear; the dipper isn't what makes the moon full.

Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre.

One of the most delightful places to spend an afternoon or evening is Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia. This week's performance includes Henry E. Dixey, of "Adonis" fame, presenting "David Garrick; or the Art of Acting;" Papinta, the dancing wonder of the century; Rice and Prevost, more laughs to the minute than any other act in vaudeville; Cole and Johnson, second and last week of these incomparable song writers and vocalists; Potter and Hartwell, prime acrobats; Walter C. Kelly, favorite monologue comedian; a host of other features, and a special added attraction for one week only, Maggie Cline, the Irish Queen. Don't fail to hear her sing "Throw 'em Down, McClusky." Seats: 25c., 50c., 75c.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK? Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.
