The February "Smart Set"

Readers of the Smart Set have learned to look upon the complete novel that appears in each issue of that magazine as the biggest event of the month in fiction; but even the most enthusiastic reader will be happily surprised by the story in the February number.

$50,000 For State College.

At the opening of the winter session of the college President Atherton announced that Mr. Andrew Carnegie had given the fund of $25,000 to the college the interest of which was to be used for the helping of students through college who had not sufficient means. He also announced that Mrs. Carnegie had given a like amount and the interest of this fund was to be used for the founding of scholarships in a way to be determined on later.

School Report.

The following is a report of the Intermediate grade of the Centre Hall school for the fourth month, ending January 13th, Rebecca J. Moyer, teacher:

Per cent. of attendance, male 93, female 90, average 91; average attendance, male 19, female 13, total 32; number of scholars enrolled, male 22, female 15, total 37. Names of those attending every day of the month:

Laura Mitterling, Nina Snyder, Ruth Smith, Verna Rowe, Alice Reareck, Margaret Mitterling, Nellie Smith, Ralph Dinges, Calvin Smith, William Kerlin, Harry Mader, Jewett Brooks, George Slack, John Whitman, Roy Puff, Ira Foreman.

Nine Miles of Road Built.

Commissioner Hunter makes great ado over the fact that nine whole miles of road have been built under the supervision of the road department of which he is the head, and that twenty-six miles of road are now under contract.

The commissioner suggests that all the highways should be surveyed, and since the $6,500,000 are not being gobbed fast enough, the commissioner's suggestion may perhaps speed the matter.

Another suggestion is that the law be changed so that townships have three supervisors instead of two, and their term of office lengthened, so that two supervisors are held over each year.

A good suggestion is the abolishing of narrow-tired wagons. Commissioner Hunter predicts the speedy extinction of the custom of "working" out road tax.

Ishler-Ramsay Wedding.

A beautiful wedding took place Thursday noon of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsay, of Pleasant Gap, when their only daughter, Miss Mary R., became the wife of Harry E. Ishler, of near State College.

At precisely 12 o'clock the bride and groom were ushered into the parlor by Jacob Stamm, of Altoona, and Miss Emma Ishler, sister of the groom, while the wedding march was being played by Miss Mabel Ishler, another sister.

The ceremony was performed by their pastor, Rev. J. I. Stonecypher, of Boalsburg, assisted by Rev. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall.

A large number of guests were present and the happy couple were made the recipients of many useful gifts.

Immediately after the service the company was invited to the dining room where a large table was bountifully spread to satisfy the wants of the inner man. A season was spent socially and the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Ishler a long life of happiness and success.

1904.

A Few Statistics Concerning Centre County Affairs.

Number of prisoners confined to the county jail, during the past year, at the expense of the county, eighty-eight.

One person was sent to the Huntingdon Reformatory and three prisoners were sent to the Western Penitentiary.

Number of bills of indictment presented to the grand jury for the year, seventy-eight; of this number sixty-one were found true bills and seventeen were ignored. There were forty-three bills not prosed, the cases having been settled or disposed of before reaching the grand jury. There were nine true bills not prosed by the court, leaving fifty-two commonwealth trials by juries.

An examination of the marriage license docket in the office of Register A. G. Archey shows that during the year 1904 there was granted only 269 marriage licenses, while in 1903 the total was 360 and in 1902 the number granted was 374. The number in 1904 was even away below the average, for in the nineteen years the marriage license law has been in effect, from October 9, 1885, when the first license was granted until October 9, 1904, a total of about 6,460 licenses have been granted, or an average of 340 per year.

No More New Rural Deliveries.

Owing to the exhaustion of funds, the Post Office Department will discontinue the establishment of new rural free delivery routes. There are 400 applications for new routes.

Selling the Johnson Machines.

J. H. and S. E. Weber, Centre Hall and Oak Hall, are selling the Johnson Harvester Company's Binders, Mowers, Rakes, Tedders and Harrows. This Company is not in the trust, and it will pay all farmers to see us before buying. 07

Notice of Caucus.

All Democrats of Potter township are hereby notified that a caucus for nominating township and precinct officers, will be held at Centre Hill, on Saturday, January 28th, 1905 between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock p. m.

G. L. GOODHART, GEO. H. EMERICK, J. B. SPANGLER, Committeemen.

Butcher Shoots Thief.

Butcher Jacob Cass, of near Waddies, in Buffalo Run Valley, shot at and hit a thief in the posterior as he was fleeing from his butcher house, one night last week. The thief's name was Benjamin Eters, his purpose was to steal the carcass of a calf, but was too noisy. The butcher hurriedly secured his revolver, and the result noted above followed. Eters came to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment.

Among the visitors in town this week were Cal Wieland and family at the home of his brother; Miss Mary Struble, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Campbell; Miss Whitmer, at the home of John Bohn, and Mr. and Mrs. Cal Ruhl at the home of John Diehl.

Mrs. D. C. Hess returned last week from Elkins, West Virginia, where she has spent several months with her grand-daughter; after only a few days spent at her home in this place, she left for Osceola, where she will spend the remainder of the winter at the home of her daughter.

DEATHS.

HERMAN LONG.

Herman Long died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Benjamin Stemm, a mile east of Boalsburg Saturday morning, of consumption, after a long illness. The deceased was an employe of the Westinghouse company at Pittsburg but about a year ago he was compelled to give up his work on account of ill health and come home.

He would have been twenty-six years old on the 4th of next February. Surviving him are his wife, his mother, sister and half-brother.

He was a prominent Odd Fellow and that order conducted services at the grave. The funeral was held Tuesday morning, Rev. A. A. Black officiating. Interment in the Boalsburg cemetery.

CONRAD STRUBLE.

Death, Wednesday of last week, removed one of Ferguson township's most prominent citizens. The person alluded to is Conrad Struble, who at that time died at the home of his son, Clayton Struble, near Pine Grove Mills. Interment took place Saturday.

Mr. Struble was born at Zion, and was first married to a Miss Swartz, by whom he had three children: Andrew, of Tyrone; Calvin, of Zion, and Clayton, of Pine Grove Mills.

The second wife was Miss Sarah Mitchell, who died several years ago. Three children survive from this marriage.

JOHN HALDERMAN.

John Halderman died at his home at Wallace Run, Wednesday of last week. His age was eighty-three years. He was a member of Co. B, 148th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry and served through the war. He was the father of eight children, who survive him. Interment was made Friday afternoon in Houserville cemetery. Rev. David Davis officiated.

B FRANK BARE.

Frank Bare died at his home near Colyer Thursday of last week. Interment was made at Tusseyville, Saturday, Rev. Daniel Gress officiating. The deceased is survived by a widow and several children.

Mr. Bare was stricken with paralysis, at various times, which caused his death.

Appreciates the Reporter.

A few words accompanying a check for subscription, from Prof. H. C. Rothrock, of Salona, made the Reporter feel as though the paper was worth ten times its present subscription price, and here is the expression: We enjoy the Reporter very much and eagerly await its coming each week. We would feel lost without it.

Aaronsburg.

William Guiseville and family spent part of the Sabbath with friends at Pine Creek.

Miss Blanche Bard returned home after a few months' stay with friends in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Samuel Long, of Bellevue, Ohio, was the guest of Mrs. Caroline Mayes one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swabb, of Penn Hall, took supper at the home of Col. J. P. Coburn, Sunday evening.

Lloyd Stover and Sarah Kline spent a day on the Kline farm, in Brush Valley, the latter's former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Crouse were at Troxville visiting Mrs. Crouse's parents, returning home Monday.

Merchant John Detwiler and wife spent a few days with Rev. F. W. Brown and family, at Beaver Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Corman, of Rebersburg, and Mrs. Sparr, of Boalsburg, visited friends in town one day last week.

Clymer Stover has accepted a clerkship with ex-Sheriff Cronister, in Philipsburg, in the tin shop, connected with his hardware store.

Spring Mills.

Rev. John Fenstermaker who has been sick, is improving.

C. E. Zeigler, on Friday made a business trip to Hubersburg.

William Ruhl bought a handsome Portland cutter from S. L. Condo.

H. N. Keller and wife, of Pleasant Gap, were guests at the home of C. E. Zeigler on Sunday.

J. H. McCool and wife, of Rebersburg, spent Wednesday in town and were guests at the home of Samuel Brown.

T. M. Gramley recently bought the Shook Brothers interests in the Spring Mills Creamery, and has now become the sole owner of the plant.

A. N. Finkel, the lumber king, last week moved his saw mill from the Station to Smithtown, where he will operate on the Dr. Musser tract.

The house and lot owned by James H. McCool, of Rebersburg, located on the "hill" and occupied by Thomas Decker, was sold last week to C. E. Zeigler, who will occupy it in the spring.

A large delegation of the Odd Fellows' fraternity of Bellefonte, took advantage of the fine sleighing on Friday night and came here to visit the Spring Mills Lodge, and spent a delightful evening.

AUTOS FOR ROYALTY.

Furnished for Earl of Dartmouth by Caulkins & Post Co.

The following is taken from the Middletown (Connecticut) Tribune, and refers to one of Centre Hall's young men. Mr. Kerlin at present is in New York city at an auto show:

The Caulkins & Post Co. sent two of their large Knox touring cars in charge of Chauffeurs James F. Corbet and Edwin M. Kelin to Avon, recently, on request of Miss Borah, who was entertaining the Earl and Countess of Dartmouth and their daughter, Lady Dorothy of England, at the residence of Joseph Alsop, Jr., formerly of this city. They met the Earl and party at Springfield, Mass., and drove them to Avon. During Saturday and Sunday the cars were used much of the time in visiting and sightseeing. Messrs. Corbet and Kerlin returned home Monday evening following.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The rate for announcements under this head for Township offices is one dollar, in advance. I kindly ask the support of the Democratic voters in Potter township, at the approaching caucus, for the office of Constable. If nominated, I will give every honorable means to secure my election, and promise the best services possible, if elected. Very truly, JAMES HOKNER.
