Laying his gun down to look into a ground hog hole, at Pen Argyle, W. J. Smith's foot accidentally touched the trigger and the gun was discharged.

Attorney Lentz has filed his petition with the Board of Pardons, asking that the death sentence of Mrs. Kate Edwards be commuted to life imprisonment.

In a quarrel over the groundhog at Pottsville H. P. Wilson was stabbed. Wilson contended that on account of the deep snow and cold weather the animal did not come out of his burrow.

Condemnation was caused among the twelve men yet to be tried for alleged complicity in the operations of the Mafia in Carbonate by the announcement that Joseph Cogliandro, one of those indicted had made a complete confession.

Prof. Richard Darlington's hands and face were severely burned in fighting a fire in his home in West Chester, due to the upsetting of a lamp.

While a horse belonging to John Marsh, an East Goshen farmer, was standing hitched along the street at West Chester it became restive from the cold, and in plunging about fell on the top of the hitching post, which pierced the animal's stomach, death resulting in a few minutes.

The prosecution against I. Newton Henderson, Jasper P. Faucet and Charles W. Manley, supervisors of Westtown Township, charged with neglecting to repair a public road near Westtown Friends' Boarding School, has been withdrawn, the matter having been adjusted satisfactorily to all concerned.

The will of Charles Lockhart, the Standard Oil millionaire, whose estate is estimated at a sum between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000, was probated in Pittsburgh. After providing for members of his family and friends, Mr. Lockhart bequeaths $300,000 for public benefits.

James Kohn, of Doylestown, is sleeping in the open air with the temperature near zero. He is undergoing treatment for pulmonary disease at the home of Dr. Fred Brister, New Britain.

The Governor sent to the Senate the names of the following persons to be members of the Board of Medical Examiners for three years: W. D. Hamaker, of Meadville, and M. P. Dickerson, of Glen Riddle, representing the Medical Society of Pennsylvania; J. C. Guernsey, of Philadelphia, and Edward Cranck, Erie, representing the Homeopathic Medical Society, and William Rauch, of Johnstown, and J. M. Louthier, Somerset, representing the Eclectic Medical Society.

Hydrophobia caused the death of James Foulk, 9 years old, of Plymouth Township. He had suffered for a week as the result of a dog's savage attack six weeks ago. While coasting down Germantown Pike a dog attacked Foulk and a companion. Foulk pluckily fought the animal, but the dog sank its teeth into the boy and frightfully tore and lacerated his face.

At the funeral of Amos Shaner, aged 95 years, in North Coventry Township, Chester County, the average age of the six pall-bearers was 77 years. They were Jonathan Freigh, 78; Samuel Eckert, 72; Isaac Ortlip, 83; John Urwin, 72; Fred Freigh, 72, and William Rador, 82. John Shaner, the undertaker is 72 years old.

Considerable surprise was occasioned in Hazleton when officials of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company posted a notice to the effect that until further notice the colliers would operate three days a week. The same condition prevails at the collieries of the individual operators. No one seems to be able to tell just what the curtailment means at this time, and the only answer the officials make is that there is a surplus of coal at tidewater.

Ralph Crow, the young man who held up a trolley car on the Philadelphia and West Chester line a few weeks ago, and robbed the conductor in wild West fashion at the point of two big revolvers, was convicted in court at West Chester and sentenced to serve ten years in the Penitentiary.

Andrew Houseman, of Plymouth Township, was emerging from a cut in a huge drift of snow near Hickorytown, in his sleigh, when a Chestnut Hill trolley car struck the sleigh, knocking Houseman into the snow.

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s "Weekly Review of Trade" says:

Storms at home and complications abroad tended to check activity in commercial and financial markets, but most industrial lines continue busy, testifying to confidence that trade interruption will be brief.

New England manufacturing plants are well engaged, especially in machinery, jewelry and textiles, but buyers have left the Boston footwear market without placing contracts, owing to disagreement as to prices.

AN OLD MAN'S TRIBUTE.

An Ohio Fruit Dealer, 78 Years Old, Cured of a Terrible Case After Ten Years of Suffering.

Sidney Justus, fruit dealer, of Mentor, Ohio, says: "I was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills of a severe case of kidney trouble, of eight or ten years' standing."

"I suffered the most severe back-ache and other pains in the region of the kidneys. These were especially severe when stooping to lift anything, and often I could hardly straighten my back. The aching was bad in the daytime, but just as bad at night, and I was always lame in the morning. I was bothered with rheumatic pains and dropsical swelling of the feet. The urinary passages were painful, and the secretions were discolored and so free that often I had to rise at night. I felt tired all day. Half a box served to relieve me, and three boxes effected a permanent cure."

Benjamin Franklin's Courant. Thomas C. Bradbury, of Bliddeford, Me., is the owner of a copy of the New England Courant, which is dated "From Feb. 4 to Feb. 11, 1723." The copy, which is devoted for the most part to a speech of the king, states that the Courant "is printed and sold by Benjamin Franklin."

Reason and Its Lack. Cholly—"But—aw—why do you say you don't like my face?" Miss Pert—"Because." Cholly—"Ah! but that's not a proper answer; there's no reason in that." Miss Pert—"Well, there's none in your face, either."—Philadelphia Press.

There's more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It gets directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. GRATEFUL TO CUTICURA For Instant Relief and Speedy Cure of Raw and Scaly Humor, Itching Day and Night—Suffered For Months.

"I wish you would publish this letter so that other sufferers as I have may be helped. For months awful sores covered my face and neck, scabs forming, itching terribly day and night, breaking open, and running blood and matter. I had tried many remedies, but was growing worse, when I started with Cuticura. The first application gave me instant relief, and when I had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment, I was completely cured." The U. S. Dept. of Agriculture gives to Salzer's Oats its highest endorsement. Salzer's New National Oats yielded in 1904 from 150 to 300 bu. per acre in 30 different States, and you, Mr. Farmer, can beat this in 1905, if you will.

Speltz or Emmen, above illustrated, gives 80 bushels grain and four tons hay besides per acre. It's wonderful. Salzer's seeds are pedigreed seeds, bred up through careful selection to big yields.

BIRD INVESTS WITH POWER.

Superstition Connected with Jeweled Toy of England's King.

When as a girl Amelie de France, now Queen of Portugal, first visited Windsor Castle, the myrtle jeweled bird which was taken from the throne of Tipoo Saib and presented by the East India Company to George III, was the object of her profound admiration.

In fact, it fascinated her romantic soul, and Queen Victoria, who had a strong strain of romance in her nature, quite understood her young guest's feeling, so she ordered the bird to be taken to the princess's apartment, in order that a sketch might be made of the treasure. The first thing the Queen of Portugal asked for the night she entered the banquet hall on the King's arm and saw the blaze of the celebrated gold plate upon the buffet, was this jeweled bird! His majesty immediately ordered that it should be placed upon the table in front of the Queen, that she might gaze upon it at her leisure.

There are many legends woven about that bird. A London journal says the Hindoos call it "Uma," and they say that whoever owns Uma must reign over India. It is supposed to have the gift of locomotion, and it alights upon the head of whoever it endows with royal power. It is about twelve inches long, and is shaped like a pigeon with an exaggerated tail. Rubies, brilliants, emeralds and pearls are sewn about the quivering feathers of flagrant gold work; it holds a priceless ruby in its beak, and an emerald of great size and luster hangs from its breast. The bird shares with the Kohinoor the superstitious regard of the Hindoos. While the Uma folds its wings in the castle on the Thames, and while the Kohinoor blazes in the English crown, there is nothing else to do but be as good subjects of King Edward as may be. It is the will of the gods.

Japanese Retort Courtous. Nagahaki, the celebrated Japanese juggler, was a great favorite wherever he went, and just before the present war broke out he was performing in St. Petersburg.

When hostilities commenced he had to clear out, and his admirers, among whom were many officers of the garrison, gave him a farewell supper.

At the close of the banquet they were wishing him "Goodby" when some of them exclaimed, "Not goodby, but only au revoir, for we shall be drinking your health in champagne in Tokio before the year is out."

"I am afraid not," replied Nagahaki, gravely. "Japan is a poor country, remember, and I fear we shall not be able to give our prisoners champagne."

BISHOP OWES HEALTH AND LIFE TO PE-RU-NA.

Ministers of All Denominations Join in Recommending Pe-ru-na to the People.

Public speaking especially exposes the throat and bronchial tubes to catarrhal affections. Breathing the air of crowded assemblies, and the necessary exposure to night air which many preachers must face, makes catarrh especially prevalent among their class. Pe-ru-na has become justly popular among them.

BISHOP L. H. HALSEY.

The Friends of Pe-ru-na.

Despite the prejudices of the medical profession against proprietary medicines, the clergy have always maintained a strong confidence and friendship for Pe-ru-na. They have discovered by personal experience that Pe-ru-na does all that is claimed for it.

The Bishop's Strong Tribute to Pe-ru-na.

L. H. Halsey, Bishop C. M. E. Church, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I have found Pe-ru-na to be a great remedy for catarrh. I have suffered with this terrible disease for more than twenty years, until since I have been using Pe-ru-na, which has relieved me of the trouble. I have tried many remedies and spent a great deal of hard-earned money for them, but I found nothing so effective in the cure of catarrh as the great medicine, Pe-ru-na. I feel sure that Pe-ru-na is not only a triumph of medical science, but it is also a blessing to suffering humanity. Every individual who suffers with respiratory diseases will find Pe-ru-na a magnificent and sovereign remedy."—L. H. Halsey, Bp. C. M. E. Church.

Pe-ru-na is the most prompt and sure remedy for catarrh that can be taken. Many a preacher has been able to meet his engagements only because he keeps on hand a bottle of Pe-ru-na, ready to meet any emergency that may arise.

We have on file many letters of recommendation like the one given above. We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast number of grateful letters Dr. Hartman is constantly receiving in praise of his famous catarrh remedy, Pe-ru-na.
