Selling the Johnson Machines.

J. H. and S. E. Weber, Centre Hall and Oak Hill, are selling the Johnson Harvester Company's Binders, Mowers, Rakes, Tedders and Harrows. This Company is not in the trust, and it will pay all farmers to see us before buying, 67

Stockholders Meet.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank at State College, it was determined to increase the board of directors to nine members. The following board was elected: W. C. Patterson, J. T. McCormick, Louis E. Reber, John W. Stuart, John Price Jackson, Wm. L. Foster, Charles H. Foster, Rev. C. T. Aikens and J. W. Wieland.

The following officers were elected: W. C. Patterson, president; John W. Stuart, vice president, and David F. Kapp, cashier.

Bills Introduced.

The following bills of more or less local interest were introduced in the legislature: Mr. Riley, of Allegheny, substituting solitary confinement at hard labor for life for capital punishment.

Representative Schofield, of Clearfield, would have the State establish three workhouses, one in the west, one in the centre and one in the eastern part of the State "for persons having more than ten days to serve, who shall have been committed for vagrancy, drunkenness, or disorderly conduct, and such others as the courts may direct."

Change of Mail Carriers.

There will be a complete change in the mail carriers on the several mail routes in this part of the county on July 1st, 1905, says the Millheim Journal. The contracts are for four years and as this winter was the usual time for letting the routes there was considerable bidding for the same.

A. W. Yearick, who has been carrying the mail from Woodward to Coburn will be succeeded by C. W. Hosterman of Woodward.

Charles Small, who has for a number of years been the driver of the mail wagon from Rebersburg to Coburn, will retire and M. C. Haines, of Rebersburg, will take his place.

C. M. Sheats, of Madisonburg, will deliver the mail from that place to Millheim, taking the position now occupied by John F. Miller.

Come to our closing out sale, it will pay you. Yeager & Davis.

Spitting Habit May Be Regulated By Law.

It is said a bill will be presented at this session of the Pennsylvania legislature making spitting on the floor in public places a misdemeanor. The passage of the bill will be urged by the society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. The bill provides for cupridors and the fine for violating the act will not exceed $5, for each offense. The "white scourge" is still on the increase and radical measures must be adopted to check its ravages. Just so. But how about spitting of consumption saliva, tobacco juice and gobs of all kinds on pavements for ladies to swab up in their promethades, or for all people to "stomach" in their perambulations. Spitting on a clean pavement is just as nasty, mean and dirty habit as spitting on the carpet of a tidy home.

Reduced Rates to Washington.

On account of the Inauguration of President Roosevelt on March 4, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round-trip tickets to Washington, March 2, 3, and 4, good for return passage until March 8, inclusive, from Harrisburg, Pittsburg, Oil City, Erie, Buffalo, Canandaigua, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre, Mt. Carmel, and intermediate stations, at the rate of single fare, plus 25 cents for the round trip. Deposit of ticket with Joint Agent at Washington on or before March 8 and payment of fee of $1.00 will secure extension of return limit to leave Washington on or before March 18. For specific rates and full information apply to ticket agents.

Missionary Society.

The Reformed Missionary Society of the Millheim congregation met at Rev. F. W. Lauffer's the other Tuesday evening and rendered a very good program. After which the president, Mrs. McMullen, gave the guests a missionary problem to solve, Lew Tobias being the only one giving the correct answer. The following members from the Aaronsburg society were present on invitation: Prof. Stover and family, Mrs. W. H. Philips, Mrs. George Weaver, Misses Mary Stahl, Fammie Hatley, Mazie Hatley and Maggie Weaver. The Millheim society served refreshments which were enjoyed and highly appreciated by the sister society.

Horse Sale Friday.

Twenty-five Canadian horses will be sold at the hotel, Centre Hall, Friday, February 17th, one o'clock, by P. C. Waldron, who has been selling horses in various parts of Central Pennsylvania including Bellefonte and Millheim. These horses consist of roadsters, mated teams and heavy draughts, weighing from ten to sixteen hundred pounds. They were selected with a view of suiting buyers in Centre county, and come from the farms in West-ru Canada on which they were bred and raised.

Free Library.

The Free Library in Grange Arcadia will be open to the public on Saturday, February 18th, from 4 to 5 p. m. People should be free to avail themselves of this library, aided by the state. There is one book, "Dolly Madison" or "Women of the Colonial Times" that should be read by every man and woman as it gives a comprehensive insight into the early social and state usages of this country which cannot otherwise be acquired.

Writing Fluid.

The best writing fluid on the market may be secured at the Reporter office. This fluid is refilled from large bottles into smaller ones, and is not the grade commonly sold in small quantities.

Primary School.

Miss Helen Hosterman announces that she will open a select primary school immediately after the close of the winter term of public school.

LOCALS.

Arctics and warm lined rubbers will be sold cheap. Yeager & Davis.

Newton S. Bailey has entered the ministry in the United Brethren church, having been assigned a charge in a mining community in Cambria county.

Down in Georgia there was great ado made Tuesday night of last week because mercury stood at forty-five degrees above zero. That would be considered summer weather here.

The post offices at Violet, Dice, White Springs and Forest Hill, Union county, have been discontinued, owing to the establishing of a rural mail route from Millburg.

W. H. Swartz, east of Old Fort, will make sale of his farm stock and implements March 7th. Mr. Swartz, as was previously announced in these columns, will move to near Northumberland and engage in truck farming.

As was intimated some time ago in these columns, the marriage of David G. Fortney and Miss Ada J. Swartz, both of Tusseyville, took place at Atlantic City, a short time ago. The couple will begin housekeeping at Tusseyville in the home recently purchased by Mr. Fortney. The Reporter extends congratulations.

Entertainment at Linden Hall.

Irvin C. Stover, entertainer and impersonator, will be at Linden Hall, Wednesday evening, 22d inst. Mr. Stover is a graduate of Byron W. King's School of Oratory, and no doubt will be able to highly please his audience.

A Free Souvenir.

A beautiful souvenir booklet of the city of Philadelphia will be mailed absolutely free of charge to any one sending name and address to SOUVENIR DEPARTMENT, KEITH'S NEW THEATRE, Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

Indians at Inauguration.

Three hundred Indian braves will be in the big parade at Washington on the day that Theodore Roosevelt is inaugurated President. There will be six troops of the Redskins, fifty to a troop.

Another feature of the big parade will be six Indian chiefs who will come here from the west to accompany the civilized Indians to the National Capital.

Company B Not in It.

Company B, of Bellefonte, is not in it for the inauguration ceremonies on March 4th. Colonel Clement has selected the following to represent the Twelfth regiment: Company A, Lewisburg; Company C, Milton; Company D, Williamsport, Company E, Sunbury. The battalion will be commanded by Major Charles P. Gearhart, of Danville, who will be accompanied by his battalion adjutant and his sergeant major.

Entertained School Children.

The pupils of the Grammar Grade of the Centre Hall schools were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Long and their children, Miriam, Mabel, Eleanor and Austin, of Spring Mills, Saturday afternoon and evening. A splendid supper was served, and the time spent in the most pleasant way by the school children. The event will long be remembered by the participants. Mrs. J. R. G. Allison and Miss Helen Hosterman were the chaperons. The names of the fortunate children who enjoyed the hospitality of the Long family are: Rosie Krape, Bessie Grace, Jodie Rearick, Susan Rearick, Cora Luse, Helen Sandoe, Isabel Rowe, Lena Emerick, Margaret Jacobs, Ruth Thomas, Margaret Mitterling, Freda Bailey, Reuben Gars, Bruce Arney, Gross Allison, Floyd Snyder, Ross Bushman, John Rowe, Henry Mitterling.

The Local Option Bill.

The local option bill has been reported to the house. The measure was introduced by Representative John M. Berry, of Washington county. According to its provisions local option may be voted for in any city, borough or town when thirty-five per cent of the citizens in the locality petition the courts for such an election. It is specified in the bill that after one such election shall have been held in a locality another election may be held two years later should the required percentage of the citizens affected so desire.

The present disposition of the leaders is to not pass the bill. In fact, there are few who believe that it has a ghost of a show in the present legislature. It is not improbable that it will be left to slumber in committee, together with the proposed excise commission bill, which provides for the granting of licenses by commissions instead of by the courts.

Potters Mills.

George Boal and wife spent Sunday with his parents at Colyer.

Prof. Reube Colyer is at Zion for two weeks, instructing a band.

Alex McCoy attended a horse sale at Bellefonte, Millin county, Saturday.

The people of Potters Mills appreciate the kindness of Frank Royer, in taking sled loads to revival meetings.

W. W. McCormick, one of the leading farmers, was down to the horse sale at Millheim Saturday and purchased a fine horse.

Mr. Baer and Mr. and Mrs. David Snyder, of Lewistown, attended the funeral of Mrs. Wm. Baer and spent some time at the home of Mrs. Lena Smith.

Mr. Thompson, of Milroy, brought a sled load of the employes of his woolen mills over to the Eutaw House for a chicken and waffle supper, Wednesday evening.

A party of young people from this place attended a party at the home of Charles Neff, Thursday evening and had a delightful time. They were treated to ice cream and cake.

Frank McClellan and bride were entertained at the homes of Dr. H. S. Alexander, Emanuel and Michael Smith on Wednesday. In the evening the Potters Mills orchestra rendered some very fine music at the home of Michael Smith, in honor of the bride and groom.

Mrs. William Baer passed calmly and peacefully away last Wednesday, after severe and long suffering, and was buried Saturday, at Zion Hill, Rev. J. F. Shultz officiating. She is survived by her husband and one son, Harry. The funeral was largely attended. Her age was thirty-five years.

DEATHS.

R. C. LEATHERS.

R. C. Leathers died at his home in Howard Wednesday of last week, aged sixty-two years. The deceased recently underwent an operation in one of the Philadelphia hospitals for an internal ailment. His condition became such that medical skill and surgery were unable to benefit him, and he was consequently brought back to Howard Saturday previous to his death. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. Meda Bathurst and Miss Alice Leathers, of Santa Rosa, Cal.; Mrs. Hartsock, of Easton; Mrs. Swires and Leonard Leathers, of Brookville; Frank and Claire Leathers, of Howard.

MRS. MILTON E. JOHNSON.

Mrs. Johnson, wife of Milton R. Johnson, died very unexpectedly at her home in Bellefonte Tuesday of last week. The lady had gone to the stable to look after a few chickens, and while there fell to the ground and before assistance could be given life was extinct. Death was ascribed to apoplexy.

The deceased's maiden name was C. Keturra Barr, daughter of the late Samuel Barr, of Bellefonte. Her age was thirty-six years. Beside her mother, Mrs. Belle Barr, she is survived by her husband, four children, and one brother, Miles Barr, of Nashville, Tenn.

MRS. MARY TONER.
