

THE ELECTION.

The South Side Elects Democratic Local Officers.

Almost without an exception the election Tuesday resulted in placing Democrats in charge of the local borough and township offices.

The election in Centre Hall was without incident worthy of note except the result. No interest whatever was manifested in behalf of the candidate. The elector voted and returned to his work or business without a thought or care as to the outcome. One hundred votes were cast.

In the returns noted below those marked R are Republicans, Independents, Ind.

Besides her husband she is survived by two children, a boy and a girl, aged ten and twelve. The funeral was held from her late home on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. A. A. Black, officiating.

CHRISTIAN SWARTZ.

Christian Swartz, a highly respected citizen of Bellefonte and a veteran of the civil war, died at his home Saturday evening, aged seventy years. He was a retired farmer and a native of Walker township. He served in the 148th Regiment during the civil war. He was a member of the Methodist church. Surviving him are his wife and one son, Lincoln Swartz, of Hubertburg.

MRS. JOHN C. STOVER.

Amelia, wife of John C. Stover, of Aaronsburg, died from apoplexy Tuesday morning, aged seventy years and six months. Interment will be made Friday, Rev. F. E. Luffler officiating.

Mrs. Stover was a kind and affectionate mother, and had many friends. Her maiden name was Hosterman. Besides her husband the following children survive: Mrs. John Gr. noble, Spring Mills; Mrs. E. E. Ardery, Bellefonte; Mrs. Frank Gusewite, Feidler; Mrs. George Weaver, Aaronsburg; Mrs. Thomas Meyer, Coburn; C. H. Stover, Aaronsburg.

Infant Child of Ezra Harter.

The body of an infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Harter, of Altoona, was shipped to Coburn Wednesday afternoon. Interment will take place Friday at Woodward.

New Members Admitted.

A large class was admitted to membership in Progress Grange Saturday. The ceremonies were conducted by the officers in a way that delighted every member present.

Another class is to be admitted next Saturday at the special meeting, and special preparations are being made to have a grand rally at the next regular meeting, on the fourth of March, when all will be invested with full membership. A new class is being started to give others an opportunity to join some time in March.

Those who desire to join with the Grange should leave their applications with Miss Florence Rhone, who will present them duly to the Grange.

NOT SMALLPOX.

State Examiner Dr. G. F. Harris Declares the Disease Chickenpox.

Dr. George F. Harris, district medical examiner, declares Miss Eva Gaines suffering from chickenpox and not smallpox.

Tuesday morning the local board of health received official notice that Miss Eva Gaines, at the home of George W. Glace, in Centre Hall, was suffering from smallpox.

The board at once placed the home of Mr. Glace under quarantine, and made arrangements to have Dr. George F. Harris, of Bellefonte, representing the state board of health, to make an examination of the case. Dr. Harris came to Centre Hall Wednesday, and after making an examination issued the following certificate:

CENTRE HALL, Feb. 23, 1905.

To Dr. G. W. Hosterman, President Board of Health:

I certify that I have carefully examined Eva Gaines, at the residence of G. W. Glace, in Centre Hall, and find her suffering from variella, commonly called chickenpox.

OLD OFFENDERS CAUGHT.

Three More Arrests at Woodward—second committed Two Years Ago.

There was considerable excitement at Woodward Tuesday when three arrests were made, the parties being accused of having robbed the Eby's about two years ago of $400 or more. The names of the parties are Thomas D. Bowersox, of Woodward; William Haines and Charles Haines, of near that place. There was strong suspicion against these parties when the robbery was committed, but no action was taken at the time.

Reduced Rates to Washington.

On account of the inauguration of President Roosevelt on March 4, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round-trip tickets to Washington, March 2, 3, and 4, good for return passage until March 8, inclusive, from Harrisburg, Pittsburg, Oil City, Erie, Buffalo, Canandigua, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre, Mt. Carmel, and intermediate stations, at the rate of single fare, plus 25 cents for the round trip. Deposit of ticket with Joint Agent at Washington on or before March 8 and payment of fee of $1.00 will secure extension of return limit to leave Washington on or before March 18. For specific rates and full information apply to ticket agents.

After the Clubs.

Mr. Herbst, of Berks county, introduced a bill the object of which is to regulate the liquor selling clubs. Its intent is good, but its provisions are hardly as complete as they should be. There is no reason why the clubs should be exempt from the restrictions of the general license act. They should pay just as much for the privilege of selling and should be forbidden to sell on Sunday. At present they are under no limitations whatever. They pay nothing to the state, and yet they are allowed to sell to confirmed drunkards, to minors and on Sunday all the year round. They are formidable rivals of the regular hotels and almost their entire receipts are clear gain. The legislature should do something to curb them.

Mrs. Hoover, who was traveling with Photographer Caulkins, was released under bail from the county jail for her appearance at court. She returned to Hickory, Forest county. Caulkins has not been so fortunate, and remains in prison.

The tragic death of Grand Duke Sergius, uncle of the czar, was in the nature of things expected. If the autocracy will not listen to the peaceful petitions of the people its members must expect annihilation at the hands of enthusiasts who are prepared to die for liberty. We do not sympathize with violence, but we are not surprised at its manifestation in a country like Russia.

B. F. Homan, of Oak Hall Station, Pa., is always ready and pleased to wait on persons interested in the National Cream Separator. This machine, while retaining its former good principles, is now improved. It is low down. It is acknowledged as the leading separator, in simplicity, fewness of parts, ease in turning and washing, and best of all, endurance and closeness in skimming.

Lloyd Walters, of Paxtonville, Sunday filled the appointments of the Centre Hall Lutheran charge in the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. M. Rearick. Mr. Walters is a student at Susquehanna University and displays considerable ability. He is a young man of pleasing address, and handled the subject of his discourse in a logical manner. Mr. Walters is a nephew of Rev. Rearick.

Everybody's Magazine for March comes out with a blow at the Beef Trust—timed to a nicety with the recent decision of the Supreme Court. Mr. Lawson jumps directly into the beginning of Amalgamated. He tells of the development of his interest in copper, he describes the situation when Boston ruled those now famous stocks, and narrates graphically the bitter fight over Butte & Boston.

The Eby's who figure in the Woodward robbery affair are Michael and Henry Eby. Moses Eby, who is named as one of the brothers who was robbed at various times, lives several miles distant from the scene of the robbery and is in no way connected with the affair. The city dailies are badly mixed up in their account of the arrest, etc., of the Fultz brothers, Mrs. Fultz and Kessinger, and make it appear as though the robbery took place at Zion, more than twenty-five miles from Woodward. In the account taken from the Philadelphia Inquirer and reprinted in this issue of the Reporter, the errors as to locations and names of persons interested have been corrected.
