

LOCALS.

Rain Tuesday night.

The things that come to those who wait are generally not worth waiting for.

The roads are in bad condition for traveling, and will remain so until the snow disappears.

Mann's axe works at Yeagertown have closed down and will not re-open until the first of April.

Harry E. Fye, this week will move from Centre Hall to the farm of Samuel Bruss, east of Centre Hall.

Miss Elsie Geiss, for the past few weeks, has been in Bellefonte, the guest of her brother, D. W. Geiss.

Elmer Crisman, formerly of Linden Hall, has changed his postoffice address from Watsonstown to White Deer.

Farmers are beginning to plan their spring work. Clover seed sowing will be among the first work to receive attention.

Communion services will be held in the Reformed church at the Union, Sunday morning. Preparatory services Saturday afternoon.

Miss Laura Barner, daughter of G. W. Barner, of Farmers Mills, was the guest of Miss Virna Emerick and other young friends in Centre Hall for several days.

Subscribers to the Reporter who desire to have their address changed after the first of April, should notify this office at once. Do not wait until you have made the change, but give the Reporter the information now.

The absurd extremities to which some of the very rich people of this country are driven for amusement is the subject of an article in the March Woman's Home Companion, entitled "The Freak Amusements of 'High Society.'"

Under the caption of political announcements will be found the card of Ellis S. Shaffer, of Miles township, announcing himself a candidate for the office of sheriff of Centre county, subject to the decisions of the Democratic county convention. Mr. Shaffer is a staunch Democrat and well qualified to fill the position to which he is aspiring.

Among the young men who came to Centre Hall to visit their old home that the Reporter points to with pride is Charles Homan, who is engaged in the large clothing firm of Bush & Bull, Williamsport. While engaged with this firm he took a course in "ad" writing in the Scranton Correspondence School, and at present is writing advertisements for large firms. This line of work obliges him to shorten his stay here, and he will accordingly return to Williamsport Friday.

Licenses Held Over.

Licenses held over Monday by Judge Ellis L. Orvis. The forty-seven applicants, eight of whom apply for the first time, were heard, and all were held over until next week.

Petitions were presented against license being granted the applicants in Snow Shoe and Port Matilda, as were also against the three applicants for wholesale license in Bellefonte. Judge Orvis said he would make inquiries several times each year, and if any violations were noted the license would at once be revoked.

Do You Want to Make Money?

Of course you do. Let us help you sell your cream, eggs and poultry to us and we guarantee that you will be pleased with the returns. Compare our prices with others buying cream, and you will be convinced that we can make money for you. We are now opening new cream routes. If our driver does not pass your place, drop us a line and we will have him call. We always pay the highest market prices for eggs, chickens, ducks and turkeys.

THE HOWARD CREAMERY CORP. Office—Bellefonte, Pa.

Reorganization of Council

The borough council finished up the business for last year at a short session of the body held Monday night.

The organization of the new body was accomplished by electing as president, W. F. Bradford, and W. H. Bartholomew as secretary.

The only business transacted was the appointment of committees and re-appointment of the former board of health.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Runkle, of Penn Hall, Monday were guests of Miss Elizabeth Runkle, in Centre Hall.

"Lol" Rudy and wife, of Milroy, passed through Centre Hall on their wedding tour in a carriage decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Rudy was Miss Willa Brown.

J. C. Rowe, present recorder of Centre county, announces his candidacy for that office. Mr. Rowe has proved himself an efficient official, and no doubt will be accorded a second nomination without a contest.

The obliging station agent, R. E. Catherman, of Spring Mills, today (Thursday) went to Philadelphia to be gone for several days. He was called there on account of his sister, Mrs. Wilson, being taken to the hospital.

The Belleville Times printed the following: H. C. Finkle spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Finkle, since our last issue. Mr. Finkle resides at Muncy, where he is engaged in the milling business.

Margaret E. Keller, daughter of J. Henry Keller, of Kansas City, Missouri, is in ill health and is at present at Eureka Springs, Arkansas, where she hopes to be benefited by climatic changes. Miss Keller is employed in the offices of the Beall Grain Company, and attributes her condition to close confinement.

Frank V. Hogan, who is engaged with an electrical firm in Philadelphia, is at present employed at State College in the construction of a conduit, which line of work he is giving special attention. Mr. Hogan, when he first left his father's home in this place, began work on a telephone line, gradually working his way up until at present he fills a very important position with the firm which employs him.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Breen, of Altoona, recently were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Smetzer. Mr. Breen is employed in the Altoona railroad shops where he has been working in the various departments for about fourteen years. He was formerly from Pottery Mills, being a son of John Breen, deceased, and before returning to Altoona he went over his old play grounds, not forgetting to visit Pat Garrity in the Seven Mountains.

DEATHS.

MRS. JULIA MCCLINTICK.

Mrs. Julia McClintick, widow of the late John McClintick, of Cedar Springs, died Saturday, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Alex. LOCALS.

Mrs. Cloyd Brooks, beginning of this week, had a light attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. R. D. Foreman is recovering from an illness that at one time, it was feared, would develop into pneumonia.

Found—In the railroad station at Spring Mills, several pieces of jewelry. The loser can have the same by furnishing description.

Henry Homan advertises sale of his personal property for March 30, after which time the family will become residents of the borough and will move into the property recently purchased by Henry Stoner, now occupied by Edward Royer.

Rev. J. F. Shultz, who for four years was pastor of the United Evangelical church, has been appointed to a charge at Howard, not too far distant to frequently come back to Centre Hall and Penna Valley to see old friends in and out of the church of his choice.

A bill introduced in the state senate provides for the expenditure of $100,000 at the dedication of the state capitol. The bill, judging from extravagant sum of money named in it, is evidently intended to help along the boys who are pastmasters in graft.

C. P. Long, the Spring Mills merchant, advertises for a car load of apples. Penna Valley farmers who chance to have a stock of apples on hand may consider themselves fortunate to have a market for this particular fruit, since in some sections of the state the farmers are obliged to feed their surplus of apples to the swine. Selling to Mr. Long will be infinitely better than feeding them.

B. F. Homan, of Oak Hall Station, Pa., is always ready and pleased to wait on persons interested in the National Cream Separator. This machine, while retaining its former good principles, is now improved. It is low down. It is acknowledged as the leading separator, in simplicity, fewness of parts, ease in turning and washing, and best of all, endurance and closeness in skimming.

Men's $4 shoes will be $3 at the closing out sale. Yeager & Davis.

Remember everything will be reduced. Yeager & Davis.
