Mifflinburg Buggies, Carriages, Etc. D. A. Boozer advertises first-class Mifflinburg buggies at bottom prices.

If you intend purchasing a vehicle of any description, call to see Mr. Boozer before doing so. He is selling at the lowest possible margin.

Phosphate at Foreman & Smith's. Foreman & Smith have ordered their second car load of phosphate for the spring trade and are prepared to fill all orders at the lowest possible prices.

They have all grades. Call to see them before placing your order.

There Are Others. A Cumberland Presbyterian minister in the western part of the state at a recent ecclesiastical gathering offered a resolution in effect that "sissified asses who parted their hair in the middle, were not needed in the ministry."

That is true, but the tone and general get up of the resolution tends to create a feeling that there are some other kinds of asses in the ministry that might be dispensed with.

Do You Want to Make Money? Of course you do. Let us help you! Sell your cream, eggs and poultry to us and we guarantee that you will be pleased with the returns.

Compare our prices with others buying cream, and you will be convinced that we can make money for you. We are now opening new cream routes. If our driver does not pass your place, drop us a line and we will have him call.

We always pay the highest market prices for eggs, chickens, ducks and turkeys.

THE HOWARD CREAMERY CORP. Office—Bellefonte, Pa.

Very True, Indeed. From the Milton Weekly Record.

Many a dollar that found its way into a barroom till and took bread away from hungry children has been accepted by those who represented the Lord to promote his cause.

Many a dollar that was the price of a girl's honop has found its way into the church treasury and no questions asked. But the line is drawn at Rockefeller's big gift because he runs the Standard Oil Company and makes money. This is boncombe—not religion.

Reduced Rates to Pacific Coast Points. On account of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, at Portland, Ore., June 1 to October 15, and various conventions to be held in cities on the Pacific Coast during the summer, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round-trip tickets on specified dates, from all stations on its lines, to San Francisco and Los Angeles, April 9 to September 27; to Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, Victoria, Vancouver and San Diego, May 22 to September 27, at greatly reduced rates.

For dates of sale and specific information concerning rates and routes, consult nearest ticket agent.

Extending Tram Road. The work of extending the railroad of the White Deer Lumber company from the Tea Spring west to Carroll, was commenced recently. Whitmer & Company are at the head of the movement. About fifty men are employed. J. A. Shalter, of Laurelton, is superintendent of construction. The company is considering the possibility of extending the road to Loganton later to carry freight and passengers.

DEATHS.

SAMUEL WIRTS.

At the advanced age of eighty-four years, the death of Samuel Wirts occurred at the home of his son-in-law, Thomas Garvin, at Dungarvin, Huntingdon county. The deceased for many years lived at Houserville, his trade being that of a weaver. Surviving him are four children: John Wirts, Bellwood; Mrs. Thos. Dewey, Dungarvin; Mrs. George Wolf, Altoona; Irvin Wirts, Houserville. Two brothers: Philip Wirts, Houserville; Joseph Wirts, an invalid; and two sisters: Mrs. Wm. Gross, Patton twp., and Mrs. Robert Bierly, Milesburg.

MARY A. SNYDER.

Mary A. Snyder died at the home of her son, Noah W. Eby, at Woodward, after a lingering illness, aged seventy-two years, seven months. She leaves to survive one son, Noah W. Eby; one brother, Ira Snyder, of near Coburn, and one sister, Mrs. Ellen Huss, of Spring Mills. Deceased was a consistent member of the Lutheran church for many years. Interment took place at Woodward.

Note from Huntingdon Record.

The Huntingdon Reformatory Record contained the following, the principals being former residents of Farmers Mills: A very enjoyable surprise was tendered to Chorister Brown on his return home Friday evening of last week. His good wife determined that his birthday should not pass unobserved and secretly planned to have the anniversary celebrated in an appropriate manner and, in response to her invitation, a large number of friends and neighbors assembled at the home on the evening named.

When Mr. Brown entered he soon discovered what their presence meant and acknowledged that for once Mrs. Brown had succeeded in completely surprising him. He assured all, however, that the surprise was a very pleasant one and spared no time in entering into the enjoyments of the evening, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, social chats, etc. A delicious supper was served and the guests are loud in their praise of the excellent manner in which the hostess prepared it.

Good News for F. and M.

It was announced Friday of last week by President Stahr, of Franklin and Marshall college, that a letter has been received from Andrew Carnegie offering to give the college $50,000 for the general endowment fund or $37,500 for a new building for the academy on condition that the college raise an equal amount for the same purpose. The board of trustees have decided to accept the $37,500 proposition and will at once endeavor to raise their share.

Merchant Meyer's Mishap.

Merchant William H. Meyer, of Centre Hall, had the mishap to fall from a step ladder Monday evening. He was cleaning the ceiling of the store room when for some unaccountable reason, possibly dizziness, he fell backward to the floor. No bones were broken, but he was severely shaken up and bruised. Tuesday morning he was unable to leave his bed.

Classes in Session.

The West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church is in session at Hublersburg, having opened Wednesday and will close Monday. This body embraces the territory of Centre, Clinton, Union and Lycoming counties. There are 20 ministers within the Classis, who with an equal number of delegates, have a voice in the proceedings.

Will Open Blacksmith Shop.

The Henny blacksmith shop, on Church Street, has been opened for business by Wilbur Henney. All kinds of work will be done, special attention being given to tire-cutting. The public is appealed to for a share of patronage. Prices will be right, and work satisfactory.
