Altoona has made all preparations for the celebration of a glorious Fourth.

Miss Annie Lewis, of Pittsburg, is spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. King.

The regular meeting of Progress Grange will be held in the Arcadia Saturday afternoon.

J. Roland Keller, with his sister Mrs. Hoover Dalby, visited friends in Reedsville over Sunday.

Mrs. Hattie Kurtz, of Bellefonte, widow of the late John Kurtz, will sail for Europe on Saturday.

Mrs. James Spieher and little daughter, of Cresson, are visiting at the home of Mrs. William Colyer.

Judge Ellis L. Orvis and Col. J. L. Spangler drove over from Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon to visit the latter's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Klinger and son Guy and Mrs. Margaret Armstrong, of Lemont, spent Sunday with Mrs. Andrew Gregg.

W. H. Stiver's home presents a very neat appearance since it has been painted. P. S. Auman, of Spring Mills, did the work.

There were no services in the Lutheran church last Sunday owing to the absence of Rev. J. M. Reaick who preached in York county.

Prof. H. C. Rothrock has been elected principal of the Boalsburg High School. Prof. Rothrock taught there three years ago and his being re-elected is proof that he did good work.

Judge Marr, of Schuylkill county, is dealing out justice to the grating school directors of Sheenandoh borough in a way that should satisfy every honest citizen.

Misses Ruth and Ella Bottorf, of Lemont, and William Klecker, of Millburg, visited in town Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Bottorf is an instructor of music in Bucknell Institute at Lewisburg.

Sliver G. Snook, of Millheim, who holds a clerkship in the Franklin National Bank, Broad and Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, is a good representative of Millheim in the city of Brotherly Love.

T. N. Reber, the veteran and jovial salesman of Lewisburg, who has sold more coffee through this valley during the past twenty years than any other man, made his regular trip to Centre Hall on Monday.

William Reed, of Huntingdon, had a traveling salesman arrested last week and fined $1 and costs amounting to $4 for his profanity and insistence in trying to force Mr. Reed to buy goods which he did not want.

At the election of teachers for the Bellefonte schools last Wednesday evening, John S. Hosterman, of this place, was elected an assistant teacher in the High School. Mr. Hosterman last year was teacher of the Walker Township High School, at Hubersburg.

One of the many Gregg township young men who is holding down a good position away from home is R. E. Hockman, formerly of Spring Mills. Mr. Hockman is with the Philadelphia Tapestry Company, Front and Allegheny Avenue, Philadelphia.

Prof. Theodore Rupp, of Lancaster, is visiting friends in Boalsburg this week. Prof. Rupp was principal of the Boalsburg schools last winter, but has given up the teaching profession and will enter the Theological Seminary at Lancaster next September where he will prepare for the ministry.

Prof. John D. Meyer will take a course in school superintendence and management at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., this summer. He will leave for Astory Park, N. J., on Saturday to attend the National Educational Association which meets there next week and then will go on to Cambridge.

Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Runkle and two sons, are expected at the home of the former's mother, at Spring Mills, within a few days. Mrs. Runkle and the children will remain in the country for some time. Dr. Runkle is very comfortably located at 1605 Christian street, Philadelphia, and is enjoying an extensive practice.

The July "Arens" commemorates the meeting of the thirty-fourth volume by publishing the first paper of a series of contributions on the "Economic Struggle in Colorado," by the eminent legal authority, Hon. J. Warner Mills, author of Mills' Constitutional Annotations, Mills' Colorado Digest, Mills' Annotated Negotiable Instruments Law, and numerous other standard legal works.

Ernest Hogan, probably the greatest colored artist on the American stage, will be one of the chief entertainers at Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, July 10th. This will be Mr. Hogan's farewell vaudeville appearance in that city as he is to star next season in "The Birth of the Pearl." He will entertain with original songs, which he will sing in his inimitable way.

DEATHS.

MRS. CATHARINE P. RICHARDSON. Mrs. Catharine P. Richardson died from the result of diseases incident to old age at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Luther Royer, near Centre Hill, on Friday. The deceased was aged sixty-eight years and lived the greater part of her life in this community.

Her husband died many years ago and since that time she made her home with her daughter. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Royer, one son, Frank Richardson, of Penn Hall, and a brother, Thomas Palmer, of Potters Mills. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder, of Aaronburg, in the absence of her pastor, Rev. J. M. Reaick. Interment was made at Sprucetown Monday morning.

JAMES HAYES. James Hayes a well known stone mason, of Howard, died at his home in that place Friday, June 16, after suffering for some time with dropsy. Mr. Hayes was well known in that community, and was as long as able a hard working man. He was a member of the Methodist church, at that place, and a veteran of the civil war. He was aged sixty-seven years and is survived by his wife and the following children: Harry, Bertha, John, Bessie, Estella, Minnie and Blaine.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist church, conducted by his pastor, Rev. E. M. Aller. Interment in the Howard cemetery.

MRS. JOHN H. ROUSH. Mrs. Anna J., wife of John H. Roush, died at her home at Madisonburg of consumption and heart disease, Tuesday evening, of last week, aged about fifty-four years. She has left to survive a husband and three children, Mrs. A. J. Hezel, Mrs. Lloyd Miller and Edna, at home, also two brothers, Thomas F. Shaffer, of Freeport, Ill., and B. W. Shaffer, of Madisonburg. Funeral services were held Friday morning in the Reformed church, conducted by Rev. H. C. Bixler and Rev. F. Wetzel. Interment was made in the Reformed cemetery at Madisonburg.

MRS. CATHARINE FLORAY. Mrs. Catharine Floray died at the home of Mrs. Reuben Page, near Linden Hall, Sunday morning, death being due to a paralytic stroke. The deceased was about seventy-three years old. Her maiden name was Confer and she was married to Philip Floray, who died about five or six years ago. Interment was made in the Centre Hill cemetery Tuesday.

Oh Well News. Not much progress has been made in drilling the past week owing to the fact that a few days ago the drill broke loose from the stem to which it was attached and became lodged in rock. Heavy shooting with dynamite and other efforts have been made, but as yet the drill has not been recovered.

Aftermath of St. Valentine's Day. Mrs. Ida May Zeigler, of Altoona, sent a comic valentine, representing a long-tongued woman to her next door neighbor, Mrs. Lulu Shellenberger. The court at Hildsburg, Thursday refused to accept the plea of the license of St. Valentine, and directed Mrs. Zeigler to pay $20 fine and costs.

Ravages of the Cut Worm. Farmers in this section are only beginning to fully realize the extent of damage done to the corn by the cut worm. Not for years has the pest been so active and destructive, and now that the corn has reached a stage when it is being "finshed," the rows look exceedingly scant of plants. It was not a matter of careful farming to escape the ravages of the worm, nor neglect that invited them, as is clearly demonstrated on the farm of J. J. Arney, near Centre Hall. He is one of the most careful and practical farmers in the valley, and yet the cut worm—the dirty, despised little cut worm—set to naught all his efforts to grow a crop of corn. Mr. Arney's field was damaged to such an extent that a large portion of it was broken up and sown to buckwheat.

Keith's Next Week. The attractions at Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, next week will be many and varied. Among them will be Henry V. Donnelly, who, supported by a capable company, will make his initial bow to Keith patrons in a screaming farce entitled "Mr. and Mrs. Nagg." Violet Dale, a clever little artist, will entertain with impersonations of famous actresses: Mrs. Leslie Carter in "Du Barry"; Viola Allen in "A Winter's Tale," and others. For the children will be Kreisel's dogs and monkeys; Mosher, Houghton and Mosher, one of the best comedy bicycle acts in vaudeville; Matthews & Ashley, Hebrew comedians; Musical feature, the Majestic Four; Acrobatic feature, the Brothers Damm; Taylor Holmes, monologue and impersonations; Henry and Francis, conversational comedy; Coughlan, cub juggling; Niblo & Riley, singing and dancing act; Carson Bros., comedy acrobats; Browning Welt & Co., comedy sketch.

STORY OF GREATEST BATTLE.

Francis McCullagh's Tale of Mukden to be Printed Next Sunday.

The battle of Mukden, fought in Manchuria in March of this year, was the greatest conflict in the history of the world.

The only history yet published of this great combat has just been written. It is told by Francis McCullagh, a correspondent, who went into the battle with the Russian forces, and was captured during the fight by the Japanese.

Mr. McCullagh was an eye-witness of the battle from both sides, and, knowing the story, knows how to tell it. He has written it all graphically, as only an eye-witness can. He has not gone into the labored work of the military expert, but tells his story for the man who wants to read it in good, clear English, letting the horrible facts themselves stand out to adorn it and point its great moral.

Mr. McCullagh's history has been secured for publication in Pennsylvania by the Philadelphia North American. It will be published in two instalments, and the first instalment of eight pages will appear as a special supplement added to the Sunday issue of the paper for July 2. It will be completed on July 9.

To Harness the Susquehanna. A company formed for the purpose of furnishing power to the cities and towns along the Susquehanna river has bought several thousand acres of land on both sides of the river in the vicinity of Shenk's Ferry. It is the intention to build large dams and with that water power make electricity which will be carried to the cities using it.

Roosevelt at Harvard. President Roosevelt is attending the commencement exercises at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., this week. It was his desire that he should not attend in his official capacity as President but merely as a member of the class of '80, the class with which he graduated.

Just What Everyone Should Do. Mr. J. T. Barber of Irwinville, Ga., always keeps a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand ready for instant use. Attacks of colic, cholera morbus and diarrhoea come on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt for a doctor or go to the store for medicine. Mr. Barber says: "I have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which is one of the best medicines I ever saw. I keep a bottle of it in my room as I have had several attacks of colic and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.
