Presbyterian—Centre Hall, morning. No other services. Reformed—Union, morning; Spring Mills, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.

The Fourth at Colyer.

The glorious Fourth will be celebrated in usual style at Mess' store, Colyer, in the evening. There will be fire works, ice cream, and dainties of the season galore. All are invited to come.

No Paper Next Week.

According to the time-honored custom of the newspapers of the county, no paper will be issued from this office next week. The office will be open, however, to receive subscription and to do all kinds of job work as usual.

First Prisoner to Escape from Mifflin Jail.

For the first time since the Mifflin county jail was constructed a prisoner escaped from it Monday morning. He was Henry Johnston, a negro, implicated in the robbery of a lodging house three miles from Lewistown.

Work at the Fish Hatchery.

Haupt Bros., of Bellefonte, have secured the contract to build thirty-three concrete fish ponds with water ways at the Bellefonte fish hatchery. The contract was put up for bids and the above firm being the lowest bidders were given the work.

The Grange Library.

Owing to transfer of books, the Grange Library will not be open Saturday. A new set of books will arrive in a week or so, when the Library will again open to the public.

A Shooting at Dubois.

A shooting affray took place at Dubois last week when James T. Chambers, proprietor of the Logan House at that place, his son, Will Chambers and a man named William Harvey were shot by Brint Roland, a tough character of the place.

Will Move to Ohio.

W. O. Rearick and family, of Milroy, were in town this week preparatory to moving to Ohio. Mr. Rearick has sold all his property and business at Milroy where he has been successfully engaged in the grain business for the past five or six years.

Centre County Philadelphians Picnic.

Saturday afternoon was the time set by the Centre County Association in Philadelphia to hold their annual picnic at Belmont Mansion, Fairmont Park, Philadelphia. The day was anything but one calculated to inspire even a Centre countian to enter heart and soul into an old-fashioned picnic.

A Heroic Act.

The north bound passenger train on the Tyrone division, between Sandy Ridge and Osceola, escaped what might have been a very serious wreck Friday night, imperiling the lives of the one hundred and twenty-eight passengers who were aboard the same.

Houseman Family Reunion.

The tenth reunion of the Houseman family was held at Lakemont park, near Altoona, on Saturday, but owing to rain the attendance was smaller than in former years, the interest in the meeting, however, was even greater. The opening address by Rev. J. Samuel Houseman, of Colyer, was very interesting and showed that in the Houseman family there are good speakers. Other addresses were made by William H. Houseman, Sr., and John Houseman, of Millheim; E. C. Houseman, of Penn Hall and Prof. C. W. Corbin, of Altoona.

After attending the Houseman family reunion at Lakemont Park Saturday, Rev. J. S. Houseman, went to Gallitzin where he preached a very interesting German sermon on Sunday.

Mrs. William Goheen and her niece, Miss Rose Woods, attended the commencement at Millersville Normal.

Mrs. Goheen's daughter, Miss Margaretta, who was one of the graduating class, will return home with them.

Quite a number of telephones have lately been put into different places of business and private dwellings in Boalsburg, by the Bell Telephone Company. A line is also being built to Frank McFarlane's home so that he can call Hello! to his friends.

The Children's service in the Reformed church Sunday evening was largely attended, and the church was tastefully decorated with rhododendron, roses and daisies. The songs and recitations by the children were well rendered. The offering will be used to buy bibles and lesson helps for Sunday schools not self sustaining.

At a meeting of the school board Friday evening the following teachers were elected for the ensuing term: Township High School, Prof. Harry C. Rothrock, of Salona; Boalsburg grammar school, H. M. Hosterman; Boalsburg primary, Miss C. Gertrude Wieland; Walnut Grove, Miss Margaret S. Mothersbaugh; Rock Hill Frank Young; Shiogetown, Harry N. Lonberger.

Tuesday evening of last week all the little children of Boalsburg and vicinity were entertained by Mrs. Theodore Boal. It has been her custom to entertain and treat them at Christmas time, but being away from home at that time, she had a pleasant evening for them now. Refreshments were served, and she had devised a novel way of giving them gifts. The presents were all put in a fish basket and with a hook, line and rod each child drew something from the basket. The Boal family left on Friday for a few weeks' visit to Newport, Rhode Island.

Souvenir Postal Cards.

You will find at the Reporter office a souvenir postal card, very suggestive at this particular time, at one cent each.

Injured on the Bellefonte Central.

Edward Clark, a section hand on the Bellefonte Central Railroad, was thrown from the hand-car and had the ligaments of several ribs torn off and was otherwise injured. He was cared for by Dr. John I. Robinson and now is getting along nicely.

New School Law.

Under an act of assembly approved March 27, 1905, and which went into effect immediately, teachers in the public schools shall spend at least half an hour each week instructing their pupils to be kind to animals and birds. The act says that a system of humane education which shall include kind treatment of birds and animals, shall be included in the branches of study now required by law to be taught in the common schools; such instruction to be given all pupils, up and including the fourth grade of the public schools of the commonwealth, and to consist of not more than half an hour each week, during the term of school; that no experiment upon any living creature, to demonstrate in physiology, shall be permitted in any public school in this state, and that the principal or teacher in every school shall certify, in his or her monthly reports to the school board, that such instruction has been given in the school under his or her control.

If you want to feel glad that you are alive and able to enjoy the wealth of outdoor treasures that our magnificent country affords, just read The Country Calendar for July. The luscious yellow-green cantaloupe of the cover well indexes the zest that waits within.

John D. Moore, of near town, Saturday had an escape from what might have been a serious injury. In walking over the mow of his barn the boards gave way and he was thrown into the horse stable below. Several bruises and a good shaking up were the result.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barges and children, of Wall, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Barges, of near town. Mr. Barges is much pleased with the industrial activity of the Pittsburg region, but finds Centre Hall a delightful place in which to take a two weeks' rest.

The Cheltenham School News, a monthly published at Ashbourne, in the interest of the Cheltenham schools has reached the editor's desk. It is brimful of school news and is a credit to those publishing it. Prof. W. F. Zeigler is principal of the High School of the district, and under his tutorage it has been brought up to a high degree of efficiency.

Col. John A. Woodward, of Howard, is still somewhat the worse for his accident when his horse ran away four weeks ago and threw him out of his buggy, breaking three ribs and otherwise bruising and crippling him. Though still hobbling around with a stick he is getting along all right and it is only a question of a short time until he will be as strong as ever.

John From, of Oxford, Nebraska, has fully recovered from a broken limb, the result of a fall while driving the cows to pasture. Mr. and Mrs. From went west from Boalsburg early in the seventies, and now make their home with their daughter, Mrs. S. L. Conser. They have reached the advanced age of eighty-six and eighty-four years respectively, and yet maintain a deep interest in the local happenings in Penns Valley, which are read weekly in the Reporter.
