What it Means
We're tired of answering questions! "Fewer Gallons; Wears Longer" means that you don't have to paint your house so often, and you don't have to use so much paint. Costs less for the job, and you don't have to do the job so often.

The new paint is not new at all. It's the biggest-selling paint in the United States, and the firm that makes it is 149 years old.

Devoe Lead and Zinc—fewer gallons than mixed paints, wears twice as long as lead and oil.

Dr. Leitch Dead.
The Rev. J. L. Leitch, D. D., pastor of East Main Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Lock Haven, died Sunday, aged fifty years. He had been a sufferer from diabetes for several years. In the hopes of securing relief he was transferred by the Central Pennsylvania Conference to Utah, but returned to Pennsylvania a year ago last March to accept a charge in Lock Haven.

$400,000 in Conscience Fund.
A contribution to the United States conscience fund received recently carries the total amount beyond the $400,000 mark. The conscience fund was established in 1811.

A railroad, two miles in length, will be built up the One Mile Run, at Philipsburg, which will tap an important coal section.

Mrs. T. F. Farmer and little daughter, Miss Marion, of Philadelphia, arrived Monday evening to spend their summer vacation at the home of William C. Farmer and other relatives.

Among the visitors in Centre Hall over Sunday was Herbert H. Brungart, Charleroi, Washington county, at the home of his uncle, ex-Sheriff Cyrus Brungart. Mr. Brungart is principal of the High School at the town named, having filled that position for two successive years.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Swabb, of Freedom, and Miss Ruth Swabb, of Aaronsburg, were arrivals at Centre Hall station Monday evening. They were met by Arthur Lee, of Tusseyville, who took them to his home, where they will be guests for a short time. Mr. Swabb is a railroad conductor.

Edward R. and Miss Alice, son and daughter of P. P. Weber, of Huntingdon, were the guests of their cousin, Miss Hattie Weber, in this place, for a few days last week. Mr. Weber is cashier of the Eastman Business College, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and also acts as private secretary to the president of that institution.

A grain of corn was removed from the windpipe of a two-year-old boy at Shamokin, a few days ago, by a hospital surgeon. It was the first operation of the kind ever performed. The windpipe was cut open and sixteen stitches employed to sew it up. A dozen stitches were necessary to sew up the neck. The child recovered rapidly.

Pan Cake City, a locality near Colyer, was the scene of a bit of excitement early Monday morning, occasioned by an attempt of Constable Frank to arrest an individual who proved to be a sprinter of more than ordinary speed. The official went to the lodging place of the offender and made demands for his subject. The door was opened, and the constable made a bound for the second story of the dwelling, hoping to find his prize slumbering, but instead the man was making good his escape over the plains in a dress too short to flutter in its own breeze.

LOCALS.
Methodist appointments—Spruce town, morning, reception of probationers; Centre Hall, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening.

Mrs. Lucy A. Cox, Mrs. Morton Smith and children, Ralph and Eloise, all of Bellefonte, were the guests of Mrs. Maggie Harper in this place. The former is Mrs. Harper's sister and Mrs. Smith is her niece.

Perry Luse had his dwelling house, beyond the station, repainted recently. The work was done by Messrs. F. E. Arney and Ole Mader. Nothing so much improves a property as paint, especially when applied by the hands of an artist.

Fisher Motz, son of Christ Motz, deceased, late of Woodward, and Mrs. Edward Mauck drove to Centre Hall Monday and stopped for an hour with Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary. Mr. Motz is a lumber merchant and is located at Monessen, Westmoreland county.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Shires, who have been living in Chicago since their marriage a few years ago, have been at Spring Mills for the past few weeks. They expect to locate at Burnham, where Mr. Shires is likely to secure a clerkship in one of the offices of the works at that place.

Edward Wolf, of Altoona, was in town for a few days recently, and while here was the guest of his brother-in-law, Samuel Shoop. Mr. Wolf is rapidly recovering from a severe attack of sickness of a dropsical nature. He is employed in the Pennsylvania car shops and works in brass, preferring to work in that kind of metal rather than iron.

The Name's the Thing.
"This madness for names," complained the buyer of foreign lingerie, "is likely to drive me out of my wits. It's a weakness of the American people, this insanity for names! They want to know what you call a thing before they will dream of liking it. If the name attracts them, well and good. If not, they are prejudiced against it. I'm in almost as much trouble as Mother Eve, who had everything to name. I think and think, and after the simple, charming names have been exhausted my troubles begin. Consider the responsibility! A bit of underwear, for example, may take like wildfire if it is christened the Violet. Name it something less lovely and it may be a frost. In vain have I besought the French designers to name the choice bits they have conceived. But, no; they will only shrug their shoulders and say, "Pourquoi?" If a thing is novel, beautiful or fascinating, they think that is enough. And they are right. But, alas, I cannot impress this upon their patrons. They suspect the merit of a garment if it has no name. Some enterprising person could certainly make a living by offering a choice assortment of names to a long suffering public."—Philadelphia Record.

Trading in Swaziland.
An English trader who invaded the wilds of Swaziland, South Africa, to establish a store for traffic with the natives thus describes the beginning of his merchandising: "I set up shop under the bums in the long grass, with a sackful of blankets, beads, jews harps and tobacco, which we had carried. Within an hour or two I heard wild shouts, and, looking up from my work of cooking scones on a gridiron over the open fire, I saw half a dozen naked Swazi men war dancing down the slope of a hill which shut us in on the west side, brandishing assegais, long knives and knobkerries in wanton gayety and light heartedness. They had come in curiosity from their kraals near by. I exhibited my wares. They whistled through their teeth with surprised delight and danced off to return later with mealies, hens and sweet potatoes to offer in exchange. Such was the inauguration of our new store."

No Need to Speak to Him.
"Now, dear," said Mr. Polkley, who had just been accepted, "when shall I speak to your father?"
"You needn't bother," replied the dear girl. "Papa said he'd speak to you tomorrow if you didn't speak to me tonight."—Philadelphia Ledger.

J. W. Mitterling made a shipment of milch cows to the eastern market last week. He gives his entire attention to dealing in stock.

The threshing season is near at hand, and in order to be equipped properly for the large crop just harvested and another yet to be cut this season, George H. Emerick has secured a new Guiser threshing machine.

William G. Gerhard, who last year was principal of the Pine Grove Mills schools, has been elected principal of the Walker township High School, at Hubersburg. Mr. Gerhard will be remembered as the young man who, last winter at the teachers' local institute, at Centre Hall, spoke so interesting on his topic "How to create interest in uninteresting things." The people of Walker township can congratulate themselves on having secured such a capable and gentlemanly young man for the head of the district's educational institution.

Good for Stomach Trouble and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done me a great deal of good," says C. Towns, of Rat Portage, Ontario, Canada. "Being a mild physician the after effects are not unpleasant and I can recommend them to all who suffer from stomach disorder." For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.
