Fish Hatchery Property Enlarged.

Through a deal perfected by Merchant W. H. Noll, Jr., of Pleasant Gap, the fish hatchery came into possession of the S. H. Hoy property, consisting of a dwelling and several acres of land. Egg Hill, to the south of Spring Mills, thickly studded with pines, and presenting a beautiful appearance to the eye trained to discover beauty spots in nature, is being stripped by Lumberman G. C. King. The tracts were formerly owned by Messrs. M. H. Guise and Samuel Brown. Another.

That snake stories have lost none of their old time thrill, is proven by the following: Three boys who were picking berries on the mountain near Williamsburg, were prisoners for an hour on a fence with black snakes on each side of them. They feared attack and were half dead from fright when John France, a farmer, heard their cries and went to their relief. He summoned help and a battle with the snakes followed. After killing the reptiles it was found that one measured ten feet seven inches and the other almost nine feet.

Letter to W. B. Kremer & Son

Dear Sirs: Do you want to sell Devoe lead-and-zinc for your town and country?

The whole doctrine of it turns on these three points:

- (1) It is all paint and true paint; (2) It is the strongest paint; (3) It is full measure.

Because it is all paint, true paint, proportioned for strength and full-measure,

- (1) It takes least for a job; (2) Looks best all the time; (3) Lasts longest; (4) Gathers the trade, and holds customers.

There is no such argument for any other paint; there is no other such paint; there is nothing but talk for any other paint. Devoe is the paint, if you want the facts on your side.

The country is full of experiences; we bring these experiences to bear on your trade, if you sell Devoe.

Yours truly F. W. DEVOE & CO. New York

Spring Mills.

The Spring Mills base ball team say they will regain their lost laurels in the next contest.

Misses Anna Cummings and Bertha Stealy left on Tuesday for a week's stay at Centre Hall and Centre Hill, visiting relatives and friends.

Owing to the disagreeable weather Saturday evening, a number of the young folks were disappointed in not being able to attend the festival at Sprucetown.

Mr. Fenertmayer, who has been at Uniontown for several weeks, returned home Saturday. He has been engaged at carpenter work on a large residence for C. P. Loig.

Miss Bertha Stealy, of Sunbury, is here, visiting relatives and friends, the guest of Mrs. C. C. Cummings. Miss Dorn is also here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. McIlroy.

Within the next month, some changes will be made here in the rural delivery system which will extend two of the routes about a mile each. In all probability the Potters Mills post office will again be discontinued.

Miss Lizzie Stover has replenished her millinery stock with a variety of summer and early fall styles of hats. Owing to her exquisite taste in selections, Miss Stover is doing a lively business in the millinery line.

Rev. W. E. Karna, of Jersey Shore, spent several days here last week, the guest of Rev. G. W. McInay. The Reverend gentleman was a boyhood friend of the highly esteemed and polished clergyman of the Penns Valley charge.

One Dollar saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.
