

LOCALS.

An August personage—The summer girl. Presbyterian appointments—Centre Hall, morning; Spring Mills, afternoon.

Miss Grace Smith is spending a week with a camping party at Nippono Park, near Williamsport.

Two barns were struck by lightning, on Sunday, and totally destroyed. One barn was near Howard, the other near Millheim.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, west of town, last Tuesday evening, entertained friends and neighbors, in honor of Mrs. S. C. Runkle, of Philadelphia.

The population of Centre Hall, at present, is about one-third larger than ordinary—summer boarders and vacation seekers have swelled the number.

William Gress, of Pittsburg, an engineer on the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston Railroad, was the guest of his brother, Rev. Daniel Gress, in this place, for several days.

Mrs. J. T. Potter, of near Centre Hall, left on Monday to visit at Salona, Mill Hall and Lock Haven. She will attend the Quigley-Montgomery reunion, to be held at the Pine Camp Grounds, today (Thursday).

The Lanar township, Clinton county, school board has elected Clifford B. Williams, of Salladasburg, and Miss Mary M. McCullough, of Sunbury, principal and assistant principal respectively of the High School at Salona.

Mr. and Mrs. James High, of Lock Haven, attended the funeral of Mrs. James H. Runkle. While in the valley, Mr. High called at the Reporter office. The former is employed in the large tannery at Lock Haven.

An overloaded freight car caused a wreck on the Lewisburg and Tyrone branch, one and one-half miles west of Spring Mills, Monday morning, as the freight train was running east.

The car "climbed" the rail, taking four other cars with it, tearing up the track for a distance of one hundred and fifty yards. Many of the ties were entirely cut off. Little other damage was done.

The freight was the last train east in the morning, consequently there was no interference with traffic until afternoon, when the passengers were transferred.

John Osman, one of the brakemen, and son of Section Foreman Calvin Osman, of Glen Iron, was on the lumber car that climbed the rail, but he managed to hold to the car and was not thrown from it.

The track was repaired by five o'clock Tuesday morning.

Shedman's Big Ten-Cent Show.

Shedman's big ten-cent show will be at Centre Hall, Grange Arcadia, Friday evening, August 4. Specialties: Pantomime acts, European shadowgraphs, black art, slack-wire performance, juggling, etc., etc. One night only.

Profit in Berries.

Ira M. Rishel, at Boalsburg, has demonstrated that there is money in growing berries. During the past season, Mrs. Rishel and her children picked three hundred and sixty quarts of red raspberries from a plot of less than one-eight of an acre, which were sold at eight cents per quart. At that rate, one acre would yield 2880 quarts, worth $230.40.

Speakers at I. O. O. F. Reunion.

The speakers announced for the Odd Fellows reunion to be held on Grange Park, Centre Hall, Thursday, August 17th, are Rev. Miles O. Noll, of Carlisle; J. C. Meyer, Esq., Grand Marshal of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania; J. K. Johnson, Esq., Bellefonte; Laird Holmes, State College; Mrs. Tillie G. Haines, Altoona, Treasurer State Grange Rebekah Lodge.

An invitation is extended to all Odd Fellows, their families and friends to be present.

A Freight Wreck.

An overloaded freight car caused a wreck on the Lewisburg and Tyrone branch, one and one-half miles west of Spring Mills, Monday morning, as the freight train was running east.

The car "climbed" the rail, taking four other cars with it, tearing up the track for a distance of one hundred and fifty yards. Many of the ties were entirely cut off. Little other damage was done.

The freight was the last train east in the morning, consequently there was no interference with traffic until afternoon, when the passengers were transferred.

John Osman, one of the brakemen, and son of Section Foreman Calvin Osman, of Glen Iron, was on the lumber car that climbed the rail, but he managed to hold to the car and was not thrown from it.

The track was repaired by five o'clock Tuesday morning.

LOCALS.

O. T. Corman advertises for blackberries, huckleberries, apples and potatoes. Call him by 'phone for prices.

Mrs. J. A. Reesman and grandson, Bobbie McCormick, returned from a few months' visit to friends and relatives in Illinois.

Master Ceylon Gleece, son of G. W. Gleece, of Lock Haven, but formerly a resident of Centre Hall, was in town beginning of this week.

S. M. Campbell, of Millheim, advertises an August furniture sale at a reduction of from ten to twenty-five per cent from the regular price. Read his ad in this issue.

Mrs. Alfred Catherman, of near Hartleton, came to town Tuesday to interview Dr. Radcliffe, the eye specialist. While in town she was the guest of her brother, Assistant Postmaster C. W. Slack.

Prof. John D. Meyer is home from Cambridge, Mass., where he took a short course in Harvard University, to especially prepare him for duties as superintendent of the Bellefonte public schools. Before returning he spent several days in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Dr. and Mrs. McCluney Radcliffe and daughter, Miss Sarah, of Philadelphia, are in town, the guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. Shannon Boal. Dr. Radcliffe comes to the country for rest, but little he gets, because he is constantly besought by persons wanting treatment in his line. He is the chief surgeon in the Wills Eye and Ear Hospital and a professional man in whom the people of Centre county have complete confidence.

Miss Margaret Doyle, of Rhinebeck, New York, is at present visiting her aunt, Mrs. Amanda Spangler, at the home of D. L. Kerr, near Centre Hill. Miss Doyle is the daughter of Wesley Doyle, who during the early seventies was engaged as a moulder in the foundry when it was operated by the company that made so much of the history of this locality at that time. She is a school teacher, but has decided not to teach this year.

John R. Strong, of Potters Mills, was a caller Tuesday and had a good word to say for all the people in the vicinity of his home. He regretted that the Potters Mills postoffice would in time see its finish. Mr. Strong has studied the art of taxidermy, and has opened an establishment at his home. Some of his work has already been finished, among which is a parrot. "So nearly was the natural reproduced," said the taxidermist, "that the bird swore at me for pinching his feet when being fastened to the perch."

DEATHS.

MRS. JAMES HOWARD RUNKLE.

The funeral of Mrs. Runkle, Tuesday morning, was one of the largest witnessed on the south side of Potter township for some years. She was the daughter of John Royer, of Potters Mills, and was aged twenty-three years, six months, eleven days. Death was due to consumption from which disease she suffered for several months. During this illness a child was born, and last week the parents were called to witness its death. This incident, and the fact that the mother was so young, elicited much sympathy for the husband and a daughter, Mary Catherine, aged three years.

The deceased's maiden name was Susan Regina Royer, and her marriage to Mr. Runkle took place in 1900. She was the mother of five children, four of whom are dead, and a member of the Reformed church. Her pastor, Rev. Gress, officiated at the funeral services, assisted by Rev. Mr. Solver. Mr. and Mrs. Runkle lived on the farm of Calvin Bortoff, near Colyer, where the death of Mrs. Runkle occurred.

MRS. THOMAS ALLEN.

The death of Ellen Koch, wife of Thomas Allen, occurred at their home in Boalsburg, Monday morning, July thirty-first, at one thirty o'clock. Her health had been failing for some time, but only during the last few weeks was her condition considered serious. She had only been confined to bed about a week when the summons came.

Mrs. Allen was a consistent member of the Lutheran church, and a faithful wife and mother, one whose loss will be deeply felt in the home circle. Her age was sixty-two years, one month. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, three children—Frank, John and Albert; also one brother, residing at Buffalo Run.

MRS. ELIZA ADAMS.

Friday of last week, Mrs. Eliza Adams died at the home of her daughter in Danville, and interment was made at Millheim, Monday, Rev. George W. McInay, of the Methodist church officiating. Her age was seventy-four years.

The deceased was the widow of the late J. W. Adams, of Millheim. She is survived by the following children: O. P. Adams, State College; J. W. Adams, Huntingdon; Mrs. J. M. Hoover, Millinburg; Mrs. H. F. Coons, Danville; Miss Emma Adams, Danville; Mrs. Charles Hershey, Sunbury.

Mrs. Adams' maiden name was Feese, and was born in Union county, in the vicinity of Laurelton.

GEORGE CLARK.

At the age of the seventy-three years the death of George Clark occurred at his home at Paradise. Interment took place at Houserville. He was born in England, and is survived by a widow, three sons and seven daughters.
