

THE SMITH REUNION.

The Descendants of Francis Smith, a Son of Erin, Meet Near Penn Hall.

Saturday of last week, the relatives and former neighbors of Joseph Smith gathered in "Pine Woods," east of Penn Hall for a day's picnic in his honor.

Mr. Smith was formerly well known throughout Penna Valley as a wagon builder and undertaker, but for several years has been living with his sons in Illinois, is now making a visit to his old home and friends.

Many of Mr. Smith's relatives live in this vicinity, and were present at the picnic, although none of his immediate family are now residents here. His children, Ezra, George, Margaret (Mrs. John Hazel), Eliza (Mrs. John Grenoble), and Dora, are all living in Illinois. The latter, Dr. Smith, has recently been a delegate to the American Medical Association at its meeting in Portland, Oregon.

Mr. Smith is accompanied on his visit by Mrs. Ella Smith, wife of Francis Smith, third, a nephew.

Mr. Smith and Mrs. Mary Smith, wife of Elias E. Smith, of Penn Hall, are to-day the only ones living of a family of seven children of Francis Smith, Jr.

Francis Smith, Sr., the grandfather of Joseph Smith, was born in Ireland. His parents came to Dauphin county, Pa., in the middle part of the eighteenth century. Early in the last century, Francis Smith, Sr., the founder of the family, came to Centre county and lived in what is now known as Smithtown, west of Millheim.

He was the father of six children and his descendants to-day number ninety-two.

There were present at the picnic three little children, the sixth generation, descendants of Francis Smith, Sr.

It is worthy of notice that though all the Smiths of this family are proud of their "Pennsylvania-German" ancestry, the founder of the family was a son of old Erin, the Emerald Isle.

New Fast Line to Birmingham, Ala.

The Seaboard Air Line Railway now operates through Pullman Drawing Room Sleeping Cars, daily, from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington to Birmingham, Ala. via Richmond, through Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia, by far, the most attractive route.

In addition to this excellent service another daily train carries Pullman Drawing Room Sleeping Cars to Atlanta, Ga. from which point Pullman Buffet Parlor Cars are operated to Birmingham—Dining Cars serving meals a la carte are handled on all Seaboard through trains. With the Seaboard's new line to Birmingham, passengers from this section are given a most excellent double daily service to the Southwest, as above indicated.

The Seaboard with two trains daily is, also, the shortest and best route to Raleigh, Columbia, Savannah, Jacksonville, Tampa and other points throughout the South Atlantic States. Write for information as to rates, schedules, etc.

Pennsylvania huckleberries in Missouri

Jared Osman, at Butler, Missouri, was successful in growing huckleberries shipped from Nittany Mountain to his western home. Mr. Osman grew to manhood in Potter township, and was well acquainted with the huckleberry as it grows in the mountains in Pennsylvania. When he moved west, the berry was much missed by him and his family, and although the matter was discussed for years, it was not until last spring that he sent an order to his nephew, John H. Puff, in this place, to prepare a shipment of stalks for trial in Missouri soil.

The plants grew splendidly, and he has just finished harvesting the first crop of huckleberries grown in Missouri. Mr. Osman intends increasing the berry plot in the future.

Township High School Principals.

The school directors of Haines township, at a recent meeting, elected Henry Krape, a graduate of Myerstown College, principal of the Haines Township High School, at Aaronsburg; salary, $60. Mr. Krape taught one of the public schools in that township last winter.

I. E. Poffenberger was elected principal of the Pine Grove Mills public schools at a meeting held by the board Saturday evening. Mr. Poffenberger is a graduate of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, and stood at the head of his class in mathematics and languages. While a student at college, Mr. Poffenberger managed to support himself by working during vacation and while the college was in session.

Brown-Ritter.

Bernard L. Brown, of Bellefonte and Miss Wilma Pearl Ritter, of Centre Hall, were married at St. John's English Lutheran parsonage Lock Haven, Friday, by Rev. F. W. Schaefer, pastor of the German Lutheran church. Rev. Parr happened to be out when the young couple called at the parsonage and Rev. Schaefer, who had called to see Rev. Parr, performed the ceremony.

Letter From Rev. Rearick.

For the Centre Reporter:
I will say for the benefit of many inquiring friends that Mrs. Rearick is now in the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital. On Wednesday, between 11 and 12 o'clock, Dr. Earnest La Place will perform an extensive operation for cancer of the breast.

J. M. REARIK.
1822 Arch Street, Philadelphia.
Tuesday, August 8, 1905.

THE OPERATION OVER.

A telegram from Rev. J. M. Rearick received Wednesday, at 3:40 p. m., says:

The operation is over. Everything favorable.

Odd Fellows' Reunion.

The committee report that everything is being done to make the reunion of Odd Fellows, at Centre Hall, Thursday of next week, a success. The array of speakers announced last week will be able to entertain and instruct all who are inclined to give an ear on that occasion.

Arrangements are underway, and practically completed, that will result in a game of base ball being played in the afternoon. The teams that will enter into the contest are Hecla and Centre Hall.

The local Rebekah lodge has charge of the sale of refreshments on the grounds. They will be able to serve all in the best style.

A Marvelous Enterprise.

Every day the expression is heard, "It is marvelous how a Sunday newspaper can give to its readers free of charge such a beautiful color magazine as is given with The Philadelphia Sunday Press."

LOCALS.

The children's service announced for Sunday, in the Lutheran church, has been postponed.

Claude K. Stahl went back to Altoona the other day. It is understood that he has secured a clerkship.

Harry Dinges is having his dwelling house, east of Centre Hall, repainted. The work is being done by Rearick Brothers.

Robert Mullen, son of John F. Mullen, of Allegheny, will spend a short time in Centre Hall with friends.

Samuel Gross, of Centre Hall, will be found at State College for the present, where he is employed in one of the college barns.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brungart, of Charleroi, Washington county, are guests of ex-Sheriff and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart, in this place.

From the best information at hand there will be a game of base ball on Grange Park, Centre Hall, Saturday afternoon, between the "Rock" team and the Juniors from this place.

Rev. James W. Beal will deliver the sermon in the auditorium, Grange Park, at the opening of the Grange Encampment and Exhibition. Services will be held in the afternoon.

Mrs. Bell, wife of E. C. Bell, died in Berlin, Prussia, while undergoing an operation in a hospital. She never regained consciousness. Mr. Bell, who was in Centre Hall at that time and until a few days ago, is now in New York.

H. F. Rockey, of Nebraska, who during the past six months has been nursing his uncle, Michael D. Rockey in Logan township, Clinton county, intends to set sail for Porto Rico, on 21st inst. Before going he will visit friends in Maryland and Virginia.

The Rev. Dr. David Bittle Floyd, late pastor of the Lutheran church of West Washington, D. C., who was recently elected to the chair of Hebrew and Greek exegesis in the theological department of Susquehanna University, arrived at Sellersgrove Wednesday of last week and presented his acceptance in person.

Miss Bertha Dunkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dunkle, of Centre Hall is visiting here at present and will remain for several weeks. Miss Dunkle, for the past four years, has been in Los Angeles, California, where she is employed in the Ladies' Exchange. Before returning to the Pacific Coast she will spend some time with her sister in Elmira, New York.

A party of young ladies from Centre Hall, with visiting friends, picnicked on the top of Nittany Mountain Tuesday afternoon. The crowd was composed of the following: Misses Amy Dunoon and Helen Cleaver, Gordon; Mildred and Mary Grimm, Bellefonte; Laura Runkle, Tracy Kreamer, Elsie and Virna Geiss, Helen Hosterman and Nellie Kerlin, Centre Hall. On the mountain they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Grimm, Eleanor Parker, Messrs. Clarence Garbrick and Bert Robb, all of Bellefonte; Charles Dunoon, Gordon; Prof. Will D. Blair, Millinburg. The day was a delightful one, and was much enjoyed by all of the party.

The average girl is perfectly willing to entertain a proposal.

WON AND LOST.

Centre Hall Sent out Two Base Ball Teams Saturday—Millheim Loose, Spring Mills Wins.

Two base ball teams from Centre Hall played neighboring nines Saturday afternoon, and the result was one game won, one game lost. A pick-up nine met the best timber in and about Millheim. It was a good game played on both sides, with plenty of amusement for the spectators. Millheim, like all other towns, except Centre Hall, has its base ball rooters, and that branch of the base ball enthusiasts would win an easy victory if left to them. But rooting and playing ball are very dissimilar.

Individual players in both teams did stunts worthy of notice, but here no such notice can be given. The umpires were Dr. Hardenburg and George O. Benner.

The score: Centre Hall, 8; Millheim, 4.

At Spring Mills there was a different tude. The home team did all kinds of things to their visiting nine while on the diamond, but used them royally afterward. The score will show that it was an easy victory, and will largely counterbalance the two defeats previously met by them at the hands of the same team.

Earl Bartley was the umpire.

Mr. Kimpfort Stricken With Paralysis.

L. W. Kimpfort, of Boalsburg, Tuesday of last week, received a light stroke of paralysis. He was afflicted in a similar way several years ago, and since then his health has been much impaired.

About a year ago Mrs. Kimpfort was also stricken with paralysis, and since has not fully regained her former good health.
