

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.

The figures opposite your name on label of paper indicate the date to which your subscription is paid. When no date is given the date implied is July, 1905; when no month is given the month implied is July—thus: "00" means July, 1905; "01" means July, 1906; "02" means that your subscription is paid in advance to July, 1906. Other months than July are indicated by abbreviations.

When you pay your subscription always examine your label, and when a notice appears that corrections have been made, compare and report immediately if you have not been given proper credit. No receipts for subscription will be sent by mail unless by special request. The charge of date on label ought to be sufficient evidence. Money by mail is reasonably safe. There have been no losses to this date.

RESOLUTIONS AND CARDS OF THANKS.—Resolutions of respect will be charged for at the rate of one-half cent per word, (payable in advance) the minimum charge being $1.00. Cards of thanks, two cents per word, minimum charge, fifty cents, also payable in advance.

They Appeal to Our sympathies.

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. There is not one of them, however, who may not be brought back to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. These tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and strengthen the digestion. They also regulate the bowels. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

Fewer gallons; wears longer; Devoc.

Spring Mills.

The Penn Hall carriage works is running full time. Mr. Condo says he has now on file sufficient orders to keep them busy until late in the fall.

Mrs. H. W. Burd, of Philadelphia, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Reifnyder, of Rebersburg.

Miss Cora Brown, of Potters Mills, returned home Monday afternoon, after spending a week with friends in Bellefonte.

The childhood home is an admired spot by most old people, and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer, of Philadelphia, is not an exception to the rule in this respect. Recently she and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Schaeffer, and granddaughters, Rachel, Kathryn and Susanna, of Philadelphia, accompanied by her nieces, Mrs. Annie Reed and Mrs. Florence Stover and son Riley, of Boalsburg, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Meyer, near Boalsburg, where Mrs. Schaeffer and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sparr, lived from the time she was five years old until her marriage. She is now seventy years old, but nevertheless she searched out every spot on the old homestead that the great lapse of years had not erased from her memory. The junior Mrs. Schaeffer, who is the wife of Frank Schaeffer, merchant tailor of Philadelphia, had never before been in a barn, and the trip there on this occasion was of special interest to her.
