Clearfield County to get Money.

The appeal taken from the county auditors' settlement by the taxpayers of Clearfield county relative to the expenditure of alleged exorbitant sums for lightning rods and the painting and repairs of county buildings by the ex-board of county commissioners, Charles Cole, Henry Delm and W. C. Davis, will not be filed. The ex-commissioners last week agreed to refund to the county $2,500 and pay the costs. The case has been hanging since 1903.

From Millheim Journal.

The property on Main street, known as the John F. Harter residence, was sold last week to Nathaniel Boob, of Union county. Mr. Boob and family will become residents of this place next spring.

Abraham King, while at work with a manure fork, accidentally ran one of the tines of the fork into the instep of his left foot, causing a painful, if not dangerous wound. At this time he is unable to step on the foot and gets about on crutches.

Special Trains for Encampment.

Special trains will be run on account of the Encampment and Fair at Grange Park, Centre Hall, September 16th to 22nd, leaving Bellefonte Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 10 a. m. and 6.30 p. m., stopping at intermediate stations. Also leaving Grange Park for Bellefonte on the same days at 9.45 p. m.

Special trains to Coburn and all intermediate stations, leaving Grange Park at 7.30 p. m. on Wednesday and Thursday.

Central Pa. Firemen Adjourn.

The Central Pennsylvania Firemen's Convention at Philipsburg, closed Thursday of last week, the attendance being the largest in the history of the association. One thousand and eight firemen were in the parade. The next convention will meet at Bellefonte and will be officiated as follows: President, John McCuley, Bellefonte; first vice president, C. L. Ammerman, Philipsburg; second vice president, W. F. Ross, Juniata; secretary, Charles Langford, Houtzdale; treasurer, R. W. Gochour, Tyrone.

The Undine Fire Company, of Bellefonte, had forty-eight men in the line of parade and the Logan Company had forty-two men.

The Location of Keith's Million Dollar Theatre, Philadelphia.

This magnificent amusement edifice is easy of access from all points of the city, and it would not be possible to find a better location for a theatre in the Quaker City. It is situated on Chestnut street, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, in the heart of the shopping district, and is within one block of the Reading Terminal and within two blocks of Broad Street (Pennsylvania R. R.) Station. The out-of-town shoppers will find this handsome theatre an ideal place to enter for rest, recreation and amusement, and incidentally to "fix up" after contact with the throngs in the stores. The evening pleasure-seeker can find no more convenient or interesting amusement resort.

Linden Hall vs. Centre Hall.

Seventeen to twenty was the score of the base ball game played on Grange Park, Saturday afternoon, between Linden Hall and Centre Hall. The Linden Hall boys are tyros on the diamond, but they have some very good material, namely Bricker, Horner, Meyer and one or two others. They made no pretense, but played ball as best they could. The score is very much to their credit, although not the highest.

The visiting nine was composed of Messrs. Charles Ross, catcher; Ed. Horner, pitcher; George Meyer, first base; Runkle Frazier, second base; J. Bohn, third base; William McClintic, right field; H. Bricker, short stop; H. Keller, centre field; Earl Ross, left field.

Centre Hall—Coldron, 3 b.; Bailey, 1 b.; Goodhart, c.; Jacobs, 2 b.; Mitterling, c. l.; Stump, r. f.; Homan, p.; Bradford, s. s.; Stover, l. f. Umpires, Clyde Bradford, Wm. Booser.

Linden Hall expects to come back again in the near future.

Letter from Fred Christie.

The following letter was received from Fred L. Christie, Livingston, Montana, son of the late Rev. F. F. Christie, at one time pastor of the Presbyterian congregation in Centre Hall:

As I have been located in Livingston nearly two years it is becoming very home like. I am working for the Northern Pacific Railroad, doing the pipe work on locomotives; have been promoted several times, until now I have the work in the roundhouse.

The pipefitters on this line do not receive as much pay as those on some of the roads in the west, but expect more soon. We make 31 cents per hour, while other roads pay from 34 to 37 cents per hour.

I see by the Reporter that the Pennsylvania Railroad will run excursions to Portland and Yellowstone National Park, and would advise all who can to take that trip, as the Park itself is worth a dozen expositions. Livingston is the "Gateway City" to the Park and the Northern Pacific is the only railroad to the entrance. By the last census Livingston showed between 4500 and 4800 inhabitants. It is located on the Yellowstone river, (a tributary of the Missouri river.) Mt. Baldy, 9711 feet in height, rises to the south and extends toward the west where the railroad crosses the first divide of the Rockies. Toward the northeast stretches irregular foothills and for about forty miles the Crazy Mountains, which, when covered with snow, are very beautiful.

Twenty-five miles west, after crossing the first divide, is the Gallatin Valley, where irrigation is seen at its best. I was there one harvest and saw wheat average 55 bushels per acre, oats 120 bushels and barley 50 bushels.

In Livingston I have seen thirty-five trains of sixteen cars each leave the stockyards inside of twenty-four hours, loaded with stock.

Trout season is in full blast and they are biting prime; all sizes from ounce to seven and eight pounds.

LOCALS.

Captain J. M. Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills, is in Tonesta, Forest county, his former home.

Mrs. Sarah Durst, of Centre Hall, last week accompanied her daughter, Anna, to Pittsburg, where she will remain for some time.

Prof. William T. Meyer, of Philadelphia, who, with his daughter, is spending the summer in Aaronsburg, spent one day last week with friends in town.

G. C. Markel, of Linden Hall, was a caller a few days ago to have his name placed on the Reporter subscription list. Mr. Markel lives on the old Kimpfort homestead which property he recently purchased.

Rev. Thos. S. Land has assumed the duties as president of Allentown College for Women, and has removed from Millersville to Allentown. Rev. Land will be remembered as pastor of the Centre Hall Reformed church, in this place.

The horse owners of Bellefonte held a meeting last week to formulate plans relative to compelling owners and drivers of automobiles in that place to conform to the law regulating the speed limit of autos, which is eight miles per hour in boroughs and twenty in townships.

The Sugar Valley Journal says that the proposed rural free delivery route from Loganton to Tylersville does not receive the approval of many people at the latter village. They have remonstrated against it and are asking Uncle Sam to grant them similar service starting from Rebersburg, which they say would give a great deal better satisfaction.

DEATHS.

MRS. REBECCA SPARR.

Mrs. Rebecca Sparr, the oldest resident and wealthiest woman in Harris township, died at her home in Boalsburg, Sunday evening at 10 o'clock. Her death was due to the infirmities of old age, she having passed the eighty-second milestone in life's journey. For two months past she had been dangerously ill.

The deceased's maiden name was Rebecca Cornman, and was married twice. Her first husband was Joseph Meyer, a well known musician, who died in 1862, while playing an organ at the dedication of the Reformed church at Boalsburg. She then married David Sparr, a prominent citizen of the county, who died many years ago. She leaves no children, but is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Brungart, of Rebersburg, and Mrs. Witmer, of Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Sparr was a member of the Reformed church. The funeral took place Wednesday morning. The services were held in the Reformed church at Boalsburg, Rev. A. A. Black officiating. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

MRS. SAMUEL T. BROOKS.

Mrs. Annie Kate Bell, wife of Samuel T. Brooks, died Friday morning at her home on East Bishop street, Bellefonte, after an illness of several weeks duration.

The deceased was the daughter of William C. Bell, deceased, and was born at McAlevy's Fort, Huntingdon county. For many years the family resided at Pleasant Gap, where the mother and sisters still live. She was married to Samuel T. Brooks, of Bellefonte, four years ago, and has resided there ever since. She was a regular attendant at the Methodist church, and was loved and esteemed by all who knew her.

She is survived by her husband and two little children, Pomeroy and Eugene. She also leaves to mourn their loss her mother, Mrs. Nancy Bell, two sisters, Ida and Mame, and one brother, Roy, all of Pleasant Gap.

The funeral was held Monday morning. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

JOHN M. RANKIN.

The death of John M. Rankin, of Johnstown, occurred in Cambria Hospital, from the effects of a fall from a ladder. His age was forty-seven years. The deceased, from his childhood, made his home with the family of William Robinson, of Nittany Valley. He is survived by his wife and aunt, Mrs. A. F. Marale, of State College.

LOCALS.

The Yeager Swing Company, of Bellefonte, which has been running full time the past season, in the manufacture of swings, and which has given steady employment to many hands, will keep their plant in operation during the winter by the manufacture of a line of standard novelties.

William Lehr, son of James H. Lehr, of Philadelphia, secured a scholarship at the University of Pennsylvania. He was one of five of the Central Manual Training School, of Philadelphia, of which he is a graduate, who secured a scholarship for meritorious work during the time he attended that school. The prize is worth eight hundred dollars. His friends in Centre Hall are congratulating him. He belongs to this town by birth.

Mr. and Mrs. George Breon of Williamsport, had an exciting experience, one day last week. On boarding a train at Watsonstown, they were unable to make the porter of the parlor car hear, and the train got under headway with both of them on the steps of the car. Mrs. Breon clinging to the handle of the door. At Dewart tower, five miles distant, the train was flagged, and the couple were relieved from their perilous position. Mr. Breon is a lumber dealer, and is well known to the lumber men throughout this county.

Letter to J. W. Smith

Centre Hall, Pa.

Dear Sir: There are several ways of cheating in milk. An old-fashioned way is to water it. Nobody waters it now. A better way is to take out the cream—rich milk with the cream taken out is as good as poor milk with its cream all in.

But we needn't go into particulars. You don't rob your milk and your customers.

Paint is as easy as milk to cheat with. Good paint is as rare as good milk; for human nature is much the same in milkmen and paint men.

You are just and true with your milk; so are we with our paint. Devote lead-and-zinc is twice as good as mixed paints: There's twice as much butter in it.

Mr. J. T. Ladd, Cheraw, S. C., writes: "When Mr. Evans painted his house with Devco, he figured on how other paints covered and had enough left to paint three large rooms. He was so pleased that he has used Devco on two other houses."

Yours truly
 F. W. DEVOE & Co.,
 New York.

Miss Ida Kessinger returned home from Nittany on Monday.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old-fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to grip. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

THE SHARPLESS TUBULAR CREAM SEPARATOR is a short cut, having half the dairy work, it is a low-down machine. There is no drudgery in washing the simple three piece Dairy Tubular Separator bowl. Avoid bucket bowls. They are full of troublesome parts. Twenty-six sizes—take the one that will accommodate your herd. Considering the durability of the machine, the price is the lowest of any separator on the market. For further particulars write or apply in person to:

THE BEST SHOES

Free SHOES Free

A Chance to Get Your Winter Shoes For Nothing.

This beyond question is the greatest chance ever offered by any Shoe House in the State. It is simply this: On a certain day during the month of September every purchase made at our Store—no matter how large or how small it may be—will be free. What day is it, nobody knows.

The way it is done is very simple. Twenty-five envelopes each containing a number that corresponds with the week days of the month of September (Sundays and Labor Day omitted) were put into a hat and well shaken. Mr. John Shugart, cashier of the Centre County Bank, Bellefonte, selected one of the envelopes and has placed the same in the vault at the bank. Mr. Shugart does not know what number it contains, we don't, you don't. On the 1st of October the envelope is opened and every person who has purchased Shoes on the day corresponding to the number contained in the envelope will have the amount of money they spent at our Store that day returned to them. We keep a record of each purchase made. Now let us see how lucky you are. If you need Shoes you cannot afford to miss this offer.
