A Dandy Liar.

Jared Osman, of Butler, Missouri, sent the Reporter the appended corn story. The farmer referred to lives near Adrian, ten miles north of Butler, and is a dandy:

Mr. William Brossow, living about four miles west of Adrian, says his corn stalks were two inches thick and twenty-two feet high, but not a silk was to be found on his farm, although the tassels were fine, so he decided to cut it up and save the fodder and sow the land in wheat.

When he commenced to plow, to his great surprise and satisfaction, he found that it was the potato variety which he had planted, and that under the roots of each hill he found just fourteen ears, besides a half gallon of shelled corn, which is to be left in the field for the hogs to root for, and thereby leave the ground all plowed for the next crop. He now solicits orders for his new seed.

F., to be held at Philadelphia, Pa., September 16 to 23, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Philadelphia, September 15 to 19, inclusive, good returning until September 25, inclusive, from all stations on its lines in the State of Pennsylvania, at greatly reduced rates.

Albert Colvin, of Schellsburg, a graduate of State College, class of 1904, who became known to many in this place by frequent visits, during his college course, at the Presbyterian Manse and elsewhere, was recently killed. He was employed in West Virginia, and while at work was struck on the head by a heavy casting which some Italians were unloading from a car. He never regained consciousness. He was buried at his boyhood home. Thus ends after only a little more than a year of work the life of a young man who was well prepared for his chosen profession, electrical engineering, and who gave promise of a useful career.

The Farmer Telephone Committee Meet.

The committee appointed by the Centre County Pomona Grange to investigate the terms to be offered by the various telephone companies in Centre county and decide which company held out the most advantageous proposition, met in Bellefonte Saturday. Messrs. Gann and Robb, representing the Bell and Commercial companies, respectively, were before the committee, but the latter company did not have its proposition in writing, consequently action in the matter could not be taken by the committee.

Teachers' Institute.

The Centre County Teachers' Institute will open Monday, November 13. This will be the first institute under the management of Superintendent D. O. Ethers, and it will be useless to say that he will make his best efforts to have the most capable and experienced instructors during the week. The institute will be, more than ever, calculated to enthuse teachers and create an educational sentiment throughout the county.

Letter to Centre Hall Doctors.

Dear Sirs: You understand chemistry; how'd you like to earn $1000? Devote lead-and-zinc—that's the name of our paint that takes fewer gallons than mixed paint and wears twice as long as lead-and-oil—is made of white-lead, white-zinc, its color, turpentine dryer, and lincsed oil. If any chemist finds any adulteration in this paint we'll pay his bill and $1000 besides.

It's nobody's business what we put in our paint, of course; but we want it known. For lead-and-zinc and lincsed oil, ground together by machinery, are the stuff to paint with; and lead-and-oil mixed by hand is not. We want it known that one word describes the best paint in the world; and that word is Devoco.

Yours truly F. W. DEVOC & Co., New York.

The best way to disperse a crowd is to take up a collection.

COURT NEWS.

Jury Returns a Verdict of Not Guilty in McHugh Case.

Commonwealth vs. Herritt, two counts, larceny and receiving stolen goods. Prosecutor, Mrs. Nora Welsh. The case was from Curtin township, and was brought on the charge of stealing and selling a calf. The verdict of the jury was not guilty, but defendant to pay all costs.

Commonwealth vs. Samuel Coble, Jr., assault and the wantonly pointing of firearms. Prosecutor, John Coble. The defendant was found guilty on both counts and recommended to the mercy of the court. Sentenced to a fine of $10 and costs of prosecution.

Commonwealth vs. Annie Dulen, assault and battery. Prosecutor, D. Z. Frain. Bill ignored by the grand jury and costs put on the prosecutor. A counter case brought by Annie Dulen was disposed of in the same way.

Commonwealth vs. Thomas Hazard, larceny. Prosecutor, John Miles. Bill ignored by the grand jury.

Commonwealth vs. Geo. M. Harter, assault and battery. Prosecutor, D. Z. Frain. Verdict not guilty and the costs divided, the prosecutor to pay one-fourth and the defendant three-fourths.

Commonwealth vs. Thos. A. Eye, indicted on three counts: entering mill at night to commit felony; larceny; receiving stolen goods. Prosecutor, John F. Lucas. The case was from Moshannon, and from the evidence the defendant was caught in the prosecutor's mill in the act of stealing a bag of corn. He was compelled to leave without the corn and was prosecuted as above. Verdict of guilty was returned by the jury.

Commonwealth vs. Jas. Edward Stover, indicted on three counts: larceny; receiving stolen goods; conspiracy. Prosecutor, Edward D. Baker. This was a case growing out of the robbery of the Eby brothers, of near Woodward. Defendant was charged with making keys to the large chest of the Ebys, with having taken money therefrom and given keys to the Fultz's by means of which they were able to rob the aged men. A verdict of guilty on the first and third counts was returned by the jury.

Commonwealth vs. William Long, assault and battery. Prosecutor, William F. Peters. Defendant, plead guilty.

The trial of Winfield Gregg, charged with being implicated in the death of Michael McHugh, on the night of April 11th last, near Sandy Ridge, was called Thursday afternoon.

Defendant was called to the bar and entered a plea of "not guilty." He is sixty-five years of age and a veteran of the civil war.

The jury panel was almost exhausted before the twelve men were secured. The names of jurors selected are as follows: Adam Fisher, farmer, Boggs; James A. Decker, butcher, Ferguson; W. A. Bodie, farmer, Spring; John J. Osman, farmer, College; W. H. Conley, mechanic, Unionville; W. C. Kline, shoemaker, State College; Curtis Meyer, laborer, College; F. M. Fletcher, teacher, Liberty; Michael Heaton, farmer, Boggs; A. J. Johnson, carpenter, Worth; Andrew Shook, gentleman, Rush; Michael Woerner, stone mason, State College.

After hearing considerable evidence, and occupying the time of the court up to Saturday forenoon, Judge Orvis instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of "Not Guilty," which they did. The old man Gregg received the verdict very calmly. The charge of assault and battery still hangs over him and Commonwealth insisted on holding him on the charge so he was remanded back to jail in default of bail.

The sum and substance of the matter is, the unfortunate McHugh and the defendant were on a spree, and the former lost his life by drowning.
